OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should mail or otherwise send the subscription price, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

"GREEN PARK"—Your communication takes up too much space for such a subject.

Mr. Robert Orr, of Centre township, cut his foot quite seriously while chopping in the woods on Friday last. The accident was caused by the axe catching in a limb over head.

The Mite Society.—The ladies of the 'Mite Society,' of the Presbyterian Church, will do any kind of plain or fancy sewing. Orders for their society may be left with Mrs. Sponsler and will recover prompt attention.

Last Friday quite a large party from this borough went after a large wild cat said to have a rendezvous in the ridge on the edge of Saville township. The supposed wild animal probably knew the trouble in store for him, and wisely kept out of sight. As a hunt the turnout was a perfect success, though as a find it was a failure.

A Two-Week's Sleep.—Mrs. Fissel, the octogenarian of North Codorus township, York county, who fell asleep in October, remained in that condition about two weeks, and then departed for the spirit land. During the entire period of her sleep, no nourishment of any kind was received. Her interrupted slumber was natural. She was the mother of Miss Hannah Fissel, of this place.—York Press.

Barn Burnt.—On the morning of the 10th inst., the barn of Levi Wilt of Liverpool twp., was destroyed by fire, together with six tons of hay, two cows, three young cattle and several fattening hogs.

The building it is supposed was set on fire by a person at enmity with Mr. Wilt. If caught we think lynch law is the only law fit for rascals who will commit such deeds.

Fatal Injuries.—On Friday afternoon, a number of railroad workmen attempted to get on a moving coal train near the Marysville bridge, when one man, named Mo-nahan, fell in such a position that the train ran over both his legs, causing such injuries that he survived only a few hours. The deceased was a resident of Harrisburg.

Sudden Death.—On Morning last, an in-quest was held by Esq. Leet on the body of Betsy Mathers, an aged lady, of the Loop, in Frankstown twp., Blair county, who was found dead in her barnyard, on the evening previous. Verdict of the jury, was that she came to her death from natural causes. As buckets were found near her, it is supposed she was on her way to milk the cows. Her death, no doubt, resulted from apoplexy or a disease of the heart.

A singular coincidence in this case, is the fact, that her husband, James Mathers, was found dead some eleven years ago, near the same place, and a jury returned a similar verdict in his case, as was returned in hers.—Register.

Fatal Accident.—An accident occurred early Saturday morning at the saw-mill, near the Hummelstown railroad station, resulting in the death of a young man named Deeter, brother-in-law of Mr. Rhen, one of the employees. He came to the mill the previous evening, with the intention of sleeping there that night. In the morning he was awakened at an early hour, and dressed himself preparatory to starting out on a hunting excursion. By some means, unknown, he was caught by his clothing in the main shaft of the machinery, which was being rapidly revolved, and when discovered, and the mill stopped, a few minutes afterward, it was found that he was horribly mangled. His right leg was broken in two places, his shoulders and arms broken and lacerated, and his back badly injured. He was removed to his home, where he lingered in intense suffering about four hours after the accident, when death came to his relief.—State Journal.

Not so.—The report published in the Cumberland county papers, and which has been extensively copied in our other exchanges, stating that a singular and fatal disease was afflicting the citizens of Shermansdale, must have had its origin in some fertile imagination. Neither the physicians nor several other residents of that vicinity of whom we have inquired, know of any unusual sickness.

The New Church, built by the United Brethren in Christ, at Oakdell, three miles east of Ickesburg will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, on the 8th of January next, (no preventing providence.) Bishop J. Weaver, of Baltimore, Md., is expected to officiate. The Presiding Elder, Rev. W. B. Raber, and other ministers are expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Must Settle.—Mr. Geo. H. Martin of Blain gives notice to all who have accounts on his books, that such accounts must be settled either by note or otherwise before January 1st. If not settled by that date they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

Church Notices.

In the Lutheran Church, prayer-meeting on Wednesday evening. Preaching next Sabbath at 10 o'clock a. m.

Local Briefs.

Petty thieves are making calls upon the farmers. Tuesday night some rascal went through the spring house of Wilson Darlington, appropriating the butter and sundry other articles. Shot will be found a very good medicine for such scamps if properly administered.

