HUMOROUS ITEMS.

An Irishman was challenged to fight a duel, but declined on the plea that he did not wish to leave his old mother an orphan.

'Sure, an didn't I jine the Methodist? Faix, and I did, I jined for six months; an behaved so well they let me off with three.'

A nine-year-old boy at the school in Lincoln, California, was asked what punishment was given to Adam and Eve? He replied; "They were driven off the ranche."

A darkey gives the following reason why the colored race is superior to the white race: "All men are made of clay, and like the meerscham pipe they are more valuable when highly colored."

"Recollect, sir," said a tavern keeper to a gentleman who was about leaving his house without paying the reckoning, "Recollect, sir, if you lose your purse you didn't pull it out here." The broad hint was taken.

"Did you present your account to the defendant?" inquired a lawyer of his client. "I did, sir." And what did he say?" "He told me to go to the devil." "And what did you do then?" "Why, then—I came to you."

"Miss will you take my arm?" asked an old bachelor. "La! yes, and you too," said the young lady. "I can only spare the arm miss" hastily replied the bachelor. "Then I can't take it," said the miss, "my motto is to go the whole hog or none at all."

A Massachusetts dentist recently advertised that he would give a set of teeth to the first caller on a certain Monday morning, and before sunset on Sunday there were two men and a woman on his door steps impatiently waiting for the dawn and the coveted prize.

A bachelor says that all he should ask for in a wife would be a good temper, health, good understanding, agreeable physiognomy, figure, good connection, domestic habits, resources of amusement, good spirits, conversational talents, elegant manners and money!

A late judge was a noted wag. A young lawyer was once making his first effort before him, and had thrown himself on the wings of imagination far into the upper regions, and was seemingly preparing for a higher ascent, when the judge exclaimed, "Hold on, hold on, my dear sir! Don't go any higher, for you are already out of the jurisdiction of the court."

A girl at Chester, Vermont, had died from tight lacing. These corsets should be done away with, and if the girls can't live without being squeezed, we suppose men can be found who would sacrifice themselves. As old as we are we had rather devote three hours a day without a cent of pay, as brevet corset, than see these girls die off in that manner. Office hours almost any time."

A New Hampshire farmer wanted a farm hand, and was applied to by an Irishman who wanted to work. The farmer objected to engaging Pat, on the ground that two Irishmen previously in his employ had died on his hands. "Thin you object to hiring me for that, do ye?" said Pat. "Faith and I can bring you recommendations from many a place where I've worked, that I never played such a trick!"

A midshipman asked a priest to tell him the difference between a priest and a jackass. The priest gave it up.

"One wears a cross on his back, and the other on his breast," said the midshipman.

"Now," said the priest, "tell me the difference between a midshipman and a jackass"

The midshipman gave it up, and asked what it was. The priest said he did not know of any.

A San Francisco school teacher received the following note from the "ostensible" parent of one of his pupils: "I hope as to my John you will flog him just as often as you kin. Heas a bad boy—is John. Altho I've bin in habit of teachin him miself, it seems to me he never will learn anything—his spellin is outrageously defishen t. Wallop him well ser, and you will receive my thanks.
 "P. S.—What accounts for John bein sich a schollar is that he is my sun by my wife's fust husband."
