Musical Items---Opening of a New Church in Camden---Madrigal Concerts---Jar-vis's Soirees. The new and splendid Catholic Church of the Immaculate Conception, in Camden, will be opened to-morrow morning. Haydn's Mass in C, No. 2, will be given with a large chorus and orchestra, under direction of Mr. H. G. Thunder Previous to the Mass'the orchestra will perform an appropriate overture by Haydn, "Il Ritorno di Tobia," and Méyerbeer's "Coronation March" during the procession of the clergy, acolytes, &c. The solos will be sung 'by Mesdames Harding, Sims, Miss McHugh, Messrs Gastel, Dr. Thomas and H. C. Cochran. In the evening a grand Vesper service will be song by the choir of St. Augustine's.

-The favored few who were at Gould's new Music Rooms, 923 Chestnut street, last Thurs. day, will not soon forget the occasion. Our eminent planist and vocal teacher, Michael H. Cross, with aid of the Cathedral choir, gave a selection of Madrigals-most fascinating and int music chiefly of the sixte by Ford, Morely, Webbe, Horsley, Barnby, Batton, and others. For promptness and most intelligent shading of execution it has rarely if ever been our fortune to enjoy a hetter nerformance. We understand they have been practicing industriously for over two years, and each performer being a musician of very considerable, and some of eminent, attain ments, the performance could not out be well nigh perfect. Will not Mr. Cross repeat it and give many more an opportunity to share in the pleasure afforded the few who will not soon forget the occasion? -Mr. Chas. H. Jarvis announces his ninth series of musical sprices for the coming winter. They will be given in rooms No. 1128 Chestnut street, beginning Nov. 19th, and continuing on the evenings of-Dec. 10th, June 21st, Feb. 18th, March 18th, and April 22d. Mr. Jarvis will be assisted by Mr. Wenzel Kopta, violin, and Mr. Rudolph Hennig, violoncello. The programmes which have been prepared are of a most attractive character. The following will be produced for the first time in public, in this city.

Since the 24th the bombardment has been terrific and almost incessant, and the breach in the walls became large enough to warrant an assault. It becamelevident to everybody that storming was inevitable in a few hours, unless stayed by a capitulation. On Tuesday, the 27th, near 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the joyful sight of a white flag was be-held flying from the Cathedral. This was speedily followed by the same welcome token of surrender from the citadel. A young lieutenant of the Thirty-fourth Regiment was the first to discover the flag, and the firing inrights to govern themseves, and by the exercise of wisdom, justice, and moderation, found their Republic on a durable basis. found their Republic on a durable basis. CITY BULLETIN: New UNIVERSITY OF CENNSTLVANIA.— The Trustees of the University of Pennsyl-vania have appointed Mr. T. W. Richards architect for their new building, to be erected on the lot recently purchased from the city; located on Locust street, between Thirty-fourth and Thirty-sixth streets. The style of architecture is a happy render-ing, of the Modern Collegiate Gothic; the material to be used is serpentine, with dress-ings of Ohio stone. The building, when com-pleted, although not elaborately decorated, will be an elegant and imposing structure, good in outline and proportion, and suffi-ciently varied in form for fine architectural effect. Over the western entrance is to be a tower, while the eastern entrance is sur-mounted with a similar tower, finished with a revolving dome, for use as an astronomical observatory. There is also a graceful central tower for clock and bell. The building will have a basement fourteen feet high in the clear, in which will be suitable and complete arrangements for the laborato-ries necessary in the chemical and physical departments of the institution. The first or principal story, fifteen feet high in the clear, has a centre entrance, with a handsome porch, the main arch or which will be supported on polished Scotch granite columns, with carved capitals. In addition to the principal en-trances there are separate entrances for the use of the students to the assembly room. The entrance hall is to be fourteen feet wide; on one side of this will be the reception room or business office, on the other the office of The entrance hall is to be fourteen feet wide; on one side of this will be the reception room or busiliess office, on the other the office of the secretaries. Admiral Porter.

