LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should mail or otherwise send the subscription price, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

Acknowledgement is made of receipts for subscription since our last issue from each of the following persons.

Samuel Miller, Isaiah Clouser, Benjamin Rice, Jr., Mrs. Hannah Cooke, B. H. Inhoff, of this county.

Amos Fleisher, Wyoming, Ill.; Lyman Polmether, Kenzua, Pa.; John H. Wolf, Carlisle, Pa.

The Soldiers' Monument being erected in Juniata county is expected to be ready for dedication by the 4th of July.

Dirty Alleys would not be as plenty in this borough if persons would use more care in regard to what they throw in them. There is a law against throwing garbage in the streets or alleys, which ought to be enforced.

An Election has been ordered by the borough authorities, of Mifflintown, to take place next Saturday, to see whether burials shall or shall not be permitted within borough limits.

The Commissioners of Centre county offered a prize of ten dollars to the collector who would be first to settle up his duplicate for the year 1869. The premium was taken by Joseph K. Weaver, of Miles twp. Our Commissioners might copy after them, with profit to the treasury.

Dr. Schoeppe's case was argued before the Supreme Court at Harrisburg on Thursday and Friday last. His counsel claimed that the case should be placed under the law of 1870, which was opposed by the counsel for the commonwealth. The decision of the court has not yet been rendered.

Accident.—On Tuesday last a son of Mr. Jacob Mogel of centre twp., a lad aged about ten years, fell from the hay mow striking his head on the hub of a wagon and cutting a terrible gash on the corner of his forehead. Fortunately no bones were fractured and the boy is getting along as well as could be expected.

The Railroad subject is now agitating the citizens of York county, a portion of whom are desirous of furnishing the northern section with this modern facility for travel. A meeting on the subject was held at Dillsburg last week. Every section of the State seems to realize the importance of railroads, except Perry county.—How long before our citizens will awake to a sense of their duty in this matter?

Our Prospects.—It will be gratifying to our friends to know that we continue to prosper, and that such is the case, is plainly evident from the fact that increase of business has compelled us to enlarge our office. We have accordingly built a substantial addition to the rear of our present building, to be used especially for a press and mailing room.

We now have as convenient and well-stocked an office as can be found in the interior of the State, and can satisfactorily execute any orders for printing which our friends may see fit to entrust us with.

When we take into consideration the fact that our large subscription and advertising patronage is entirely independent of party or political support, upon which so many country papers entirely depend, we think we have reason to feel gratified with our success.

Sewing Machines owned and kept for use in any family, are now exempt from sale on execution for debt. The law of 1869 applied only to seamstresses, but an act passed last March extends the provisions of the act to all private families. Persons who do not already own one should examine the Parham and then purchase one. See their advertisement on the 8th page.

Wanamaker & Brown. — For beauty of style and elegance of finish, there is no clothing like that of Oak Hall. Every garment is a "thing of beauty," as well as of good service and comfort.

The Newport Trot.—The trot announced for the 27th inst., on the Fair Grounds' Race Course, came off according to announcement, resulting in a complete victory for Perry county stock. At 10 o'clock A. M., the $50 purse open only for Perry county horses, was trotted for and won by "Jim," owned by Dr. Hook, and entered by Fuhrman.

The following horses had been entered for this prize: Thos. J. Boyer entered "Confidence." Fuhrman "Jim." Hartzell "Fred." The second trot for a purse of $75, open to all, came off at 2 o'clock P. M. The following horses were entered for this prize: "Billy Button" and "Lady Ironsides," both Harrisburg horses, and "Toby," owned by Mr. Fuhrman, of Loysville. The prize was won by "Toby," the time being 1st heat 2.50, 2nd heat 2.39, 3rd heat 2.35.

The race was fairly conducted and proved entirely satisfactory to the large number present.

Plebiscite.—"A subscriber" wants us to tell him the meaning of this word which he says he does not understand, and has seen so often used. Plebiscite is the term used by the French, to express "the verdict of the nation on a political question." The word is borrowed from the Latin, and was used by the Romans to distinguish laws passed by the Plebs, or commons in distinction from laws passed by the Nobles.

For The Bloomfield Times. NEWPORT, May 20, 1870.

F. MORTIMER, Esq., Dear Sir—I fear the recent article in your paper headed "Outrage and Lynch Law," is calculated to create the impression that the people of Newport approve of Lynch law. It is true that a negro boy was enticed from his work at a tavern, where 2 men constituted themselves a jury, and without even calling a witness before them, had the boy stripped and beaten; but it is not true that the boy admitted having been guilty of any outrage upon the girl.—He stoutly denied it and alleges that on the night they charge that he committed the crime, men, women and little girls were drinking liquor, and at the request of the mother, he carried the child to bed and remained at the bed-side until relieved by its older sister, as the child was sick and vomiting. There was no charge made until next day, and I cannot learn that even the jurors claim that there was any mark upon the child.

The people in Newport condemn the brutal conduct of the men who wish to revive that relic of barbarism, the whipping-post. They desire the law administered, and all criminals punished, but they wish it done by an upright judge and sober jurors.—They also condemn the course of the men who excited by whiskey, advised that the boy be hung. The fact that the negro remains in town and the parents of the girl don't have him arrested—the report that he has been arrested not being true—should convince any unprejudiced mind that there is no ground for the charge against him.

Very truly yours, CITIZEN.

Briefs.

A new brick house is to be built on the Weary farm in Tyrone twp. The census takers will commence their duties this week.

Another change has been made in the schedule on the Penn R. R.

Ripe Strawberries made their appearance on our street yesterday.

The Base ball mania has broken out again in many parts of the country. We hope it will keep away from Perry.

The Academy in this place was never in so flourishing a condition as at present.

Business in the cities must be dull from the number of drummers in town last week, the number being nearly thirty.

A cold rain rendering fires necessary for comfort visited this vicinity on Friday and Saturday last.

A hat thief visited Newport on Friday last and his visit cost the landlord of one of the hotels the price of a new tile.

A tax of one or two dollars on every dog the proceeds to go to the school fund, would rid the country of some worthless curs and aid the cause of education.

The Daily Topic says: that the Harrisburg Car Works employ three hundred hands and turn out nine cars each day.

The second Presbyterian congregation at Carlisle propose erecting a new Church edifice.

Horse races are never productive of any good, but generally are productive of events which the better portion of the community regret should occur. In this respect the race at Newport was no exception to the general rule.

The man at Green Park who offered such a high price for hen manure declined to purchase a lot offered him, alleging that it was not a pure article as roosters were allowed to occupy the same roosts with the hens. It is astonishing how much some spoons hold isn't it?

Panama Hats.

The process of making Panama hats is as follows:—The leaves of the Pandanus or Seven pine from which these hats are made are gathered before they unfold, the ribs and coarser veins are removed, and the rest, without being separated from the base of the leaf, is reduced to shreds. After having been put in the sun for a day and tied into a knot, the straw is immersed in boiling water until it becomes white. It is then hung up in a shady place, and subsequently bleached for two or three days, after which the straw is ready for use. The plaiting of the straw commences at the crown and finishes at the brim, and is a very troublesome operation. The hats are made on a block placed on the knees, and require to be constantly pressed with the breast. The coarser hat may be finished in two or three days, but the finest may require as many months.
