Arson Case - Cnarles Foehl, charged with arson in having fired his workshop in the fourth story of building No. 148 North Third street, had a further hearing before Ald. Kerr this afternoon.

Fire Marshal Blackburn described the condition of the building and the manner in which the fires had been kindled. In reply to ques-tions by counsel he said that Foehl had transferred his insurance from his house and store on Third street, near New, to No. 148; that his inquiries about defendant had shown that he had always been considered a very good work man and an honorable man.

man and an honorable man.
Several witnesses were examined, and among them Frank Burnham, who had been at work in the third story, and heard footsteps pass down from the fourth story to the street

James McGlathery, Insurance Appraiser, testified that defendant had handed him a statement, showing that the stock was valued at $2,026—twenty-six dollars obove the insurance. After examining into the matter he thought the stock might be worth about $1,300

The defendant was committed to answer at

HOUSE OF CORRECTION—THE CONTRACT AWARDED.—The City Councils Committee on House of Correction met this afternoon in the committee room to receive and open the proposals for the erection of the new building. The bids were as follows: oids were as follows: R. J. Dobbins....

UNSUCCESSFUL PICKPOCKET.-William Kelley went to the horse market, at Twenty-fourth street and Ridge avenue, yesterday. He acted very much like a "jockey." By some means he got his hand into the pocket of another man. Policeman Nichols happened to see this move, and before the hand could be removed, he had hold of the owner of it. William said he didn't know, here here to do to have the he didn't know how be came to do it, but the policeman was obdurate and took his prisoner before Alderman Allison. That official heard the case and then put Kelley under $1,000 bail

WELL ARMED .- Edward States (colored) got into a quarrel with a white man at Sevently and Lombard streets last night, and threatened to give a job to some undertaker. This being contrary to law, Edward got himself into the clutches of a policeman. It was then found that he had a pistol and razor on his He was taken before Ald. Morrow and was held in $600 bail to answer.

These races are mile heats, best three in five to harness except double team and saddle races, and ness, except double team and saddle races, and will be conducted under the rules of the Na-tional Association. In all races the purses are to be divided into installments, to be given to the three leading horses. These races will, no doubt, be very interesting, and will attract a large number of persons to Point Breeze Park.

ART SCHOOL.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the re-opening of the Art School of Prof. Van der Wielen, who resumes his in-structions to artists at the rooms, No. 1334 Chestnut street, on Monday next. We have referred on former occasions to the merits of this school, and trust to see it increasingly patronized during the present season.

INFALLIBILITY.

First Fruits of the Dogma. The Papal dogma has already begun to bear fruit. At Jerusalem the Armeniau Patriarch has declined to lend his cathedral to the Latin clergy, who had been accustomed to celebrate mass there upon St. James's Day, and to venerate the relics with which the cathedral is richly endowed. At Braunsberg, in East-ern Prussia, a Roman Catholic priest and protessor has openly repudiated the doctrine, and declared the Pope a heretic. These, we may believe, are but the beginning of a more gen-ral protest. Those who are interested in his-torical parallels may refer to the year 1707, when the French Academy offered a prize for a poem on "The King's wisdom which renders him superior to events." Louis Quatorze, had, indeed, a brilliant reign, but this particular year was marked by the gathering of several year was marked by the gathering of several significant clouds. The French had to evacuate Germany and recross the Rhine; and, by the capitulation of Milan, they agreed to retire from Italy. Perhaps the King's wisdom and superiority to events was shown in ab staining from action and resigning himself to the adulation of the Academy and the charms of Madame de Maintenon.

CITY NOTICES.

INTERESTING TO THE PUBLIC.-For months we have been busy in getting up our immense Fall stock of clothing. We commenced by cutting fitting and balancing by taking a little off this point and adding a little to that; for a garment that does not bal ance merely hangs. And this balancing system is what has made Rockhill & Wilson's clothing so popular. They now balance like a top, and sit as gracefully on the fourn as a swan on the surface of a smooth lake. In fact they are as much superior to the generality of Feady made clothing in style and make as a surloin steak is to one cut from the bullock's neck. Many people say they can tell germents from Rockhill & Wilson's, when they see them on the street, by the sight they present. We invite all to call and examine our immense stock, at the Great Brown Stone Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnu street. ROCKHILL & WILSON

FATAL COAL OIL CASUALTY. FATAL COAL OIL CASUALTY.

"Information reached the Coroner's office yesterday afternoon that George Bredlin, a child two years of age, was lying dead at the residence of his parents, 494 Sixth street. From what could be learned concerning the matter it would appear that on Thorsday morning the child was at a wagon in the street where some coal oil was being sold and dealt out. While there some of the dangerous fluid exploded, and, setting fire to the child's clothes, burned him most fearfully. Coroner Schirmer was notified to hold an inquest on the body."—N. Y. Herald.

This is not surprising; for, apart from its being found in most of our respectable Drug Stores in this city and country, and its being strongly recommended by the physicians, the mild and agreeable taste of this article, contrasted with the strong, pungent and actial sensation produced on the palate by the common deleterions article—which is now the general couplaint of nearly all the medical faculty of this country—would, of itself, suffice to give it the decided preference.
