A CASE OF FALSE PRETENCE.—Before Ald. Delaney, this morning, was affaigned M. H. Ott, of Scranton, Pa., on the charge of false pretence. The evidence showed that Ott, some time in June, bought a lot of carriages, amounting in value to $755, from Jas. H. Birch, of Burlington, N. J., for which he gave a check for $500 and a due-bill for. $235. Sub-sequently he returned and bought another lot, for which he gave in payment another check A CASE OF FALSE PRETENCE.-Before Ald. for which he gave in payment another lock for $1,160, in which he included the due-bill. He stated at the time that he had funds in bank to meet it, but as the officers had been very kind to him in allowing him to draw close, he did not wish to draw out entirely, and therefore asked as a favor that Mr. B should hold the check for two or three days. On the fourth day after date Mr. B. deposited the check, which was drawn on the Second National Bank on Scranton, and in a few days it was returned dishonored. The accused was held in $1,500 bail to answer. BOAT BACE ON THE SCHUCK KILL.—The race between the Nassau Boat Club, of New York, and a picked crew of the Schuylkill Navy, will and a picked creaw of the Schuylkill Navy, will come off to-morrow afternoon, on the Schuyl-kill, the start being made from the Falls. The crew of the Nassau Club is as follows: Geo. H. Henry, stroke, weight 156 pounds; Frank W. Bacon, No. 2, 140 pounds; G. Floyd Jones, No. 3, 138 pounds; John C. Babcock, bow and captain, 141 pounds. The Navy crew is; C. B. Adams, stroke, 152 pounds; Edward Law, No. 2, 162 pounds; N. Lenning, No.3, 163† pounds; J. D. McBeath; bow and captain, 136 pounds. The Nassau Club have had a new boat built in their own house, and by their own. builder, for this race. She is 40 feet in length, 18 inches in beam, and 19 inches deep. The Navy boat is also new, and was built by George Roahr, of New York, and is 42 feet long, 20 inches beam, and 19 inches deep. The members of the Nassau Chib arrived in the city this afternoon, and were received by Commodore James M. Ferguson and a Com-muttee of the Schuylkill Navy. During their stay in the city they will be quartered at the Continental Hotel. Their boat will be put np in the house of the Batchelors' Barge Club. in the house of the Batchelors' Barge Club. JUVENILE HOUSE BREAKERS.—John Strick-land and James McGovern, each aged about 16 years, were yesterday arrested for break-ing into a house, No. 3008 Walnut street. The residents of the house are absent, and the owner desired to rent it. Yesterday he sent one of his employés with an applicant to look at the house. The two boys were found in the building. They ran into the pantry, and were there captured. The house had been ransacked, but nothing had been removed. The prisoners were committed by Alderman The prisoners were committed by Alderman Lungren. INCENDIARISM.—An old barn, located upon the premises of Smith Plumley, on the Som-erton turnpike, in the Twenty-third Ward, was set on fire, and was wholly destroyed, a was set on hre, and was wholly destroyed, a few evenings ago. The loss was about five hundred dollars. On the next night a wheat stack, belonging to John Root, and located on the Byberry turnpike, shared the same fate. These fires are supposed to have been the work of parties maliciously disposed. Fire Marshal Blackburn is now engaged in investi-gating the matter gating the matter. ABSON-Louisz Conover was arrested yesanson, by Policeman Day on the charge of arson, in having fired a house on Fifth street, below Jefferson. She got drunk, and gathering together various articles, built a fire in the middle of her room. Fortunately, the flames were discovered by some of the other inmates of the house, and were promptly extinguished. Louisa had a hearing before Alderman Devlin, and was held in $1,000 bail. Hild To BAIL. John Quinn, who testified as the Central Station; a day or two ago, that he gave James Gallagher a counterfeit $20 note to pass, was arrested, yesterday, and taken before Ald. Smith on the charge of massing counterfeit money. He was macced passing counterfeit money. He was placed under 5600 bail. HOUSE ROBBERY.—The dwelling of Mary Harrigan, No. 113 Union street, was entered yesterday afternoon, and was robbed of a bundle containing a bank book, some letters and a dress. The stolen bundle was afterwards found on Barclay street, above Seventh.
