The 'Missouri Democrat' very truly remarks that the day of party organs is over, and that people want independent newspapers.

Gloves are now made in England with a pocket on the inside of the palm, to suit the habit indulged in by the fair sex of carrying money in that position.

The choir sang "Come, ye Disconsolate," at a recent wedding in Lafayette, Ind. The bride, who is thirty-two, says she isn't near so disconsolate as she was.

On the 12th ult., the Southern Express Company was robbed near Pensacola of $13,000 in currency, including $12,000 from the Navy Department, probably intended for the Pensacola navy yard.

Wisconsin has a dog, which will take money to the market and bring home meat in exchange. Being recently unable to get money, and very hungry, he stole a sash, and pawned it for meat.

Two years each in the State Prison, or $500 fine with two weeks' grace to raise the money, was the sentence imposed by the California Court upon four Chinamen who had beaten a Chinese woman nearly to death, and then built a fire about her.

The State of New Hampshire borders on Canada for a distance of thirty or forty miles, and yet there is not a road of any kind across the line. It is a wild region on both sides, little frequented except by hunters.

A facetious young gentleman from Cincinnati, received the charge of a shot gun in return for his courtesy in calling an Indiana farmer up in the night, to advise him to take in his chimney as it was freezing weather.

In Michigan, in a case against an accident insurance company, the plaintiff lost his suit because the Judge decided that a man's feet were not a private conveyance. Well, if a man's feet are public, what can be called a private conveyance?

The Central Pacific Railroad robbers, tried at Washoe City, were sentenced as follows: Chapman to eighteen years' imprisonment, Parsons to twenty, Cockerell twenty-two, and Squires twenty-three years and six months.

A Cincinnati paper states that several thousand barrels of swine's blood is used in that city every year for the manufacture of sweet wine. "Sweet wine," forsooth!—may it not more properly be called sewer wine—or, if you please, what a Dutchman would call hack (hog.)

W. H. Wisner, son of the late Radical candidate for Congress in Tennessee, shot and killed Mr. Stahlman, agent of the Southern Express Company in Shelbyville, recently in a quarrel over Stahlman's refusal to give Wisner a receipt for money paid on a C. O. D. package.

Mr. Isaac Mance, an old resident of Prince's Bay, Staten Island, set fire to his house on Sunday night, and was burned to death in the flames. Mr. Mance, who was 77 years of age, was an eccentric butcher, and lived alone. At times he was partially deranged, and had previously attempted both arson and suicide.

A man was recently engaged in planking a sidewalk in a certain city, when a woman in gorgeous apparel stopped near the scene of his labors to chat with a friend. Her train hung over the edge of the plank he had put in position, and he quietly slid another one alongside of it, and securely spiked it down. The fiend then went away to dinner.

They tell a good story in Milwaukee of a lawyer who came back, after some years' absence from the city, and went almost immediately into the trial of a jury case. "I believe," said he to his opponent, as he glanced at the occupants of the jury box, "I know more than half these fellows if I have been away so long." "I should think it strange," was the encouraging reply, "if you didn't know more than all of them."

The steamer "Aries" went ashore at Henford Bar at 6 a. m., on the 23d ult. A boat which was launched to take soundings was upset at short distance from the steamer, and the mate and four seamen were lost. Three were drowned, and the other two got on the bottom of the boat, where they were frozen to death.—Two of the bodies floated ashore at Cape May, next day.

A fine-looking couple who had been spending their "honey-moon," to all appearance at a Jersey City hotel, were about to part a few days ago, when a strange woman, in an elegant attire, appeared, and pretty nearly stripped the clothes from the supposed bride. The man quietly looked on, and when the performance had ended, turned to the strange woman, with the words, "Come, Amy, let's go home." The couple in this charming scene were a well-known New York merchant and a 'blonde' of the N. Y. stage, and the interloper was the merchant's wife.

Some interest has been created in Sussex county, New Jersey, during the excavation of the Midland railroad, by the discovery of some relics of former times in the form of two silver Masonic badges, ornamented with square and compass, moon and sun, in accordance with the masonic emblems of the present day, which were found five feet below the hard earth excavations of the Midland railroad. How the badges ever got there is a mystery, as no human remains were connected with them, and the soil is a slate.

VALUABLE Farm at Public Sale.

THE undersigned offers at public sale, a farm in Rye township, Perry county, Pa., containing 57 ACRES.

The land is the best in the neighborhood, with running water in every field, is under good fence, and has thereon erected a new Frame Dwelling House.

There is also a thrifty Young ORCHARD on the place. This land lies along two public roads—the Fishing Creek road and the Lamb's Gap road; the last named divides the land in two parts—30 1/2 on the one side and 26 1/2 on the other; on the 20 1/2 acre piece is a New Frame Dwelling House, and on the other a erected for a house, with a never failing Spring of water. This land will be sold as a whole, or in two Tracts, to suit purchasers.

If not sold at private sale before the LAST OF DECEMBER, this property will be sold at public sale, at the Court House, in Bloomfield, on the FIRST THURSDAY IN FEBRUARY, 1871, at one o'clock p. m., of said day, when terms will be made known.

Persons desiring to purchase a farm will do well to examine this one before investing elsewhere, as it lies within four miles of Marysville, and the Pennsylvania Railroad—one of the best markets in the county.

Further information can be had by addressing Dr. JOHN USAW, Jemmy & Road, Somerset county, Pa.
