ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—This morning about 2 o'clock an attempt was made to enter the house of Frank McLaughlin, 3807 Chestnut street. The thieves tried to pry up the window of the Library, and there being a burglar alarm attached to all the doors and windows, it awakened the inmates, who found, from the alarm, it came from the Library window. Mr. McLaughlin sprang the rattle which brought the Police, but the burglars escaped. The house was robbed on two previous occasions, of goods to the amount of over $500. Mr. McLaughlin then had the burglar alarm put up which prevented the success of the third attempt.

THE CASE OF GEO. N. BOEHM.—At noon today Coroner Taylor, at his office, Fifth street, below Chestnut, held an inquest in the case of of George H. Boehm, a workman employed-atBaldwin's Locomotive Works, Broad and Buttonwood streets, who died on Friday last from wounds received by being struck with a weapon on the morning of the day previous.
The evidence showed that deceased had been working with the night gang in the steam working with the night gang in the steam harmering department; between two and three o'clock A. M., Thursday, Boehm went out on the Hamilton street side of the shop; he had not remained there long when a man named Geo. Blakely came along Hamilton street and accosted him with "what is the street and accosted him with "what is the Dutchman doing;" a word quarrel then followed, and Blakely threatened to whip Boehm; the latter challenged him to a fight; the two then engaged in a tussle, but were separated by the foreman of the shop, a Mr. Sweeney; Blakely threatened to cut Mr. Sweeney, but the latter held on to him; Boehm, meantime, secured an iron bar, which Sweeney and Blakely also seized, in order to wrest it from him. Leaving go his hold, Boehm entered the shop and was quickly followed by Blakely. What ensued could not be definitely ascerationed, although a number of witnesses were examined. One of them was of the opinion.

tained, although a number of witnesses were examined. One of them was of the opinion however, that Blakely had seized a pair of "clankers" and dealt Boehm the blow on the bead which caused his death. The last seen of Blakely was his emerging from the shop a few seconds after his entering it. Boehm, it appears, was under the influence of liquor when the quarrel originated. After receiving the wound he said nothing farther than to when the quarter originates, the wound he said nothing farther than to ask that water be poured on his head.

Dr. Shapleigh testified to the nature of the wound, and stated that the injury was the result of a blow from some heavy blunt instru-

The verdict of the jury was: "That deceased, George Boehm, came to his death by violence, a blow inflicted on his head, by an instrument in the hands of George Blakely, on the morning of the 15th inst."

S. P. C. A.—An abortive specimen of humanity's lowest grade, who has for some months past been employed by Mr. T. D. Emory, at the Falls of Schuylkill, to take care of his horses, yesterday lowered himself beneath the nature of the dumb beasts he was paid for looking after, and becoming intoxicated, allowed his brutal nature to extinguish all sense of duty. Fancying that one of Mr. E.'s horses did not obey as promptly as desirable, this drunken fellow administered to it a severe cudgelling, and not content with this, he drew a pocket-knife and inflicted several stabs in the side of the poor beast, from which the blood flowed profusely. Luckily for the sake of all creation, the fellow's conduct was witnessed by a lad employed as teamster by the Ridge Avenue Railway Company. who immediately caused his arrest, and had him taken before Alderman Sorber, by whom he was sent to prison in default of bail. We have not, as yet, ascertained the name of the lad, but shall endeavor to do so, and, in case of success, we will propose him as a member S. P. C. A.—An abortive specimen of huof success, we will propose him as a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. James Crawford, of West Philadelphia, was, yesterday, arrested at the in-stance of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals on the charge of working horses suffering from sore backs and shoulders. He was held in $500 to answer at Court by Ald. r. H. Clarke.

T. H. Clarke.

POLICE LIEUTENANT ARRESTED.—James Flaherty, Lieutenant of the Fifth District Police, was arrested yesterday upon complaint of James Collen, one of the contractors for cleaning the streets. It seems that two men were at work sweeping the streets at Eleventh and Locust streets. They had not done any sprinkling, and the residents thereabouts complained of the dust. Lieutenant Flaherty spoke to the men about it, and a war of words ensued—Flaherty being told to mind his own business. The upshot of the whole his own business. The upshot of the whole affair was that the two sweepers were arrested by order of Flaherty. A warrant was then obtained from Alderman Hull, and Lieutenant Flaherty was arrested and held in $700 bail.

Policeman Beaten.—Special Officer Mc-Grane was attacked by a gang of roughs in the Fifteenth Ward, at an early hour yester-day morning, and was severely beaten. His black-jack was taken from him, and his cloth-ing was almost entirely ruined. Another offi-cer went to the relief of McGrane, and James Weller the alleged ringleader of the assailants. Kelley, the alleged ringleader of the assailants, and a man named Decoursey, were arrested. The prisoners were held in $500 bail by Ald.

