LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should mail or otherwise send the subscription price, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.Postponed.—The sale of the Kline estate in Juniata twp., which was advertised to take place on the 29th ult., has been postponed until Saturday the 19th inst., see advertisement next week.Confirmed.—At a meeting of the directors of the P. R. R. Company, held on the 3rd, the appointment of Charles E. Pugh, of Philadelphia, as General Agent, sic Mr. Francis, deceased, was confirmed.Exhibition.—The Students at the Academy in this borough, propose to give an Exhibition in that building on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. No doubt all who are present will be agreeably entertained, as the young men have been at considerable expense and trouble to make the affair a success.A Scientific Paper.—We have received several copies of the American Engineer, a paper published by McCalla & Staveland, Philadelphia, which is always filled with reading of much interest, not only to mechanics, but to all thinking persons. It is mailed to subscribers for $2.50 per year.J. Shultz Spielman, a son of J. D. Spielman, esq., of Altoona, and train master at Derry station, while coupling cars on Saturday morning a week was caught between the bumpers and thrown down, several cars passing over him, killing him almost instantly.Installation.—The Rev. John Edgar will be installed as Pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place, on Wednesday of next week, Nov. 9th, at 7 o'clock in the evening. Services in the court house. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Mr. Downing of Newport, the charge to the pastor by Rev. Mr. McPherson of Landisburg, charge to the people by Rev. Mr. Hamilton of Ickesburg, and the constitutional questions proposed by Rev. M. Thompson of Duncannon.A Man Killed.—A man named Ely, employed at Watson's stone quarry, near Hollidaysburg, met with a fatal accident on Tuesday afternoon. Two boys were blasting in the quarry, and one of them neglected to give proper warning in time. Ely raised up just as the blast went off, a rock striking him on the head, crushing in the skull, and forcing his brains out at the ears and mouth. Strange to say, he lived about three hours after being injured.—Exchange.Nearly Suffocated.—Mr. Joshua Beale, of Tuscarora township, Juniata county, a few weeks ago was on a visit to Carlisle. In stopping at a hotel, he was placed in a room where gas was used for illumination. The light was extinguished but the gas was not entirely turned off, and it escaped into the room. Mr. Beale was found in the morning almost suffocated. By aid of a galvanic battery he was restored to consciousness. He has been removed to his home in Tuscarora, but is still in a critical condition.Runaway Accident.—On Friday a week a runaway accident occurred in Wheatfield twp., which nearly proved fatal to two lads who were in the wagon. A young horse belonging to Mr. Kirk of that township, was hitched to a spring wagon, in which a son and brother-in-law of Mr. Mayers, two boys about 12, and 15, years of age, and when near C. Roup's the wheel went into a rut so deep as to upset the wagon throwing out and injuring both boys. The horse took fright and ran away with only the shafts attached, which he soon kicked loose. Diligent search was made for the animal but no trace of him was found until near night the next day when he was found in the woods, by a son of Mr. Seabrights. Supervisors who allow such ruts to remain in the road ought to be held personally responsible for any damage which may occur.Serious Accident.—On the 23rd ult., Mr. Adam Losh while driving just beyond Sterrett's Gap, was thrown from his wagon and badly injured. The accident was caused by the front wheel breaking, which threw Mr. L. out in such a position that he was kicked by the horse, inflicting a terrible wound in his head and was otherwise hurt by being dragged a distance. He was so badly injured that it was impossible to take him home, and he was therefore carried to the hotel at the Gap, and his family sent for, as it was supposed impossible for him to live. At the last accounts we received, he was still alive, though no hopes were entertained that he would recover.Another Accident.—On Thursday night, a man named Rice, who carries the mail between Loysville and Sandy Hill, was somewhat hurt by being thrown from his buggy, the accident being caused by his vehicle coming into collision with another, the night being so dark, neither driver could see the other's buggy until they came together. One of the vehicles was considerably damaged, but the horses remaining quiet, prevented the accident from resulting in consequences more serious.Killed.—The body of a young man was found on Wednesday morning last, badly mutilated, on the railroad track near the Westchester intersection. It proved to be the body of Clayton Courson, a young man who had left Altoona, where he had been employed, on Monday night with the intention of going to Philadelphia. It is supposed he fell from the train and was run over.Fire.—About 3 o'clock on Sunday morning John Barnitz was aroused from sleep by the falling of burning timbers upon his face. He found himself all alone and his house enveloped in flames. He hastily removed some half-dozen articles, but the balance of his goods and house were burned. Assistance arrived too late to save anything else.John is a native of Ireland, and had, by hard labor and economy, built a snug little house about two years ago, near the Big Spring, and says that had $130 in the house, laid up for plastering and painting it. His children were fortunately absent at the time—otherwise some lives might have been lost. He had an insurance of $800 in York. No account of the origin of the fire can be given other than that an incendiary went for the cash and then applied the torch to cover his tracks.—Shippensburg Sentinel.A Curiosity.—Mr. John H. Wise, an employee on the Reading railroad, on the Leesport ore cars, brought to this office yesterday afternoon, a small turtle that had two well formed and distinct heads. Each had two eyes in it, in the proper places, and the turtle otherwise was well formed. It would pull in its head if teased and although very small, would open both its mouths to bite. This curiosity was picked up by Mr. Wise near a creek at Hanover Junction, York county, and it is his intention to try and raise it, but should it die, he will preserve it in alcohol.—Reading Eagle.

