In the United States, of Weston's Patent Self-centering and Self-balancing Centrifugal Sugar-draining Machine, —A horrible report comes from Wisconsin as to the manner in which the poor prisoners in the penitentiary are treated. For any little breaking over the rules, instead of bucking and gagging, or the shower-bath, as civilization would dictate, the warden takes the men from their comfortable cells without a moment's preparation, and compels them to board two days at a hotel in the vicinity of the prison. Can such things be in this enlightened age?

—The editor of the Iuka (Miss.) Gazette speaks of the test-oath as "the damnable, villainous enactment which was concocted by the vilest and most debased set of irresponsible cut throats that that God-forsaken Sodom called Washington—a city whose name is never mentioned without bringing a blush of shame to the cheeks of the virtuous and pure throughout the wide, wide, world—ever was cursed with." The writer does not blush when he hears the name of Washington mentioned:
