LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance;

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

Renders will observe that we have so arranged the contents of our paper that reading matter will be found on every page.

Sad Accident .- On Monday afternoon of last week two children of Mr. Harris at Millerstown while playing on the ice near the bridge at that place, broke through and were drowned. The bodies were recovered, the funeral taking place on Wednesday. The children were aged about 8 and 11 years, and were quite a help to their father who is blind.

Entertainment.-The citizens of Mexico and vicinity are making great preparation for holding a musical convention in the United Presbyterian Church, on the evening of the 10th of January, and at Thompsontown on the evening of the 11th. Proceeds to be applied to repairing the church. Entertainment to be vocal and instrumental. Admittance, 25 cents; children 15 cts.

Fire. On Friday about noon, the house belonging to Mrs. Shortess, in Centre twp., about one mile from this borough, took iire, and was entirely burned down. Help arrived soon enough to save pretty much all the furniture and wearing apparel, etc .-The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defect in the flue, near the kitchen

Our Congressman. - The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Sun, in a recent letter, makes some exceedingly damaging statements regarding the Representative from this district, Hon.(?) R. J. Haldeman.

According to his statement, the member, not satisfied with presenting himself in the House disgracefully drunk, has so far forgotten his manhood that he has beaten his wife, making such a disturbance in Willard's Hotel that the proprietor refused to allow him to remain on his premises. If these stories are not true, Mr. Haldeman owes it to himself, and his constituents, to have them contradicted; but as he has not done so, we are forced to believe that this district has been disgraced by the actions of its representative. The importance of selecting as candidates men of temperate habits, is, by this circumstance, brought foreibly home to men of both parties. The question now is, will they profit by the Terrible Conflagration at Miffintown.

We have received a dispatch saying that a terrible fire occurred in Mifflin, on Saturday evening. It began about 8 o'clock and destroyed nearly fifty buildings,

The Harrisburg fire department was telegraphed for, and responded as soon as the P. R. R. company could furnish transportation with five engines. At the time of writing this. (Monday morning) we have no particulars as to where the fire originated or who are the principal sufferers. We may get further news before we go to press.

LATER.-The fire is supposed to have began in the basement of the Crystal Palace store, near the bridge, and made a clean sweep up Bridge street to Main street .-Among the burned buildings was the Odd-Fellows' Hall, and the Democrat and Register office. The property destroyed is vaciously estimated at from $175,000 to $200,-000; on which there is considerable insucance-quite an amount being in the Perry County Mutual.

We make the following extracts from a report received from a correspondent, which unfortunately came to hand too late to allow us to insert the letter entire:

The flames were so violent that a straw stack on the farm of Mr. Moist caught fire, although at a distance of about a half mile from the fire. The fire is supposed to have originated in the basement of the Crystal Palace building. The heaters are in the basement, and in the same room was stored turpentine, coal oil, etc., and it is thought that these oils ignited from the tire in the stove, causing this terrible disaster.

The loss, as far as ascertained from pretty reliable resources, will foot up over $100,000-consisting of forty buildings together with their stock, furniture, etc., and rendering homeless, for the present at least, forty-one families.

The household goods, furniture, etc., is piled in stacks in the Court House yard, and in the street all mixed up together.

The homeless persons are quartered in discriminately with their more fortunate neighbors. And thus was closed the last day of 1870. One long to be remembered by the inhabitants of Mifflin. The new year was ushered in by a sad watch meeting, and the "happy new year" sounded a

A gentleman in an Upper Township got the nightmare one night last-week, and dreamed that he was standing upon a railroad track, chained to a log which was fastened to the rails. He heard the train approaching, and he made the most desperate exertions to drag that log off in time to prevent a heart-rending disaster. 'He tugged, and pulled, and jerked, and "rastled" with that log, apparently for an hour and a half, but in vain. At last the engine dashed up, the cow-catcher struck him and he awoke. He was surprised to find himself lying on the floor, with his wife standing over him, fondling him with a Windsor chair, and wanting to know what he meant by pulling her out of the bed by the leg. He had been clinging to it with desperation, thinking it was a logan error which was hardly more preposterous than the idea that the chair was a cowcatcher. His wife said she would excuse him this time; but he would either have to sign a pledge never to have any more athletic nightmares, or submit to a seper-

A young lady stepped into one of the street cars the other day, at Harrisburg, and dropped her handkerehief upon a vacant seat, as much as to say, "taken," while she advanced to the other end of the car to deposit her fare. Meantime a nicelydressed young man jumped in and sat down on the handkerchief, without observing it. The young lady, after paying her fare, turned back, discovered to her chagrin her scat was occupied, and sat down opposite, ladies making room for her. But she did not desire to lose her handkerchief, so she looked intently toward the place where she had left it, he sitating whether to ask for it or not. Discovering the direction of her looks, all eyes on the opposite side of the car were soon bent on the young man. Finding himself the object of so much attention, he discovered to his horror something white on which he sat, the end peeping out. He mistook its character. To cover it with his hand, and to tuck it nicely away, was the work of a few moments. None in the car but the young lady knew that the "something white" was a handkerchief, and hesitating still more to ask him, she lost it.-Ex.

The Law of Checks.- The United States Court has decided that the holder of a bank check can not sue the bank for refusing payment in the absence of proof that it was accepted by the bank or charged against the drawer. 'The relation of the banker and customer is simply that of debtor and creditor, and does not partake of a fiduciary character. There can be no foundation for action on the part of the holder unless there is a privity of contract between him and bank, and there can be no such privity when the bank owes no duty and is under no obligation to the holder. The holder takes the check on the credit of the drawer and the banks not connected with the transaction.

COMMUNICATED.

BUCK'S VALLEY, Dec. 27th, 1870. There has been considerable improvement made in Buck's Valley, by way of building, during the past summer, and some are still at it. Lewis Acker erected a large commodious brick store and dwelling-house. Jacob Albright and John Butterman have each erected comfortable dwellings in "Log Town." John Potter and Samuel Bair have each built a substantial wagon-shed and corn-crib. John Steckley and J. B. Clay are each building a new house, this winter. Others are repairing their houses, barns, out-buildings, etc.

Your truly.

Yours truly, One of the most useful articles to have in mocking sentiment to the unhappy but have not already got one, you can get the hopeful people of Mifflin.

The cold weather of last week was well improved by those of our citizens who have ice-houses, and their ice-houses are now filled with a superior quality of ice.

The nail factory at Duncannon, contrary to the expectations of the bands, starts again this week, with an addition of four new machines.

The school directors of Buffalo township, take a course calculated to keep their teachers up to the proper mark. They frequently visit all the schools in a body, besides making individual visits.

Hunters should remember that the game laws' prohibit the killing of all kinds of game until the legining of another season. Those young men who were hunting rabbits yesterday should bear this in mind. The concert of vocal and instrumental music, Christmas scenes, &c., given by the Methodist Sabbath school of Duncannon, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, was a decided success, and drew a crowded house both evenings. The most astonishing Bair story have heard in a long time is the story of a man in Spring township, who was thirtysix hours cutting his way out of a stump, into which he fell, while hunting a fox. Well, there is nothing like telling a good one while about it.

Our Duncannon correspondent says: "On Wednesday evening last, as Daniel Lighty, was walling up a well, his little toy, aged five years, went to call him to supper, and losing his balance, fell down a distance of tifteen feet, landing on his father's shoul-ders; besides being stunned considerably, neither party received any injuries."