Local Briefs.

Now is the time to plant Strawberry and Grape Vines. Capt. Samuel Rice has the best varieties cultivated. He also has a new variety of Potato.

A "Calathumpian" serenade is a relic of barbarism which is unfortunately occasionally allowed to disgrace this borough. Such an incident occurred last Tuesday night. It is doubtful which is the most reprehensible, the authorities who permit such outrages, or the boys who commit them.

On Monday of last week a scaffold erected near the peak of the gable end of the Presbyterian church in this borough fell. There were on it at the time three hundred bricks and three men. Fortunately the men saved themselves by holding to some of the timbers and the wall.

Burglars paid a very unwelcome visit to Mechanicsburg on Sunday night a week, breaking into about twenty houses, taking the overcoats of many clergymen who were there attending synod. The silverware also received their attention.

Among the premiums offered at a county fair in Kentucky is one of $10 for the neatest patch put on an old garment by an unmarried woman. That is certainly, more sensible than offering premiums for race horses, in an agricultural community.

A lad 10 years of age, a son of Isaac Hummel of Snyder Co., was last week killed in the neck, by a colt and so badly hurt that he died in a few hours.

An Oriental Stove with or without Heater for sale. Used only part of one season. Warranted perfect in every respect. Call at this office.

Wild geese fly low this year, and only a few days since a flock passing over Newport, got so low that the game loving portion of the town went on a wild goose chase and succeeded in shooting three of the flock.

The Sherman House in Shippensburg was sold last week for $12,625.

A cow in Juniata twp. was kept week from lock jaw. An unusual complaint for an animal.

J. C. Kunkel who recently died at Harrisburg left property valued at half a million.

Two fine colts belonging to a Mr. Davis near Shippensburg were run over by the cars near that place last week. Both were hurt, one so badly that it had to be killed.

A horse attached to a buggy recently attempted to pass a railroad train on the same track, near Huntingdon, resulting in a promiscuous scattering of horse and buggy, but no damage to the train.

A few days ago a child in Cameron county fell into the machinery of a flouring mill and was literally ground to pieces.

The Five Dollar Sewing Machine purchased by me, January, 1860, from the Family Sewing Machine Company, 86 Nassau-Street, N. Y., has been in almost constant use ever since. It has not been out of order once. Has cost nothing for repairs, and I find it simple and reliable in operation, and always ready to sew. Those friends of mine who use them with the new improvements are very much pleased. The one I have would not part with.
