LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should mail or otherwise send the subscription price, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

The member of congress from this district, Hon. R. J. Haldeman, was married last Thursday evening to the daughter of Senator Cameron. The ceremony took place in Harrisburg.

New Telegraph Office.—The general agent of the Western Union Telegraph Co., visited Newport last week, and made arrangements to open a new office in that place. It will be located near the square.

A Trotting Match has been arranged to come off on the fair ground, at Newport, on the 27th inst. The competing prizes are one purse of $50 and one of $75, which are open to all.

At a Republican meeting held in Somerset on the 14th inst., an effort to pass a resolution advising the abolition of the "Crawford County system," signally failed.

Why should not that system be tried in this county?

Disgusting.—The Tyrone Herald says:—An Irish razor sharpener in Tyrone, last week, offered to eat a live toad if the bystanders would give him a dollar. The money was raised and he devoured the reptile without waiting to kill or clean it.

We hardly know which party to consider the most beastly—the toad eater or the bystanders, but are inclined to give the latter the preference.

Killed by Lightning.—On Friday afternoon last Jacob Bice, a well-to-do farmer of Wayne twp., was killed by lightning, in his own house, whilst engaged in painting stair rods. The brush with which he was painting was set on fire. His daughter who was in the room at the time, escaped unhurt, excepting her fingers were numbed for a while. Mr. Bice's age was 61 years 7 months and 6 days.—Lewisden Democrat of the 12th inst.

Boy Drowned.—Harry K. Mayberry and Charles Messimer, (the latter a son of Israel Messimer, formerly a resident of this borough,) were drowned in the canal, at Harrisburg, last week. The lads had left home to go to school, but played truant to go fishing. They not returning home at the expected time, search was made for them—without success. The next day information having been received that they were seen at the canal basin near the depot, the water was drawn off, resulting in the discovery of their bodies.

A Queer Decision.—They have a curious manner of dispensing justice (?) in Trenton judging by the following: Recently a young man in that city eloped with the wife of a citizen named Brady, who soon afterwards discovered where the two were secreted and made an assault upon the seducer. All the parties were taken before Justice Cubberly who made the extraordinary decision that the man and wife must divide their goods and separate. The young man was discharged and the husband bound over to keep the peace.

Young man, it is easy to be nobody. Go to the bar room to spend your leisure. You need not drink much now—just a little beer, or some other drink. In the meantime play chequers, dominoes, or something else. If you read, let it be the "dime novels" of the day; then go on keeping your stomach full, and head empty, and in a few years you will be nobody, unless you should turn out to be a drunkard or a professional gambler, either of which is worse than to be nobody.

A Grand Building.—The most imposing structure on Market street, if not in the whole city of Philadelphia, is Oak Hall, since its enlargement. Taking in all its six stories it covers 71,676 square feet.

The Parham Sewing Machine is just what you want. Call and see it in operation at the store of James L. Diven, Landisburg—or at the store of F. Mortimer, & Co., New Bloomfield.

Outrage and Lynch Law.—Last Friday a colored fellow, generally known as black Jim, living in Newport, was charged with attempting to commit a gross outrage on the person of a little girl about 12 years of age, residing in that borough; being prevented from accomplishing his purpose only by an older sister hearing her cries for assistance and coming to her rescue. A party was then got together, and a court presided over by Judge Lynch was held, when it was decided to give the fellow thirty or forty lashes on the bare back. This sentence was carried into execution, the stripes being well laid on by the father of the girl, after which the fellow was warned to leave town under penalty of being shot.

Another correspondent's version of the story is, that such a charge was made by the girl, but not until 24 hours after the time when it is alleged the deed was attempted. The darkey denied it, and was then whipped by a party until he confessed that the charge was true.

We do not know which of the above versions is the most correct, but this manner of dispensing justice, should not be tolerated. The matter ought to receive an investigation by the proper authorities, and if guilty of such an attempt, the rascal should be legally punished to the extent of the law.

Newport Items.—Mr. Charles Sweezy, of this place, was robbed of $2,500, near Northumberland, under very strange circumstances. His boat had been running on Friday night and all day on Saturday. In the evening the boat was tied up, and Mr. Sweezy being tired, retired early, and to secure his money better, slept with his clothes on. In the morning when he awoke his pocket-book was missing, and upon examination he discovered that the cover of his bed had been cut immediately above the pocket which contained the money; the pocket being also cut, and the money extracted. None of the crew were awakened by the nocturnal visit, showing that the thief was not treading on unknown ground.

On Saturday evening, the 7th inst., the large chandelier in the Reformed Church fell while the sexton was in the act of lighting it. Quite a number of the lamps were broken; the oil being spilled over the floor. Had the accident occurred thirty or forty minutes later, when the audience were assembled, the consequences would have been too serious to contemplate—especially when we consider that there are only two narrow doors as a means of exit, and those opening inward. This is certainly a case of criminal carelessness, or culpable negligence of too gross a character to be passed over in silence, and what makes the case still worse, is that the chandelier has only been in position a few months, and in a new church at that.

The first two of a series of Saturday evening concerts, by the 'Germania Band' came off in the public square, as per announcement. The programme was varied and interesting throughout. The selections were well made and equally well performed. The square was crowded during the evening and until the last note ceased to reverberate between the hills and bluffs of the blue Juniata, the audience remained quiet and appreciative, proving that the enterprise will be a success. The Saturday evenings will hereafter be anxiously waited for, especially by our young folks, and the "Germania Band" will be remembered with pride, long after other organizations will have been numbered with the "things of the past."