To the Editor of the Ecening Bulletin .- The Washington despatch in the Fourth edition of the EVENING BULLETIN, September 30, con-tains the following: "Admiral Porter is likely to have strong opposition to his conti-mation in the Senate next winter, mainly through the staff officers, who think he ex-erted unusual energy last spring to defeat the bill giving them the same rank as line officers." That the contirmation of Admiral Porter's promotion by the Senate may be discussed, or even fail is possible, but it will be on the question whether the organization of a navy which employes no more than 8,500 men and about 40 vessels needs the office of Admiral rather than on the ground that he opposed a particu-lar measure. The grades of Admiral and of Vice-Admiral were created as merited compliments to Farragut, and when he was promo-ted from Vice-Admiral to Admiral, Porter was chosen from among the Rear-Admirals to be the Vice-Admiral. If his official merits shall be found, on examination, to be equal to Farragut's, there can be little doubt that promotion will be confirmed, notwithstanding that the law provides that corresponding grades of General and Lieutenant-General in the army shall not be filled when vacated by the present incumbents of those offices. The ascription of opposition to the con-firmation of Admiral Porter's promotion to a firmation of Admiral Porter's promotion to a vindictive spirit pervading the minds of all the staff. officers, is simply unjust to these gentlemen. As a body they are not_likely to unite on such personal ground to endeavor to withhold any just reward from a gallant officer, no matter how much they may depre-cate his opposition to their measure. They know that Admiral Porter's opinions are for contingent upon the office he fills, and that his opposition in assigning proper degrees of rank to staff officers cannot be more influen-tial as Admiral than it has heen as Vice. Ad tial as Admiral than it has been as Vice-Ad-miral. Admiral Porter has friends in the staff corps, and many gentlemen of the line do not concur in his views of naval policy. Nor is it complimentary to the Senate of the United States to suppose that it will, be influenced in a decision of this kind by the solicitations of persons in controversy with Admiral Porter on a technical question. Syumculque-in plain English, give the devil 'his due. Rest assured the staff will in the end succeed in its just rewards in spite of the unfair opposition

A hasty examination of a portion of the city shows it has not suffered so much as was The exsupposed from the homhardment terior of the cathedral appears to be much in-jured, but not sufficiently so as to prevent its restoration in its original shape. Some fine houses in the Place de la Cathedral are burned. houses in the Fiaceuc is Cathedrai are ourned. Here and there the ruins of buildings show the dangers to which the city has been ex-posed. In the vicinity of the cathedral on the east side of the city, the destruction was the greatest. A singular appearance was pre-sented, by the invabitants busily engaged in removing strew how rues, mainteness, and removing straw, bogs, rags, mattresses, and every conceivable means of stopping the un-welcome visitors from the windows. These defences, scatered in the streets, gave the ap pearance of a general removal of the lnhabitants.

The ruins of the theatre present a dismal appearance. Among the buildings destroyed was the fine public library. It is reported was the fine public horary. It is to be to be that the books were previously removed, or at least those of the greatest value means were husbanded with the greatest care. One principal cause of anxiety was contine-ment and want of good water. Several cases of mortality are reported as the effect of the bombardment, but 1 am in-clined to believe that the accounts are ex-aggerated. One family, consisting of a father, two daughters, two young sons, and an infant, had taken refuge in the cellar of their house, when their residence was struck by a shell and all were destroyed. [By Mail.] Gen. Sheridan on the War.

It does not appear that there had been much actual suffering for want of food, though the means were husbanded with the greatest care.

Gen. Sheridan, in a letter to our Berlin cor-"respondent, dated Rheins. Sept: 8, says:-"You, of course, long before this, are familiar with the fate of Napoleon and MacMahon's army. "They put their foot into it," as we say in America," and I see nothing now left to France but to give up the contest and make the best terms possible. The French, have been outgeneraled, and, in addition, the German troops go into gvery battle to win. It seems to make no difference to them where they find the French; they go to work to whip them, and have done so in every instance. I feel, of course, a great delicacy in saying anything about army move-ments, but certainly 'on to Paris' now is a much more certain thing than 'on to Rich mond 'was with us.

