WILLIAMSON.-This morning, at 7 oclock, John Williamson, Esq., of Carlisle, Pa., in the 82d year of his age. S Philadelphia, Sept. 10, 1870. SIR:

Your letter of the 7th inst., informing me that 1 am not Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Republican State Central Committee, and that none of the gentlemen who sign the action of that Committee, under date of September_6th, are members of the same, has been duly received.

Primit me to express, in behalf of the Committee and myself, surprise, that, simultaneous with my receipt of your letter, I find the same premulgated to the public in the advertising columns of the daily press.

I would submit for your information that at the meeting of the State Committee held at Altoona, August 16th, 1870, Mr. Patterson, of Juniata county, offered the resolution directing that the dispute in the Second Congressional District be referred to the Executive Committee, and that both the parties he afforded an opportunity to be heard before that committee.

Mr. Heistand, of Lancaster, desired to be nformed who the gentlemen were constituting that Committee. Either Mr. Quay or Mr. Banmersly, Secretaries of the State Central Committee, announced as the Committee: Mr. Leeds, Chairman; Messrs. Elliott, Tittermary and Miller, of Philadelphia; Mackay, of Allegheny; Scranton, of Luzerne and Garrettson, of Schuylkill. You accepted, without a single remark; nor was there an expression from any gentle man present taking exceptions to the gentlemen named as constituting the Committee appointed by yourself last year. The gentlemen constituting this Committee assisted Treasurer Bingham, during the last canvass, in obtaining funds, and under your and his in struction, expended moneys, adjusted difficulties, and performed every function pertaining to an executive committee.

The Committee, of which Iam Chairman, acrepted the responsibility placed upon it by the general committee, at Altoona, and in sing ere observance of the responsibility of the resolution, notified Messrs. Creely and O'Neill that they would be afforded an opportunity to be heard in the matter of their dispute before the sub-committee. At the first and second meetings of the sub-committee there was no quorum, but at the third meeting, a quorum being present, an examination was

| By Cable.] What France Will Accept. Weather cloudy. Wind Southwest LONDON, Sept. 9.-It is the impression here in high official circles that France will accept any terms short of the diamemberment of her territory, in refusing which she is supported by Russia. It is believed the republican gov-ernment will consent to pay a large indom-nity, to dismantle the frontier fortresses, and largely to reduce the standing army. The latter, indeed, she will be bound in any event to do, in order to recover the finances of France. More than this, I am assured in the highest quarters, will not for a moment be conceded. If Prussia should insist on the cession of Alsace and of Lorraine, or even of Metz and Strasbourg, the war will as-sume a new and most terrible character. The general feeling in London is that Germany has any terms short of the dismemberment of her Extensive Carpet Manufactory in Ruins This morning about twenty minutes past five o'clock a fire broke out in the extensive carpet manufactory of James Bromley & Brothers, located at the northeast corner of Jasper and York streets, in the Nineas, corner of Ward. The establishment occupied a lot 47 feet front on York street, by 150 feet in depth. The main building was 47 by 103 feet, and was four stories in height, not including the basement. The basement was used as a wool room, for general feeling in London is that Germany has a military right to demaid the expenses of the war, with reasonable guarantees for her future security; but that she has no right to attempt to degrade and humiliate France. It is quite certain that if she attempts to do this she will be met by one of the most formidable Euro pean coalitions ever formed, and that no man can predict the issues of the conflict.

Jules Favre to Lord Lyons.

Jules Favre to Lord Lyons. PARIS, Sept. 9.—I am enabled to inform you by authority that, in an interview yesterday held at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mi Jules Favre assured Lord Lyons the republic did not wish to inherit the wars of the empire; that the provisional government would very chedy combined massa assored as mossible on any that the provisional government would very gladly conclude peace as soon as possible on any terms not absolutely dangerous and dishonor-able to France. M. Favre asked his Lordship if the English Cabinet would interfere and sug-gest terms of peace, to be offered by Prussia, such as he could be assured that France would accept. Lord Lyons replied that, though England would be delighted to help to bring the war to an end he had no authority bring the war to an end, he had no authority to say that she would undertake to suggest terms of peace to either combatant. M. Favre then said it would be impossible for France to make any such suggestion, and the interview was brought to a close.—World. [By Mail]

Mediation of the United States Bequested by France.

The State Department to-day received a despatch from the Provisional Government of France asking for the mediation of the United States in connection with the leading Powers of Europe in the interest of peace, and for securing such terms of settlement as France securing such terms of settlement as France can accept with honor. The despatch explains that it is a copy of a joint note addressed to nentral European Powers. The President ex-pressed great satisfaction at receiving the des-patch, and the subject will be the chief matter for consideration in Cabinet meeting to-mor-mow, at which Secretaries Fish, Cox and Robeson will be present.—Washington Corres-nondence Boston Advertiser, Son 8 oondence Boston Advertiser, Sept. 8.