LAGER BEER Row. - John Hoffman and several other men went into the beer saloou of Fritz Heft, No. 1934 Market street, last night, and raised a disturbance. Heft seized a bung-driver and drove out the men. Holdman obtained a warrant and had Heft arrested and held for a further hearing at the Central Station. Hoffman was arrested on complaint of Heft, and held in $800 bail by

Aldêrman Kerr. A BAD HUSBAND.—John Wilson, residing at No. 2011 Hampton street, was before Ald. at No. 2011 Hampton street, was before Ald. Kerr to-day upon the charge of ill-treating his wife. It is alleged that he went home drunk, dragged his wife out of bed, turned her out of the house and locked the door. Mrs. Wilson was compelled to seek lodgings in the Police Station. The accused was held in $800 bail for trial

BADLE BURNED. This morning, about half-past eight o'clock, Bridget McLihenny, em-ployed as a servant in the house of H. Cope, No. 1807 Vine street, poured coal oil on a fire, to make it burn more rapidly. The can ex-ploded, and Bridget was burned in such a shocking manner that her recovery is considered very doubtful.

Accidentally Shor.—Joseph Ricote, aged 42 years, was accidentally shot, yesterday, while gunning in the Twenty-third Ward. His face and breast were badly injured. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of a man, named Keating, a stevedore, who has been missing since Saturday last, was found in the Delaware, at Spruce street wharf, this morning

Annested Hobbi McMullin was arrested this morphing by Special Officer McGrane and Policeman Gallen, of the Ninth District, upor the charge of liaving been concerned in the assault upon Policeman Rooney, at Twenty-fourth and Spring Garden strees, on Sunday August 21st. He had a hearing before Alderman Pancoast, and was held in $1,000 bail to answer at Court.

Run Over.—Anne Savage, aged 70 years, was run over by a huckster cart, at Second and Noble streets, this morning, about nine o'clock, and had her face badly injured. She was removed to her home, No. 423 North Second street. The driver of the wagon ran away and left it, and it was taken possession of by the police.

COLORED VOTERS IN COURT.—The Court to-day granted an alternative mandamus, Judges Allison and Ludlow on the bench, compelling the canvassers of the second and third di-visions of the Seventh Ward to place colored persons, who have colored householders as youthers, on their list, which there have been vouchers, on their list, which they have been refusing to do.

STEALING FRUIT.—Last night, Officers Clauson and Morris, of the Delaware Harbor Police, arrested two fellows while engaged in stealing fruit from the steamboat Jersey Blue, lying at Arch street wharf. The prisoners refused to give their names, and were looked up for a hearing at the Central Station.

Assaulting A Woman.—Thomas White was arrested, last night, in Poplar court, for assaulting Jane Jones. He was committed by Ald. Morrow.

An Excitement at Oak Hall.—Once a year Wanamaker & Brown hold a grand levee, and, suspending business for the day, devote themselves to entertaining the public with a display of their new and bright goods. This "opening" promises to be the best of all—being the first since the completion of the new buildings and the opening of the grandest stock of clothing they have ever manufactured.

LARGE SALE OF BOOTS AND SHOES. Ashbridge & Co., Auctioneers, will sell, by catalogue, at their store, 505 Market street, to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, about 1,500 packages, embracing a large assortment of dirst-class goods of city and Eastern manufacture, to which the attention of city and country buyers is called. Open early in the morning for examination.

CITY NOTICES.

POSTPONE not until to-morrow that which should be done to day. The great rush for clothing at Rockhill & Wilson's on Saturday clearly demonstrated that the people have studied this old adage. Their store was crowded with customers, making purchases of their beutiful and cheap clothing. This is the finest, largest and decidedly the most popular store in the city, and de and decidedly no most popular and the control and square; and the stock is immense, filling the beautiful edification the basement to the rate. Their fifteen-dollar, all wool, fall and winter suits that are making such a stirboth in the city and country, and of so many styles and colors, are a novelty in their way. We invite all to call and examine them at MRS.-R. Judd, of New Britain, Conn., upset and broke a lighted lamp, the other night, scattering the contents over her person and on the carpet. The lamp was filled with Pratt's "Astral" oil. She says:

"I wish to add my testimony to the good qualities of the Astral oil. The other night, as I was passing from the sitting-room to the kitchen, with a lighted lamp (the lemp holding a pint of oil), my sleeve caught on the door latch, the lamp fell to the floor and was broken—the contents scattered on the carpet, my dress and shoes, but did not ignite. I picked up the wick, still burning, and extinguished it without causing any damage. I consider the Astral oil perfectly safe.

So do we. The probability is, had Mrs. Judd been using any other oil, she would have been seriously if not fatally burned. We burn the Astral oil, and advise our readers to do the same. All dealers sell it. Ask for it—and don't buy, any other.

The Astral oil is for sale at wholesale and retail by Z. Locke & Co., 1010 Marke street. Sole Agonts for Philadelphia.
