-The Guardians of the Poor held a stated meeting yesterday afternoon. The population of the Almshouse was reported as 3,040, an increase of 92 over the same period last year. The contract for; coal was awarded to Hammit & The contract for, coal was awarded to Hammit & Neill at $4 75 per ton. The contract for the extension of the wings of the Insane Depart-ment of the Almshouse was awarded to George Herbert at $65, $90. Dr. Pepper read report on the condition of the black men's ward during March, April and May, and ex-plained the discrepancies which were said to bained the disciptancies which were saw to exist in the record of deaths in that ward During the months of March, April and May, there are cured on the books, of the meni-medical ward, as patients of the black men's ward, but example double becomes the ecoirty in ward, but entanting eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other ward, but entanting eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other ward, but entanting eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other ward, but entanting eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other ward, but entanting eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other ward, but entanting eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other ward during the books of the receiving ward, the remaining eight having been transferred from the out wards; or some other wards of the hospital, without passing through the receiving ward, the netward from the black mer's medical ward in the ward and forty-fourd and forty-two: forty-three deaths reported from the black mer's medical ward in the ward ward, with the awards and forty-two: forty-three of these or poot precisely, name's on some other books of the receiving ward, the the ward draget forth of the superior and forty-two: forty-three of these or mer's medical ward in the ward and forth could be award withe award ward wards of the heaver the books of the receiving ward, the the ward ward ward ward ward ward, ward, ward ward ward, exist in the record of deaths in that ward. During the months of March, April and May, there are entered on the books of the men's bis card as transferred to the medical ward and sent the 'card there. Before, however, the man could be moved, he sank and died. He was entered on the books of the medical ward from the card which was received, and the fatal termination was also recorded; but the death notice was of course signed by Dr. Fox, fatal termination was also recorded; but the death notice was of course signed by Dr. Fox, and thus the death came to be entered in both wards. This entirely explains the only ap-parent discrepancy, and completely establishes the correspondences and harmony of the various re-cords shows that no substantial discrepancies,

A natty little book has just come over from London, entitled "Reminiscences of America: by Two Englishmen," which describes the wavis. stances of the "hyperbole" of the country they, record the following:—In describing the large trees of the Yosemite Valley, one said that "it took two, men and a boy to see the top of took two, men and a boy to see the top of them." One being asked by a friend if he saw a certain mosquito on the weather-vane of the State House (?) at St. Louis, answered, "Yes, see it winking." A third, in describing the prices of carriages at Niagara, as-serted that the "hack fares are so CEASIDE BOARDING AT FBLENDS' high that the Falls are insignificant by comparison." Another story is related, with the appearance of truth, of a boy who was watching his school-fellows as they snow-balled an old gentleman's windows. The old watching his school-fellows as they snow-balled an old gentleman's windows. The old gentleman rushed out of his house, determined, if possible, to inflict some severe corporeal punishment on the offender, saying, when he caught the boy, "Now, you rascal, I'll thrash you within an inch of your life!" Accordingly he began to beat him, when the boy imme-diately commenced laughing, and continued until the old gentleman stopped beating him, with the exclamation, "Boy, what are you laughing at?" "Well," said the boy, "I'm haughing because you are awfully sold: I ain't the boy "— Editor's Draver, in Harper's EDUCATION.
