HUMOROUS ITEMS.

How to make a clean sweep—Wash him.

Is getting "tight" the result of
"loose habits."

A terrible bore—The inside of a fifteen inch gun.

Why is dancing like new milk?
Because it strengthens the calves.

To what color does a flogging change a boy? It makes him Fell Oh!

Some learned exchange wants to know if it is possible for a "nigger" to have the white swelling.

Come out here and I'll lick the whole of you," said an urchin to some sticks of candy in a confectioner's window.

"Want to get married." "Marry and be darned," said the squire, and shut the window. It was a short ceremony, but they went to living together as man and wife.

Somebody describes the absurd appearance of a man dancing the polka, in in this wise: "He looks as though he had a hole in his pocket and was trying to shake a shilling down the leg of his trousers."

In an old burying-ground at Kirk-Cross, in Shetland, the curious in epi-taphs may read that the death of Daniel Robertson, to all appearance a sincere Christian, was caused by the stupidity of Lawrence Tullock, who sold him nitre instead of salts.

"Mother," said a little four year old Carrie, when she came home, "I have heard such a smart minister. He stamped and pounded, and made such a noise; and then he got so mad he shook his fists at the folks, and there wasn't any body dared to go up and fight him."

An old lady receiving a letter she supposed was from one of her absent sons, requested a neighbor to read it.— He accordingly began to read, "Dear mother," then pausing, as the writing was rather illegible. "It's from my Johnny," exclaimed the old lady. "He always stutted."

A Vicksburg gentleman was found in a neighbor's chicken-coop, with the head of a pullet sticking out of a hole in his tall hat. On being asked how the feathered songster got there, he said:
"The blasted thing must have crawled up my trousers leg." He was reprimanded with a boot.

A roaming youth, who declared that he had made a vast deal of money in one part of the world and another, on being asked what he had done with it said he had invested it in houses and lots. On further inquiry it turned out that he had laid it out in eating houses and lots of rum.

A Prisoner in England, when called upon by the Alderman for his defence, said "I've ordered a lawyer for tomorrow, and I hope your worship will be so good as to put it off till he comes."
"Why, what can your lawyer say about it?" "That's what I want to know, your worship," said the prisoner.

During the war of 1812, an Irishman, taken from on board an American vessel, was impressed in the British service. Notwithstanding his rich brogue, he insisted that he was an American, though born in Cork. "How can that be?"
was the inquiry. Pat readily rejoined, "Can't a man be born in a stable without being a horse?"

A young gentleman, who does not live a thousand miles from —, was in the act of popping the question to a young lady the other evening, when just at the "witching time" her father came into the room and inquired what they were about?

"O!" promptly replied the fair one