Loss of the English Iron-Clad Captain---Fiye Hundred Lives Lost.

Five Hundred Lives Lost. LONDON, Sept. 9, 1870.—The English iron-plated steamer Captain has been lost off Finisterre, France. All on board, 500 in num-ber, perished. Among the victims are Capt. Cowper Coles, Lord Northbrook, and son of Mr. Childers, First Lord of the Admiralty. The Admiralty has just received a telegram from Admiral. Sir Andrew Millan, on board Her Majesty's ship the Lord Warden, off Cape Finisterre, in Galicia. The despatch is dated the 7th of September, comes by way of Lis-bon, and is as follows: To the Lords of Admiralty. I very much reds of Admiralty . I very much re-terms possible under the circumstances. If they failed in this, the leader of the German-people would be justified in prosecuting the war to a legitimate close. The German peo-ple have great reason to give thanks to the God of nations, to whom all the honor' and glory of their success belongs; and he thought? the opening of this day of thanksgiving was very properly made in the songs of praise used by the early German Christians. Music. Nun danket alle Gott-Rinkhart, 1649. Now thanks be given to the Lord. Mr. J. R. Sypher, introduced by Dr. Hering, said: We have reached the opening of a new era. We read in history that the German peo-ple were pioneers in the history of civiliza-tion, were celebrated for profound learning, practical discovery, and an earnest Christian spirit in the true worship of God. We learn practical discovery, and an earnest Christian spirit in the true worship of God. We learn from the newspapers of the day that the Ger-mans are a Sabbath-breaking, beer-drinking, a carousing, noisy, lawless populace. To-day bistory repeats its lesson. This scum that has long appeared on the surface is swept away, and the bright metal beneath appears. The historic German again comes to the surface, and the world is reminded that this noisy element that has so loudly claimed to represent the German character in America and the world is reminded that this noisy element that has so loudly claimed to represent the German character in America has set up false pretences. We have had the carousing celebrations of German victories in the beer-saloons; but we here have the sub-stantial, Christian-loving German people, meeting to give praise to God for the great things He has done for their nation. The pioneer Germans who came to Pennsylvania, in 1683, came with ministers, school-teachers, and printing press. They were the first to and printing press. They were the first to print the Bible in America, the first to establish Sunday-schools, the first to issue Sunday-school tickets, the first to establish schools that were absolutely free, and the first to prothat were assolutely iree, and the first to pro-test againstholding human beings in slavery. They have always loved learning free schools, and pure, simple Christian worship. And this is being made manifest in the progress of the German armies, and the daily thanksgivings that go up from the camps of the German gol-diers west of the Reine. For this we have diers west of the Rhine. For this we have ceason to be thankful. Music.

DEATH OF HARRISON T. DESILVER.-Harri-son T. Desilver died at an early hour this morning. He was a well-known citizen of Philadelphia, and his sudden demise will Finite epima, and his studien denise will awaken a profound feeling among a large cir-cle of personal friends, by whom he was greatly esteemed. Some two weeks ago Mr. Desilver was out riding, and on his return to the city his horse took fright from a kite which the city his borse took fright from a kite which a boy was flying in the streets. Mr. Desilver got out of his wagon and endeavored to hold his borse by the head, in which attempt the was thrown upon paving stones and the horse fell on him, dislocating his ankle and crushing some of his bones in a most fright-ful manner. Doctors Levis, Wallace and Freeman have been constant in their efforts to save both life and himb, but their patient sank rapidly, and early this morning he breathed his last. In early life Mr. Desilver was in mercantile business in the West, but at the age of tweaty-two he went to China, and, with his brother, the late Robert P. Desilver, established the house of Desilver & Co., in Hong Kong, By

