FANCY STOCK—This morning, at Herkness's Bazaar, Ninth and Sausom streets, a large crowd assembled, the occasion being the sale of the Alderney cattle and other rancy stock mentioned in the BULLETIN of yesterday. The assemblage was composed of gentlemen farmers, stock-breeders, drovers dairymen and others. At an early hour the parties enumerated commenced pouring into the building for the purpose of viewing the stock, and when the hour appointed for stock, and when the hour appointed for the sale (10 o'clock) came around, the various merits and demerits, perfections and imperfections of the animals had been thoroughly discussed. In order to properly display the cattle, a stand about three feet in height was erected at the N. W. corner of the Bazaar, and at the hour above named a twoyear old cow, of beautiful symmetry, named "Vesper," was placed thereon, and Mr. Herkness, after explaining her points, called for a bid, receiving as start $200. POLICEMAN SHOT AT—A MAN WOUNDED.— This morning about one o'clock the cry of "police" on Oxford street, near Bodine attracted the attention of Policemen Day and Finn. The officers went in the direction from which the cry came, and observed a man named James McLinden running. He was pursued and turned into an alley leading into his house. Policeman Day went after him. McLinden fired two shots at the officer, and when two more shots were fired at him. Hy jumped quickly into the yard, struck McLin-den with a black-jack and knocked him down den with a black-jack and knocked him down. McLinden was then secured, but the pistol had been thrown away. One of the shots fired in the alley took effect in the shoulder of James Collins, who is a friend of McLinden, and was following the officer to see what was the matter. His wound is painful, but not dangerous. The prisoner was taken before Alderman Shoemaker, and was held in $2,000 belt to are were at Court bail to answer at Court.

SERIOUS ASSAULT.—John Schimpf was be-fore Alderman Heins, this morning, upon the charge of assault and battery on Charles Lin-serman and John G. Gransmeck. The parties, it appears, are occupying portions of two unfinished houses on Hackley street, east of Fifth. Yesterday Linserman, who lives in the third story of one of the houses, attempted the third story of one of the houses, attempted to enter, when he was opposed by Schimpf, who locked the door. Linserman took his revenge by stoning the premises. He finally succeeded in effecting an entrance, when he was attacked by Schimpf, who had a club in his hand, and was so badly beaten that he remained insensible throughout the entire high Granyneck interferred to save Linserman, and Gransmeck interfered to save Linserman, an tried to pull him out of the house. He wa also attacked and badly beaten by Schimp Policeman Bauer came up and arrested the assailant. After the hearing, Schimpf wa-committed in default of $3,500 ball for a further bearing.

THE BEST ADVERTISEMENT.—The best way to advertise your goods is to have them so superior, and sell them so cheap, that every customer will go away and say to twenty more: "See this! it suits me better than any I every hard and only costs so much." This is THE BEST ADVERTISEMENT.-The best way had before, and only costs so much." This is Wanamaker & Brown's plan, and, excellent as they have found newspaper advertising to as they have found newspaper advertising to be, they rely far more upon the personal influ-ence of the people. The Fall Suits, from $12 upward, can be highly recommended for their beauty and cheapness. Call at Oak Hall and look at them, whether you buy or not.

Large Sale of Boots and Shoes.—T. L. Ashbridge & Co., Auctioneers, will sell at their store, 505 Market street, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, about 1,500 packages, embracing a large assortment of first-class city and eastern-made goods, to which the atten-tion of buyers is called. Open early in the morning for examination.

NEW YORK BAY EXCURSION .- The excursion around New York Bay and up the Hud-son, on Thursday next, should not be forgot-ten. This will be the last opportunity to take this delightful trip. The music will be furn-ished by the Liberty Silver Cornet Band, Prof. McClurg, leader.

SUMMER-NIGHT'S FESTIVAL .- The summer ight's festival of the Männerchor, Sänger bund, Junger Mannerchor and Harmonie will take place at Wissabickon Park to-mor row evening. The net proceeds are to be given to the fund for the relief of the families of German soldiers killed in the present way.

THE COURTS.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Allison.—The Sheriff made return this morning of the special venire for additional Grand Jurors, and the pasel was completed. Mr. Isaac O'Harra was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury. Judge Allison then instructed the jurors as to their duties.

There were but two prisoners, females, in the dock, but no witnesses present, and the Court took up bail cases.

John Knight was charged with stealing three cars of corn. Mr. Hoffman, a farmer, testified that, after watching his cornfield for three nights, he caught a man in it about day-light, and that he had taken three ears of corn. He recognized the defendant, and saw him run to his home.

The defence proved that it was a misty morning, and that persons could not be recognized at any distance; that when Mr. Hoffman came to the house the defendant was in bed select. Vertical net will be selected. bed asleep. Verdict not guilty.

INTERESTING TO THE POBLIC. For months' INTERRETING TO THE POBLIC.—For months we have been busy in getting up but immense Hell stock of clothing. We commenced by cutting fitting and belencing by taking a little out the boint and adding a little to that; for a gainent: that does not belence merely hangs. And this belancing ayatem is what has made Rockhill & Wilson's clothing so popular. They now belance like a top and sit as gracefully on the form as a swar on the surface of a smooth lake. In fact, they are as much superior to the generality of ready was clothing to a take and male as a specific party in the state of the st made clothing in ext le and male as a surloin, stoak is to one cut from the bullock's neck. Many people say they can tell garments from Bockbill & Wijson's, when they see them on the street, by the sight they present: We invite all to call and examine our immense stock, at the Great Brown Stone Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 (Destandant texts.) MARK THE OPINION OF THE NEW YORK

Mew York Hersid, July 16.

WOOD'S MUSFUM.—The wonderful collection of curiosities at this popular catabilishment has been rendered additionally attractive by the advent of far more surprising ones that any that have yet, been exhibited. Nor are the new arrivals put in glass cuses or hing upon the wells. They are live human beings, healthy, vigorous, and truly amazing in their various performances. We allude to the French Wrostlers brought over from Furene last week by Mr. samuel Colville. They made their first appearance in this city on Monday, and created averitable excitement. The assemblage was struck with admiration, no less by the astonishing feats, as by the ease and gracefulness with which they were all executed.

New York Tribune, July 8.

The wrestlers were captured abroad by Mr. Samuel Colville. They are men of prodigious power, and that cower they so exert as to awaken the most ardent admiration of all compoliseurs of athletic sports. Those who would say with liosalind. Tell us the manner of the wrestling, "should copy Rosaliad's example and go and see it. They will find it a stormy sort of pleasure. Dut a genuine sort. The men are experts and of great struggly, and there is nothing plainful in the spectacle of their exploits. Health and virtue, indeed, are stimulated by contact with rude physical exercise, and these two are the beneficent parent of cheerfalness. We therefore wish success to this novel show.

New York Times, July 10.

The entertainments at Wood's Museum have lately received a novel addition, in a troupe of French wrestlers, brought over by Mr. Samuel Colville. The wrestlers do their work surpassingly well, and to many their reformances will prove of great interest. That they are highly accomplished in their neculiar art admits of no dispute, and the numerous gymnastic enthusiasts, among whom are included so large a faction of young New York, cannot obeter than study the, feats and style of these museular strangers.
