FARM AND HOUSEHOLD ITEMS

We invite communications from all persons who are interested in matters properly belonging to this department.

How to Keep a Cellar Warm.

The mode of proceeding is given by the Scientific !merican, as follows:

"The walls and ceiling were pasted over with four or five thicknesses of old newspapers, a curtain of the same material pasted over the small low windows at the top of the cellar. The papers were pasted to the bare joists over head, leaving an air space between them and the floor. He reports that the papers carried his roots through last winter, though the cellar was left unbanked, and he is confident they have made the cellar frost-proof. We do not counsel the special use of old newspapers for this purpose. It is just as well or better to use coarse brown paper. Whatever paper is employed, it will be necessary to sweep down the walls thoroughly, and use a very strong size to hold he paper to the stones. It is not necessary to press the paper down into all the depressions of the wall; every air space beneath it is an additional defence against the cold.'

We have no doubt the process described above will prove efficacious. Try it. It is inexpensive, and easily done.

How to Make Neat' Foot Oil.

The hoofs are chopped off, and the other pertions are cracked and boiled thoroughly. From the surface of this boiled mass pure neat's foot oil is skimmed. which is unsurpassed by any other oleaginous matter for harness, shoes, etc.—After the oil is taken off the water is strained, to take from it any faity particles that remain, and then it is boiled again, until, upon trying, it is found to settle into a stiff jelly. It is then poared into flat bottomed dishes, and when cold, cut into suitable sized pieces. It hardens in a few days, and then you will have a very fine article of glac, free from im-purities of any kind. By taking a portion of this glutinous substance before it becomes too thick, and brushing it over pieces of silk, you have just as much court plaster as you desire, inodorous, tenacious, and entirely free from those poisonous qualities which cause (as much of the article sold by apothecaries does,) inflamation, when applied to scratches. cuts, and sores.

Medical Properties of Eggs.

The white of an egg has proved of late the most efficacious remedy for burns,-Seven or eight successive applications of this substance soothes pain and effectually includes the burn from the air. This simple remedy seems preferable to collo-dium, or even cotton. Extraordinary stories are told of the healing properties of of a new oil which is easily made from the yolks of hens' eggs. The eggs are first boiled hard, and the yolks are then removed, crushed, and placed over a fire, where they are carefully stirred until the whole substance is just on the point of entching fire, when the yolk will yield nearly two teaspoonfuls of oil. It is in general use among the colouists of South Russia as a means of curing cuts, bruises and scratches.

Bone Felon.

Of all painful things, can there be any so exerutiatingly painful as a bone felon? We know of none that flesh is heir to; and as this malady is quite frequent and the subject of much earnest consideration. we give the latest recipe for its cure, which is given by that high authority the London Lancet : " As soon as the disease is felt, put directly over the spot a fly blister, about the size of your thumb nail and let it remain for six hours, at the expiration of which time, directly under the surface of the blister, may be seen the felon, which can instantly be taken out with the point of a needle or a lancet."

Boy It is certainly a curious fact that the substances required to form common table sult, are both of them poisonouschlorine and sodium. No one can use either of these articles separately with safety and yet combine them and they form a substance necessary to health, and found upon every table.

THE KIDNEYS.

THE Kidneys are two in number, situated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz: the Anterior, the Interior and the Exterior.

The Anterior absorbs. Interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the Exterior. The Exterior is a conductor also, terminating in a single tube, and called the Ureter. The Ureters are connected with the bladder.

The bladder is composed of various cover-

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz.: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability; others urinate without the ability; others urinate without the ability to retain.—
This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections, we must bring inte-action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made aware, that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers, as our flesh and blood are supported from these GOUT, OR RHEUMATISM.—Pain occurring in the loins are indicative of the above diseases. They occur in persons disposed to acid stomach and chalky concretions.

DEAR SIR-I have been a sufferer, for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent Physicians, the treatment of the most eminent Physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consuited with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and, some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confued to my room. ago, at which time I was confined to my room. From the first bettle I was astonished and grat-From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the benedicial effect, and after using it three weeks, was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of more value to you, and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any new for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did. Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

M. McCORMICK. Should any doubt Mr. McCormick's statement, he refers to the following gentlemen:

THE GRAVEL .- The gravel ensues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys.—
These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed and grayed energy.

gravel ensues. Dropsy is a collection of water in some parts of the body, and bears different names, according to the parts affected, viz.: when generally diffused over the body, it is called Anasarca; when of the abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest, Hydrothorax.

TREATMENT.—Helmbold's highly concentra-ed compound Extract Buchn is decidedly one of the best remedies for diseases of the blad-der, kidneys, bladder, dropsical swellings, rheumatism and gouty affections. Under this head we have arranged Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water, Scanty Secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water; Strangury, or stopping of water; Hematuria, or bloody urine; Gout and Rheumatism of the kidneys, without any change in quantity, but increase in color, or dark water. It was always highly recommend by the late Dr. Physick, in these affections.

This medicine increases the power of diges-tion, end excites the absorbents into healthy exercise by which the watery or calcarcous de-positions, and all unnatural enlargements, as vell as pain and inflamation, are reduced, and it is taken by men, women, and children. Di rections for use and diet accompany.