Letter from Marshal MacMahon. Marshal MacMahon, who has been residing at Pouru-aux Bois, near Bouillon, at the cha-teau of the Mayor, has sent to the Organe ot Namur the following interesting note: "Mar-shal MacMahon was wounded on Sept. 1st, at 6 in the morning, at the very commence-ment of the last battle, in which he held no command. It was by order of the Minister of War, Compte de Palkao, and of the Committee of Defence, that he executed the march which proved so fatal to the arms of France. This is what infallibly happens when people take upon them to direct the movements of distant armies from the closet. In these cir cunstances one can draw up a general plan but one cannot descend to details; and this is what General Cousin de Montauban forgot. Marshal MacMahon's --inten-tion was to fall back on Paris atter having reorganized the army so unfor tunately undone at Sedan. He was not per-mitted to accomplish his wise project. As soon as the state of his health will permit, of any individual officer of any grade. R. Marshal MacMahon will not fail to publish

The orders for arms on French account now in course of execution in England, are re-ported to consist of 400 cases of ritles from the Small Arms Company, Birmingham; six cases from Williamson Brothers; 5,000 Snyders; 50,000 long Snyders; 20,000 long and short Snyders; 10,000 assorted Chassepots, Martini-Henry's and needle-guns; 1,000 army Remington revolvers-in all about 100,000 now being made in Birmingham, Sheftield and London, and 30,000,000 cartridges. One London house has a contract for 1,500,000 cartridges a week. This does not look like peace. I have no doubt that every gun-factory in Belgium is equally acpeace. I have no doubt that every gu factory in Belgium is equally a tive. Then France has large manufactori of her own. France is waking i to the real character of this contest. There is no improvement in trade to note. The market is still in that quiet state that it has been for more than a month. An improve-has been looked for before this, but it seems has been looked for before this, but it seems as far distant as ever. The Scranton sale for this month surprises no one as a decline was expected. People seem disinclined to lay in any stock for winter, yet; in this, there is a 'mistake. They will pay higher prices next month, though 'small coat will not bring as much money as it did during October last year. The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company have discontinued (for the time their sales at Roundout, on account of lack of water in the canal. The long level is said to be dryer than at any previous period for said to be dryer than at any previous period for many years, although at this season there is many years, although at this season there is always trouble there. The stoppage of sales will not be of so long a duration as to have a serious effect on the market.

In all the regions the men are generally working. At the Honey Brook Coal Compa-iny's works, in Ardenreid, the men are still out. We have not learned what the misunderstanding is, but it is of a local nature. Theru-mors in regard to a strike in Schuylkill have a -dicd_out, but_it_is_still=understood that very-little money is being made in coal from that therutegion.

moval of 9 dangerous buildings and chimneys. and two wooden buildings.

DEATH IN A STATION HOUSE.—A man sup-posed to be drunk was found in the rear of No. 253 North Second street, on Thursday night, and was taken to the Fourth District Station House. Yesterday morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, he was found dead in a cell. On the person of the deceased was found a letter directed "Jacob C. Esterly, No. 253 North Second street." Also a certificate showing that Jacob C. Esterly had been extra assessed at No. 13 Callowhill street. The face of the deceased was bloody and bruised. The Coroner is investigating the case.

I. O. W. B .- Wm. McNally is the title assumed by a degraded specimen of the genus home, who, too cowardly to attack one of his own sex, makes use of puglistic attainments by beating his wife. McN. resides No. 6 Chamber's Court, a small thoroughfare in the neighborhood of Twentieth and Callowhill streets. Yesterday he returned home drunk and at once made an onslaught upon Mrs. McN. Her screams attracted a Police officer, who arrested William and took him before Alderman Pancoast. He was sent to prison. CAPTURE OF A FUGITIVE-Vesterday Ser-geant Gilchrist brought to this city a colored geant Glichist prought to this city a colored man, named Juo. Ayres, against whom there is a bill pending in the Court of Quarter Ses-sions, charging him with being an accessory in the nurdor of Win. Carney. Ayres is the one-who said to Pence, recently convicted, "If you don't kill him (Carney) I'll kill you?" After the murder he fled the city and went Luddsville, N. J., where he was captured.

PRESENTATION .- Last evening the newlyelected Assistant Engineer of the Second Fire Division, William D. Culp, was presented with a gum coat, belt, fire hat and red shirt by his triends of the United States Hose Company. The presentation took place in the hall of the Hand-in-Hand Engine house, Ninth street, above Poplar.

THE STORM.-Chief Engineer Graeff re-ported this morning that the rain had made but little addition to the volume of water in the Schuylkill, and that the people of German-town were in as bad a condition for water as they had been.
