LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should renew their subscription, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

Mr. William Smiley, of Shermansdale, had his collar-bone broken last week, by being thrown from a colt he was riding.

Full Files of this Paper can be found in New York, at the office of Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row.

Belligerent.—A young man named Henry Meek, was arrested and committed to jail in this borough on Saturday, charged with committing an assault on his uncle, Isaac Meek, of Liverpool.

Walks and Homes of Jesus—A new book by Rev. Daniel March, D. D., author of "Night Scenes in the Bible," is an interesting work, and should be in every christian family. Miss Emma Toland is agent for this work, and will shortly visit Newport and Duncannon, soliciting subscribers.

The young man who was so anxious to find relations as to try to palm himself off on Mr. John Henderson, of Carroll township as his son Nathan, has succeeded in finding a relative. His Uncle Sam has claimed him, asserting that he has a right to his service for several years, and has consequently taken him to Carlisle Barracks.

The Schoeppe case has again been brought before the Supreme Court, by his counsel, making application for a review of the case under the recent law. Judge Reed replied that he did not know how the case could now be before the court, from the fact that it had already been decided before the passage of the law. It is probable that a new writ of error will be issued.

An Insurance Agent at Cleveland, Ohio, writes, "A lumber horse ran away with a bob-tail wagon, and tipped in the street over a small woman and six elderly children. The horse began to cry and the wagon bled freely at the nose, but otherwise the street is doing well. No insurance.

If your property is not insured go at once to Lewis Potter, and get insured in the Aetna Insurance Company, of Hartford.

Hoop Skirts.—Godey's Lady's Book, for March, has the following:—"From the numerous sources of reliable information, including the latest advice from the courts of France and London, and the leading modistes in general, the subject of crinoline has had a thorough overhauling, and the unanimous decision is in favor of wearing the hoop skirts at all evening and full-dress toilettes, in not over two yards circumference at the bottom; while for general use and, all outdoor toilettes, the sizes vary from two to two and a quarter yards.

The weather statistics for the month of February, as furnished by B. McIntire, Esq., of this borough are as follows:

The average degree at 8 o'clock, A. M., 25 degrees, 40 minutes. The average of lowest, 19 degrees, 15 minutes. The average highest, 30 degrees, 52 minutes. The coldest day, Tuesday 22d, thermometer 4 degrees. The warmest day, Sabbath 13th, thermometer 48 degrees. Snow, 31 inches. Rain, 3 inches, five-tenths. There has fallen on 5 feet, 3 inches of snow, since Nov. 1st, and during the same time, 17 inches and eight-tenths of rain.

Attempted Escape of a Murderer.—Quite an excitement was caused in Huntington, last Tuesday morning by the attempt of Bohner, one of the Pieghtal murderers, to escape from jail, by knocking down the keeper with his hand cuffs, when he entered the cell. After striking him so as to render him partially insensible, Bohner endeavored, to reach the keys, but the keeper recovered, and grappling with him, called for help, and another prisoner came to his assistance and inflicted several severe wounds upon Bohner with a poker, before he was secured. To-morrow is the day set for the execution of the murderers.

The Parham Sewing Machine is just what you want. Call and see it in operation at the store of James L. Diven, Landisburg—or at the store of F. Mortimer, & Co., New Bloomfield.

Mail Change.—Another change has been made in the mail facilities from this section of the county, and again a person wishing to write to Harrisburg or even to Duncannon must wait two days for the letter to reach its destination, the stage not arriving at Newport in time to connect with the mail train East. For a week or two past, the mail has been leaving too early for those residing west of this office, and consequently they petitioned for this change by which they gain nothing, unless it be the satisfaction of knowing that their letters are lying at Newport, and that we enjoy no better accommodations than they. The whole matter might be arranged so as to please all, if the noon train would carry the mail. As it is, the last change benefits no one except the mail carrier, while it is a disadvantage to those really anxious to have a letter go through without delay. Some arrangement should at once be made by the post office department to remove all cause of complaint, as the present arrangement is one that gives general dissatisfaction.

Public Sales.—We call attention to the following sales of personal property, bills for which have been printed at this office:

On the 8th inst., Wm. Glen, at his residence, near Shermansdale will sell horses, cows, wagons and various farming implements.

On the 16th inst., Wm. Garlin will sell at his residence in Centre twp., 1 1/2 miles west of Bloomfield, four head of work horses, cows, young cattle, wagons, plows, &c.

On the 22nd inst., at his residence three miles east of Bloomfield, D. Myers, sr., will sell three cows, eight sheep, wagon, harness, cooper's tools, and various other implements.

Newport Items.—The ice-houses in this place have all been filled with good, solid ice, although it was feared that the supply would be short, but thanks to the last cold snap which has caused such a bountiful supply. Over 300,000 pounds were shipped to Harrisburg during the last few days, and found ready sale at pretty high figures. Should the cold weather continue a few days longer, the above figures will be swelled to at least 1,000,000 pounds.

The revival in the Methodist and Lutheran Churches still continue, services every evening for the past month, at which many persons have been converted. Much good has been done, and much more can yet be expected, as the interest appears to increase each evening, and the churches, crowded every night.

Trouble at the Penn'a Hotel.—On Monday afternoon last, a man by the name of George Kiner, of Beale township, was stopping at the Penn'a Hotel in Patterson, and whilst at the table, commenced indulging in the presence of ladies, in rough and obscene language, when Mr. Coffman, the proprietor, ordered him to leave the house. Kiner retired to the bar-room, but positively refused to go further. Mr. Coffman and he then grappled, and in the first round both went to the floor, with Kiner under, who then cried "enough," when he was allowed to get up and leave the house. After Kiner went outside, he then picked up a broken bottle, and with great violence, threw it in the door, striking Mr. Coffman on the right arm, and inflicting a painful and dangerous wound. Drs. Crawford and Rundo were called, who promptly dressed the lacerated arm.—Junta Sentinel.

The following bill has been passed by the Legislature: That whenever any husband from drunkenness profligacy or other cause whatsoever, shall for two successive years desert his wife or neglect or refuse to live with her and provide for her, she shall as to every species and description of property, whether real, personal or mixed, owned by or belonging to her, have all the rights and privileges of a femme sole, to purchase or sell and convey the same, as if she were sole and unmarried.

SECTION 2. That it shall be lawful for any married woman as aforesaid, to sue and be sued in her own name upon all such contracts as aforesaid, heretofore made or to be made, and to sue in her own name her husband, to recover the possession of her real estate, or the possession of her personal estate, or the value thereof, as if she were sole and unmarried.

Hawk, Hawk, Spit, Spit, Blow, Blow, and disgust everybody with the offensive odor from your Catarrh, just because some old foggy doctor who has not discovered and will not believe that the world moves tells you that it cannot be cured. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy will pay $500 Reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists, or send sixty cents to R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., for it.

For The Bloomfield Times.

Mr. Editor—I don't believe in building fine brick Poor Houses to be kept up at the public expense, and have come to the conclusion that the best way to help the poor is to teach them to help themselves, and when they will not do so let them go and put up with the consequences. This is my plan, but if any of your readers think they know a better plan, I wish they would give it to be published in The Times, so that I may know whether I am right, for I do not consider myself too wise to learn. But I am certain of one thing, and that is, if instead of a County Poor House, each township had to care for their own poor, the tax payers would be gainers. J. R.