For Notary Public of Juniata county the Governor has appointed Solomon Books of Mifflin.

The "hay fork swindle" noticed by us last week was settled by the parties giving up all papers signed by Mr. Bernhisel, while he footed the bill of costs.

Horse thieves are operating in the adjoining counties. Our farmers will do well to keep a sharp look out for the rascals.

The town of York is to have a new borough map.

Blair county has a new jail now ready for boarders.

Col. Morrison whose injuries at Huntingdon we have previously noticed has since died.

The Lutherans and Methodists of Mifflin have been holding protracted meetings with marked success. Over 20 persons have found the joined church while the latter have had nearly sixty conversions.

A stuffed porcupine, which was killed last week in Blair county by Renj. Rice Jr. of Spring twp., was quite a curiosity to many persons in this borough, as he took it along home on Thursday last.

David H. Smith of Spring twp., got quite a severe fall while working for A. C. Clemson in Oliver twp., on Friday a week, badly hurting his back and wrist.

Mr. Geo. Shrom of the Notes had one of his fingers badly mashed and a finger on the other hand slightly hurt last Tuesday by having it caught in his job press.

Benj. Rice Jr. of Spring twp., lost his pocket book on last Wednesday while on his way home from Green Park. A suitable reward will be paid for its return with its contents, which was about $7.

For Sale, Cheap—A first-rate Oriental Stove, with or without heater. The Stove is Warranted perfect in every respect. For further particulars call at this office.

Mortimer & Co., who having secured the services of a very superior workman from New York, are prepared to execute orders promptly, and in the best style. They also have the best assortment of cassimeres and cloths in the county.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, No. 43 Cedar St., New York.

The Five Dollar Sewing Machine purchased by me, January, 1866, from the Family Sewing machine Company, 86 Nassau-Street, N. Y., has been in almost constant use ever since. It has not been out of order once. Has cost nothing for repairs, and I find it simple and reliable in operation, and always ready to sew. Those friends of mine who use them with the new improvements are very much pleased. The one I have I would not part with. MRS. ANN W. CUTHBERT. 441.3m.] 428 West 96th-Street, New-York

RENOVA, Oct. 31, 1870.

Mr. Editor—Dear Sir—As it may be interesting to the readers of the Times, to know what the improvements in this part of the State are, I will give them a description of this place and its improvements.—Renovo is situated on a small piece of tableland between the ranges of the Allegheny mountains, on the north bank of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, 145 miles west by north-west from Harrisburg. The improvements are the workshops of the P. and E. R. R., this being head quarters of the first and second divisions of the road. The place contains from 1,900 to 2,000 inhabitants, and is rapidly improving. There are 35 private buildings and one Odd-Fellow's Hall in the course of erection at the present time. The place contains 11 dry-goods and grocery stores, 8 hotels, 3 shoe stores, 4 merchant tailors, 3 barber shops, 2 meat stores, 2 oyster saloons, 2 bakeries, 3 milliner stores, 1 jewelry store, 3 churches, 5 public schools and 1 lumber mill.—The Presbyterians had a very fine fair in the basement of their church, which proved very satisfactory to all that were there; the house being crowded to its fullest capacity every night. The fair lasting one week. One of the novelties was a two-horse-power stationary engine, which was made by a machinist for the benefit of the fair. A WITNESS.

Six things I Don't like to See.

Mr. Editor—Sir—In the first place I don't like to see a person who says he cannot afford to take a newspaper, while he spends ten cents per week for tobacco.

2nd. A clergyman who cannot preach a sermon without having a chew of tobacco in his mouth.

3rd. A member of the church loaded with silk and jewelry, while the person they call brother or sister has not decent clothing.

4th. A large dog in a poor man's house.

5th. Temperance men in grog-shops.

6th. Men who require a spittoon in church. A REFORMER.

"Matters of Form Attended to Here."

This is one of the many signs that adorn the walls of Wanamaker & Brown's Oak Hall. Some men absolutely disfigure their forms by the clothing they wear, but Oak Hall clothing sets off the form to its highest advantage.
