LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should mail or otherwise send the subscription price, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

NOW IS YOUR TIME.

With the commencement of our next volume, we intend making an addition in size that will render the Times the largest paper published in the county.

Another Year For One Dollar. In making this offer it may be proper for us to state that we shall continue to publish an Independent Family Journal, devoted to the interest of no party or faction.

A Two Dollar note was brought to a Lebanon Bank for redemption last Wednesday, which had been taken from the intestines of a cat, in Montgomery county.

Accident.—On Thursday last the editor of this paper had his hand badly injured by getting it into the power-press.

The "Village Camp Meeting," which has been in progress during the past week, at the Methodist Church in this borough, has been quite interesting, and will be continued through this week.

Boy Stolen.—On Wednesday the 21st inst., the residence of Mrs. E. J. Dickey of this borough was entered by some unknown person, and her eldest son stolen from out the frame which hung in its accustomed place above the mantle piece.

An Outrage.—From a Harrisburg letter, received Saturday evening, we learn that a fellow named Deitrick, while hunting on Friday last near the railroad stock yards above Harrisburg, met two girls, to one of whom he made indecent proposals.

Where the Money Goes.—One of the ways by which the tax payers are swindled, is publishing an election proclamation of twice the length the law requires, which space must of course be paid for.

A Good Chance.—A property consisting of a House, Barn and 8 Acres of Land, situated one-half-a-mile South of Bloomfield, will be exchanged for a Small Store or other business, in any part of the State, or sold Cheap for Cash.

To Blacksmiths.—Those wanting the best quality of Toe and Blister Steel, can purchase it at low prices of F. Mortimer & Co.

Local Briefs.

Have we a borough council? At any rate they don't seem to amount to much.

A new church edifice is talked of at Elliptsburg. It is to be built by the Reformed Church.

The Odd Fellows dedicate a new hall at Blain next Saturday. Quite a turn out is expected from other parts of the county.

A son of Benjamin Baltasser, of Olive township, recently got his arm broken by falling from a bay-mow.

The improvements on the Presbyterian Church are progressing rapidly, and are already so far advanced as to give a pretty good idea of what the appearance will be.

Rev. J. S. Foulk has been installed as pastor to the Reformed Church of Carlisle.

Huntingdon county jail is over crowded with boarders.

A man named McLaughlin, in Crosson, fell dead while working in his garden.

The present population of Shippensburg, according to the last census report, is 2,075.

Newville is troubled for want of bricks—there being no one making that very necessary article in that borough.

A young man has been arrested, charged with causing the fire which destroyed Plack's planing-mill, in Altoona.

Every man should insure his life and the New York Continental, for which J. T. Eaton, of Harrisburg, is general agent, is the company apply to.

Incendiaries are again troubling the citizens of Shippensburg. A vigilance committee and prompt justice is the only way to rid a community of such nuisances.

Samuel Cleek, of Walker township, Juniata county, had a horse choked to death by his halter, while tied in the stable one night last week.

From one tree on his farm, in Tyrone township, Mr. Jacob Crist last week made 2,570 twenty-eight inch shingles; the majority of them being strictly No. 1.

Another lot of fine grapes were sent to us last week, and this time we are indebted to John Rice, of Spring township, for the favor. John will please accept our thanks.

In some portions of this county a number of horses have died quite suddenly with a disease somewhat resembling the bots, but which is more sudden and fatal in its action, and which the ordinary remedies for that disease fail to reach.

Important Newspaper Change.—The Hearth and Home, a finely illustrated family journal of a high character, hitherto issued by Messrs. Pettengill, Bates & Co., has been purchased by Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of 245 Broadway, New York.

Rev. B. B. Hotchkis, Pastor of the Marple Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa., says of "Our Father's House": "The theme for the man, and the man for the theme. Dr. March has an unusually felicitous taste for selecting that which is intrinsically of high interest."

MARRIAGES. FETTER—KENNEDY.—On the 22nd inst., in Landisburg by Rev. Bouse, Mr. Harry Fetter to Miss Kennedy, all of that place.

DEATHS. SHADE.—At the residence of her son, Mr. B. Shade in Penn township, Mary Magdalene Shade, aged 73 years, 2 months and 19 days.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The partnership heretofore existing between REBERT & SOUDERS, of Shermansdale, Perry county, Pa., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

Dobbins' Electric Soap,

Clothes, Money, Fuel, Labor, Time and Temper,

ALL ARE SAVED!

Try it once, and use it ever afterward. Every Grocer Sells It. Every Family Uses It.

NO ONE CAN DO WITHOUT IT!

Be sure that the wrapper has on it the cut of Mrs. Fogy and Mr. Enterprise, and that each bar is stamped with the name of the inventor and originator, J. B. DOBBINS, as none other is genuine.

Like everything of great value, it is extensively counterfeited, and the market filled with false and worthless Electric Soaps, not worth house-room, and dear even if given away.

The Finest American Toilet Soap, fully equal to the French made by a French soapmaker in the same manner as the French soaps are made, and sold at one-fourth their price, is

TRIPLE SCENTED

Dobbins' Toilet Soap!

NO TOILET IS COMPLETE WITHOUT IT!

The Best Emollient in the Market!

It is given the preference at every washing place in the country, and is for sale everywhere.

Please Ask For It

Don't be put off with any cheap common soap. Try it, and see how much BETTER it is than we say.

The only Polish that will produce a Brilliant and Lasting Shine, and, at the same time preserve the Leather, is

Dobbins' Electric Boot Polish,

MAKES OLD BOOTS LOOK LIKE NEW ONES, AND CALF-SKIN LIKE PATENT LEATHER.

It is put up in a Patent box, the greatest novelty of the age. The box alone is worth more to keep than the price of Box and Polish combined.

"KRUGHAT,"

The Genuine Turkish Bath compound, used in all Oriental countries, in the bath, and manufactured by us on a license and royalty, in exact style, odor and quality from the original receipt, as that made in Constantinople, and import duties, premium on gold, etc., saved, thus enabling us to sell it at a very low price.

By its use a bath becomes indeed a luxury. Very highly scented, and producing miraculous effects upon the skin. It is really worth a trial.
