THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION achieved a splendid triumph this morning, by the transmission of the great news of Napoleon's surrender.

THE CONSEQUENCES OF CAPITULATION. We take it for granted that the surrender of Napoleon and the great armies of MacMahon and Bazaine will be accepted by the French people as the natural conclusion of the war.

THE CONCLUSION. Paris, to be sure, is surrounded by fortifications of such strength that even the undisciplined force within might, for a time, defend the city from the victorious invader.

AMERICA'S LESSON TO PRUSSIA

Prussia began her war with America in the most unscrupulous manner. She was in a position to enforce her own despotism in whatever shape they may be.

Napoleon was not so fortunate. He was not so powerful as she is now, but he was not so unscrupulous as she is now.

THE ANTI-COOLIE MOVEMENT IN CALIFORNIA. Some of the Southern papers seem to have a very narrow and bigoted view of the anti-coolie movement.

THE PEOPLE'S OWN ESTABLISHMENT. The people are realizing that the time has come when they should have a say in the government.
