The Columbia, of West Philadelphia, was one of these, it having been drawn over five miles. The companies from Germantown, Manayunk and Mt. Airy also attended. Great as the crowd hitherto had been, it now grew greater and every moment added to its strength. As night approached and the light of the fire began to show brighter and brighter, others were attracted to the spot, and at seven o'clock there could not have been less than 15,000 people present. At this time the scene would, could it have been transferred to canvas, rendered the fortune of the artist a certainty. PHILADELLED THE ALBANY ZOUAVE OADERS.—Philadel-phila is again being wisited by a military or-ganization, the command being known as the Albany Zouave Cadets. In July, 1860, the adets were founded by the them Captain ince Adjutant-General) Frederick Town end, and they soon rose to a point of eminence n military circles' second to none other in the State. Their old uniform, whilst being, neat aud serviceable, has since been discarded. The new uniform (very much like that worn by the Old Guard, of New York) is considered one of the most elegant in the country. It consists of a wilte dress coat, tastefully, trimmed with scarlet and gold, and trowsers of a light blue, trimmed with scarlet. The hat is of the French pattern, with scarlet pompon. A staff (Inde-pendent companies frequently have staffs) has just been organized, and will hereafter form part of the company. The uniform worn by the staff is similar to the above, with the ex-ception that the coat is trimmed with hight blue, and a chapeau of the French staff pattern takes the place of the company cap. The following is a roster of their officers: Captain, William A. Hamilton; first lieutenant, Lucien Barnes; third lieutenant, Edward Douglass. Staff: adjutant, vacant; chaplain, Rev. Edwin B. Russell; inspector, Lieutenant Edward McCannon; commissary, Lieutenant Erederick W. Brown; judge ad-AT HIS OLD QUARTERS.—Mr. Chas. Thomp-son; who has been conneoted with the Spruce and Pine and Philadelphia, and Darby Pas-senger Rallways for several years past, has taken possession of his old stand—the livery stable on Mount Vernon street, above Ninth. His establishment is a first-class one, and he knows well how to run it for the best accom-modation of his patrons. Commented with the modation of his patrons. Connected with the stable there is a mart for the purchase and sale of horses, to which especial attention will be given.

ST. ALBANS PLACE, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, north of Catharine, demands considerable attention from those who are in search of andsome residences, of medium size, at low rents. The novel feature is that the space between the two blocks, heretofore used as a common street, has been laid out in the shape of a garden or park, extending the whole length of the square and enclosed by an iron railing, and handsomely decorated with fountains, statuary, flowers, The front, with the exception of a fourteen fee wide payement, is one entire garden spot. These pro-porties are being rapidly rented by Josoph James, 801 Gray's Ferry road, corner of Catharine, and C. M. S. Leslie, 717 Sagsom street.

night foat for Albany. Shooting AFFRAY.—Shortly after one octock this morning a row occurred at the southeast corner of Sixth and Lombard streets, between a lot of colored men and wo-men, originating on account of one of the men stealing a piece of watermelon from a stand. Policeman Patrick Hughes, of the Third District, who resides near by, was called upon to arrest the thief, and did so, when he was attacked by the crowd, one of whom grappled him by the throat and dragged unim into Malatesta's rummil, where another of the crowd drew a revolver and shot him, the ball entering the left arm and severing an artery. crowd drew a revolver and shot him, the ball-entering the left arm and severing an artery. He then attempted to protect himselt with his own pistol, but was knocked down and dragged some distance. He again attempted to use his weapon, but being weakened by the loss of blood, tainted. Some citizens then re-moved him to the hospital, where his wound was dressed, and then he was taken to his home, Sixth street, below Lombard. His as-solidar escaped, but is known. York, Pa. INCENDIARISM-HOSE CARRIAGE THROWN OVERBOARD.—This morning, about 4 o'clock, an office and tool-house belonging to John Selby, and located at the southeast corner of Twenty-third and Arch streets, was set on fire and was partly destroyed. The loss is estimated at $400.

While proceeding to the fire the Western Engine Company was attacked at Twenty first and Filbert streets. At the time the car riage was in charge of only a few members, and they ran away when it was found that the attacking party largely outnumbered them.
