HUMOROUS ITEMS.

When a young lady offers to hem a cambric handkerchief for a rich bachelor or she means to sew in order that she may reap.

Why do teetotalers run such a slight risk of drowning. Because they are so accustomed to keep their noses above water.

A drunken man, who had slipped down, thought it singular that water always freezes with the slippery side up.

A Dutchman's toast: "Here ish to ter heroes who fit, pleed, and tito mit de pattler of Punker Hill, of whom I am onc."

This is what I call capital punishment, as the boy said when his mother shut him into the closet among the preserves.

Oliver Wendell Holmes says that widows who cry easy are first to marry again. There is nothing like wet weather for transplanting.

"George, do you know Mr. Jones has found a beautiful baby on his door step, and is going to adopt him?" Yes, papa; he will be Mr. Jones' step-son won't he?"

"Parents," said a solemn preacher, "you have children; if you have not, your daughters may have." And then proceeded with his homily.

"Mother," said a little five year old, "sister Mary swarded." "Why what did she say?" "I heard her say she wouldn't wear those darned stockings to church."

An old lady in Germantown is so full of sympathy that every time her ducks take a bath in the gutter she dries their feet by the fire to keep them from catching cold.

An expeditions mode of getting up a row, is to carry a long ladder on your shoulder in a crowded thoroughfare, and every few minute turn round to see if any one is making faces at you.

A Boston fop who could not waltz offered a young lady one hundred dollars if she would let him hug her as much as the young man did who just waltzed with her. It was a good offer, and showed that money was no object to him; but they put him out of the house so hard that his eye was quite black.

Gen. Donn Piatt says that at a dinner party the other night, Senator Nye put his new silk tile carelessly upon the sofa. A few minutes after the venerable philosopher Greeley sat down and crushed the hat fearfully. "Hang it," roared Nye, "I could have told you it wouldn't fit before you tried it on."

A New London Sabbath-school teacher said to a little boy, recently: "Suppose some wicked boy, should stop you on your way to church and ask you to go to some bad place with him, what would you say?" "What would I say?" repeated the little wag: "I should say, 'Shoo fly, don't bother me,' I'm bound for Sunday school."

A young gentleman who feels a willingness to sacrifice himself to the happiness of somebody else's family, thus unobscures his alacrity: Wanted a situation as son-in-law in a respectable family. Blood and breeding no object, being already supplied; capital essential. No objection to go a short distance into the country"

A Dutch woman kept a toll gate. One foggy day a traveler asked "Madam how far it is to B——?" "Shoot a leetle ways," was the reply. "Yes; but but how far?" again asked the traveler "Shoot a leetle ways;" more emphatically. "Madam, is it one, two, three, four or five miles?" The good woman ingeniously replied, "I dinks it is!"

The following dialogue is said to have taken place in the course of a divinity examination at Cambridge University, England:

Question—What animal in Scripture is recorded to have spoken?
 A.—The whale.
 Q.—To whom did the whale speak?
 A.—To Moses in the bullrushes.
 Q.—What did he say?
 A.—Thou art the man.
 Q.—What was the effect on the whale?
 A.—He rushed violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished.
