HUMOROUS ITEMS.

Be contented with your lot—Especially if it is on a corner.
 Why was Pharaoh's daughter like a broker? Because she got a little prophet from the rushes on the banks.
 If a bottle of ginger-pop weighs one pound, how much will your grand-pop weigh?
 A Yankee is said to have obtained a patent for a new safe. N. B.—It locks up the cashier as well as the cash.
 If five and a half yards make a Pole, how many yards are required to make a Dutchman?
 Why are there three objections to taking a glass of brandy? Because there are three scruples to a dram.
 The lady who "took a stitch in her side," has arrived at the conclusions that a stitch in the hole of her stockings would be infinitely more serviceable.
 A Cincinnati has died of an oedematus state of the arytenoedigitidean folds. Strange that such a little thing should kill a man.
 When Jemima went to school she was asked why the noun "bachelor" was singular. "Because," she replied, "it is so very singular they don't get married."
 A good minister in a country village lately prayed fervently for those of his congregation "who were too proud to kneel and lazy to stand."
 A lady advertising for a husband, is very particular to have it understood that "none need apply who are under six feet." That female is strongly in favor of hy-men.
 "John," asked a physician of the apothecary's apprentice; "Did Mrs. Green get the medicine I ordered?" "I guess so," replied John, "for I saw crape hanging on the door-knob this morning."
 A Chinese boy, who was learning English coming across the passage in his Testament, "We have piped into you, and ye have not danced," rendered it thus: "We have toot, toot to you—what's the matter you no jump?"
 "I meant to have told you of that hole," said a man to his friend, who stumbled into a pit full of water. "No matter now," said the other, blowing the water out of his mouth. "I've found it out."
 "Sam," said one little urchin to another, "does your schoolmaster ever give you any rewards of merit?" "I s'pose he does," was the rejoinder; "he gives me a lickin' every day, and says I merit two."
 An original way of answering two questions at a time:
 "Here, Biddy, my darlin, what's the time o'night, and where's the pertaty pudding?"
 "It's eight sir."
 At a christening, while the minister was making the certificate, he forgot the date, and happened to say,
 "Let me see, this is the thirtieth!"
 "The thirtieth!" exclaimed the indignant mother, indeed, it is only the eleventh.
 If young ladies have a fault it is sometimes in being a little too forward: but then this is a fault which they always correct in after age, for as soon as a young lady has reached thirty, she begins to make amends for her former forwardness by going backwards regularly every year.
 An Englishman told an Irishman that porter was his meat and drink, and soon after Pat found him, having become heavily loaded, lying in a ditch. After surveying him for some time, he exclaimed:
 "Arrah, my honey, you said it was meat and drink to you: by my sowl, it's a much better thing, for it's washing and lodging too!"
 A friend of ours has a thoroughbred pointer dog, which is said to be the most efficient animal in the United States. It never lets any chance slip by it, this pointer doesn't. The other day, as it was trotting down Tenth street, its master observed that it ran up the front steps of a house and pointed dead at the door plate. Our friend whistled and whistled, but the dog refused to budge an inch. Upon going up to see what the matter was, he found that the door-plate bore the name of "A Partridge."
