league.
The resolutions were unanimously adopted. The Chamber then adjourned. In the absence of President Louis Wagner, Henry Huhn was called to the chair. Mr. Wagner entering soon after, Mr. H. vacated the seat in his favor."

Mr. Martin offered a resolution dispensing with the regular session of Councils, both branches having resolved to attend the funeral of Daniel W. Stockhaug, late member from the Eighteenth Ward. Mr. Allen, of the Eighteenth Ward, paid a

Mr. Allen, of the Eighteenth Ward, paid a slight tribute to the memory of the deceased, and offered the following:

Whereas, The Select and Common Councils of the city of Philadelphia have heard with deep regret of the decease of Daniel W. Stockham, a member of Common Council from the Eighteenth Ward; therefore Resofted. That in the decease of Mr. Stockham the city of Philadelphia has lost an able and experienced legislator, whose constant care was to prompte the growth and prosperity of the city, and to carefully guard every material interest of her clizens.

Resofted. That the heartfelt sympathy of Councils is hereby tendered to his bereaved family, in this hour of their deep alliction; to the people of the Ward he represented—in the great loss they have sustained; and to his associates, in the loss of a kind friend and prudent counsellor.

Counsellor.

Recovered. That Councils attend his funeral in a body, and that a copy of the foregoing resolutions be engrosed by the clerk and transmitted to his family, and that the Chamber be draped in mourning for this space of sixty days of sixty days.

Mr. Huhn, in a glowing tribute, seconded the above, and on motion they were unanimously adonted. A message was received from His Honor the Mayor vetoing the resolution changing the Mayor vetoing the resolution changing the place of voting in the twentieth division of the Twentieth Ward from the house of Catharine Dollinger, Thirty-second and Thompson streets, to that of George C.—Gutman, West College avenue, assigning as a reason, that no legal cause was offered why it should not be hold at the place first panel. should not be held at the place first named On the yeas and nays being called, the resolu-tion was passed over the veto by a vote of 24

UNITED STATES; COMMISSIONER'S CASE—Before United States Commissioner Biddle, to-day at noon, John Dorian was charged with having, on the 28th of December, 1869, procured a distillers bond to be falsely or fraudulently executed, or did connive at the execution thereof. Assistant Assessor Kinney, of the First District, testified that the accused appeared before him in company with Thomas Barry and Jacob F. Bishop, the two latter as witnesses. The former stated that he owned the property No. 1031 Melon street, and the latter swore to the ownership by himself of property at No. 1421 North Sixth street, together with some property if Bucks county.

The sureties have since been discovered to have great the real M. Borra property and be non est, as the real Mr. Barry appeared and testified that he never executed a bond in his life, and pronounced the signature on the instrument a forgery, and that he did not know and never saw Dorian.

Deputy United States Marshal Bernard testified that no such person as Jacob F. Bishop lives at No. 1421 North Sixth street. The witness, after diligent search for Mr. Bishop, had been unable to find any such person.

The defendant was held in $5,000 bail to an-

This road, with its connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad at Lewistown, brings the Anthracite Coal Fields 67 MILES nearer the Western and Southwestern markets. With this advantage it will control that trade. The Lumber Trade, and the immense and valuable deposit of ores in this section, together with the thickly peopled distric through which it runs, will secure it a very large and profitable trade. WM. PAINTER & CO. BANKERS,