A watchman was employed for night duty, and he also fired up early in the morning. Recently some of the weavers have commenced work very early, and have thrown open all of the windows upon their arrival on the premises. This morning, at the time named above, the watchman left the drying-room for a few moments. and on his drying-room for a few moments, and on his return found the material there, jute, all on fire. The flames spread very rapidly, and soon broke through the roof of the drying-house. From there the fire soon communicated to the main building through the windows which had been opened but a short time before by the weavers. For some unknown reason there was a delay in some unknown reason there was a delay in giving the proper alarm, and by the time the firemen reached the ground and got into ser-vice there was no possibility of saving the establishment. Capt. Cowper Phipps Coles. Among those who went down with the ill-fated steamer Captain was Capt. Cowper Phipps Coles, of the Royal Navy. He was the son of Rev. John Coles, and was born at Ditchan Park, county of Hants, in 1819. He entered the navy in 1831, and rose rapidly in the service, displaying on various occasions a coolness and daring which suprised his! supe-riors in years and experience. He also showed signal ability as an officer at various statuons, and took an active part on board the Agamemand took an active part on board the Agamem-non in the assault on Sebastopol, in October, 1854. His conduct on that occasion was highly. praised in the despatches of Admiral Sir E praised in the despatches of Admiral Sir E. Lyons. He displayed equal zeal and ability in the subsequent operations at Kertch and in the Azof. A plan devised by him for the construction of shot-proof rafts, guns and mortars was subject to an examination by a board appointed by the Commander-in-Chief in 1855, and their report was so favorable that he was ordered to England, that his knowledge might he of use at the that his knowledge might be of use at the dock-yards of Portsmouth. The idea of pro-tecting guns by shields was originated by him in 1855, and improved upon in 1850. In 1869 be adopted the turret system in the Royal Sovereign and other vessels in the British Navy. His plans have been very extensively adopted in iron-clad vessels, and further improvements in naval engineering might well have been expected of him, if his career had not been cut short by this terrible disaster.

THE UNITY OF THE GERMANS was celebrated in a Family Festival at the residence of the venerable Dr. Constantine Hering, on Twelfth street, to-day. The exercises began at 7 A. M.

The following was the programme : Music by a quartett band of brass instru-ments under the direction of Carl Gaertner. Wie schien leuchtet uns der Morgenstern. Nicolai, 1599-How beautiful the Morning Star.

Dr. Koch, who was then introduced by Dr. Hering, said: If in any family any great event takes place, be it happy or unhappy, joyful or sai, the friends of the house assemble and express their sympathy or love, as the circumstances their sympathy or love, as the circumstances may dictate; that is, they will either betray sorrow, grief and affection, or they will, on a different occasion, express their joy, happi-ness or gratitude.—As, single-families, so-are-great families of nations subject to occur-rences which, happy or unhappy, joyous or sad, exert an influence either advantageous and productive of good, or disturbing and pre-indicial not only upon the inper form and judicial, not only upon the inner form and order of government, but also as the single members of the nation's family.

As you all know, seven weeks ago a family, ambitious, haughty, desirous of giory, and be-heving itself invincible—the French nation without cause, threw the gauntlet jeeringly at the feet of the German family, with the vain presumption of dividing its members, taking possession of its country and plundering it. The infamous declaration of war was accepted. The whole German family, sire and son, hus-band and wife, brother and sister, united like molten metal into one solid mass, one gigantic body. Germany, the land which had so often been visited by sore affliction, its inhibitants disunited, and robbed of its territory, but now a united Germany, without stooping to pick up the soiled gauutlet, grasped with powerful hand the sword, and not only repelled the haughly invader, but drove him back into his ne, where he is now awaiting the course things will pursue. In order to express our sympathy, joy and exultation with true German feeling and chur-acter, at the brilliant and unexpected success of our German brothers, we to-day assemble, at the invitation of our friend Dr. Hering, to celebrate a Family Festival, in which we gladly participate, to express our warmest con-gratulations on the happy victories of the United German people, and sing hymns of Praise to the Faller of all. Thus shall it be : No Suabia-land; no Prussia land; no Pomerania-land; no Bavaria-land; but one FAMILY-LAND-ONE STRONG, UNITED GERMAN FATHERLAND!!

Dr. Garrett said that he was much pleased to meet with Dr. Hering and his friends, this morning, to render thanks to Almighty God for the wonderful things He had done for the cause of right and humanity in Europe; for we have seen, in six weeks, that impostor and miserable schemer, Louis Napoleon, overthrown, and his dynasty ended. He had only to regret that the ropublicans in France failed to see that this war had been brought upon Germany by the Emperor, who was indeed France, and that the Ger-mans had been compelled in self-defence-to invade the French territory. It was now the clear duty of the Republicans who had once in possession of the French Goy-Gerhad come in possession of the French Gov-ernment to sue for peace, and beg the clem-ency of King William to give them the best great industry and attention to business, they each amassed a fortune, and about ten years ago returned to their native city to enjoy their well-earned wealth. Mr. Desilver was at one time a prominent member of the First City Troop, and at the period of his death he held the rank of major in the regiment now commanded by Col. Baxter. He was also Presi-dent of the Union Club. Confining himself to the pursuits of private life, he cultivated the friendship of a large circle of our cirizens, and by his urbanity of manners, goodness of heart and unstinted liberality, both to public and private objects, he won the warm attachment of his large circle of acquaintances and friends.
