Tuesday, January 17, 1871.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received after Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

NOTICE.

Subscribers whose subscriptions are about out will please remember that all papers are stopped at the expiration of the time for which they are paid.

Wanted.

A person having a copy of The Times, dated August 24th, 1870, in good order, can get 25 cents for it at this office.

Iron Ore is now worth 50 cts per ton at Millerstown. There is an abundance of ore in Centre and Spring township which will be just as valuable to our citizens after the railroad is made from Duncannon to Bloomfield and Loyville.

A Young Man sent some money to New York to get something good for those contemplating matrimony. He received several bottles of soothing syrup. We hope one of them was "Filer's Carnation," as that would have been really good for them.

Deputy Sheriffs graduate quite often under the present administration. Another change has recently been made, Mr. C. Showalter having taken the place of Mr. I. G. Black, making the fourth deputy under the present sheriff.

By the last change the tax payers made a gain as the request for a change in keeper of the jail, was granted, though the court declined to any longer pay the salary, which heretofore has been $275 per year.

Friend Murray appears to take exception to our article last week, in which we spoke of a young man being effected with Chloroform, with which a party were experimenting, and enters into an explanation and contradiction, through the columns of the News. He says "that it was Alcohol and not Chloroform, that was used, and that persons who don't know Alcohol from Chloroform, should not circulate these reports." Neither our reporter nor ourselves, profess to be well posted up on the effects of such stimulants, and therefore it may have been Alcohol that did the mischief.

Fruit Trees.—N. W. Hartman proprietor of the Fairview nurseries of Adams Co., is now here for the purpose of soliciting orders for fruit trees, which will be delivered in time for spring planting.

The high reputation of these nurseries is sufficient to warrant entire satisfaction to those getting trees from this gentleman. All orders taken by him are guaranteed to be delivered in good condition and his terms are reasonable. We trust those who are wanting anything of this kind will not fail to give him their orders. He can be found at Sweger's hotel in this borough. 2 t

Remarkable Affliction.—An uncommon fatality afflicts the neighborhood of Newville, Cumberland county. On the 14th ult., Miss Nancy Dunlap, an aged lady died with some disease akin to pneumonia. Since then four of her relatives have been similarly attacked and died, viz: Mrs. Bell her sister; Mrs. Phillips, from the West; Mrs. Wm. Dunlap and John H. McClay, from Franklin county, who attend the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Dunlap, and who took sick while the funeral was en route for the grave-yard, and was unable to proceed the whole distance. Mr. Wm. Dunlap was taken down with the strange malady, and also Mr. Christian Trill, both of whom were dangerously ill at last accounts.—Sentinel.

A Curious Accident.—The Blair county Radical says: A short time ago as one of workmen on the Conneville railroad, was quietly smoking his pipe in a room at a hotel in Confluence, Somerset county, a report of a pistol was heard and the smoker dropped to the floor senseless. His companions were startled, and for some time could not account for the singular occurrence. At last it was discovered that the man had been in the habit of carrying his pipe in a pocket with smoking tobacco and pistol cartridges. It is supposed that in filling his pipe he had used one of the cartridges, which had exploded, sending the ball partly around the head of the smoker, just under the skin, knocking the wind out of him for some time. The wound, though painful, is not serious.

Bob Akers, who is so well known in this vicinity, and who has been in our county prison several times, was before the Court of Quarter Sessions of Mifflin county at its last session, charged with breaking and entering the store of John Glasgow, in Wayne township. The Lewistown Gazette says: The Court offered counsel to Bob, who had none, but he refused the offer saying that he had three when he was tried here before, and did not consider lawyers of much account. The trial then proceeded. Bob cross-examined the witnesses for the prosecution in a style quite peculiar to himself. It appears that about $300 worth of goods were taken, and most of these found concealed in the woods near by. Bob was arrested in the neighborhood wearing an overcoat and vest which were identified as among them stolen. In defendant's carpet bag were found fifty keys of all sizes and descriptions, a bottle of chloroform, a large butcher knife, a flask of powder and fuse. Bob offered no evidence, but made a short address to the jury the burden of which was, "not proved." Verdict not guilty.

The Game Laws are being faithfully carried out at Sandy Hill. Three rabbits and one pheasant were killed there a few days since, and the parties guilty of the offense were arrested and paid a fine of $20 and costs. The prosecutor was Mr. Jacob Burd, who believes in having all laws properly enforced. The game laws have been published often enough to have every person who takes a paper well posted, and if they don't take a paper a few lessons of this kind will perhaps show them the necessity of doing so. We suggest THE TRIM as the one that will suit them exactly. Our correspondent at Sandy Hill thinks one rabbit and one pheasant a dear dinner at $20.

Fatal Accident.—Intelligence has been received of the sudden death of Lloyd Livingston a former resident of Watts township in this Co., which occurred on the 2d inst., in Crittenden Co. Arkansas. The deceased was engaged in felling a tree when a limb broke from the upper part of the tree and falling upon him crushed him so badly as to cause almost instant death.

The deceased was a young man about 22 years of age and his untimely death is a sad blow to his brother and aged mother who reside in Watts township.

A Bold Horse Thief.—On Thursday evening last about seven o'clock a dark sorrel mare, and buggy belonging to Mr. Charles Underwood, were stolen from a hitching post in Dillsburg. The owner had gone into a house, and left his team standing outside. When he returned to drive home his horse and buggy were gone. Mr. Underwood's first impression was that the animal became loose and traveled home. On further investigation it was found however that some unknown person had taken possession of the property and drove away. After some inquiry, Mr. U. discovered the direction that had been taken, which was on the road leading to York. He immediately started in pursuit, and at different points on the road he gained information that the thief was certainly ahead of him. At Dover he learned that a team answering his description had passed through that borough, and he afterwards was informed that about half-past ten o'clock a man driving a buggy had stopped in Market street in York, and inquired for the road to Wrightsville. Soon after Mr. Underwood arrived at York, and on Thursday night Daniel Jacobs and Daniel Spangler, detectives proceeded to Wrightsville, but on Friday no information had yet been received.

Mr. Underwood offers a reward of $70 for the conviction of the thief and the return of the horse and buggy. There is a drop curtain on the front of the buggy, and a double blanket under the seat.—York True Democrat.

Rather Slippery.—A friend which has evidently been to see his Mary Ann since the walking was slippery thus writes: "Suddenness and unexpectedness are the essential qualities of wit. A joke to be thoroughly enjoyable, must be sharp, sudden and unexpected. So, also, must a seat on the sidewalk. That is the reason why a seat on the sidewalk is so much like a good joke—is itself, in fact, a good joke. They are such good things to happen, as you are going home late at night thinking of your Mary Ann, or your quarterly dividend, or your stary days, or who is going to make you your next present, and what it will be—you strike one of these oases—so to speak—in a desert of blue stone—and with scarcely an effort on your part, you sit down. There's something about it so easy, and withal so kind of sudden-like; and it's quick over, and you don't have to stand round getting ready for it, and shivering over it as boys do when they go in swimming on a cold day; and it is so warming when you get there, and so cooling if you stay there a little while; and it is so encouraging, about your teeth, if you've ever had any doubts about their being set in strong."

Two Fine Farms for Sale.—Two good farms located near a growing town, convenient to the Pa. R. R. The farms are in a high state of cultivation, and will be sold on reasonable terms. For further particulars call at this office.

Registry of Sales.

Bills for the following sales have been printed at this office:

On February 2nd, Isaac Weaver, at his residence in Saville township, 2 miles east of Ickesburg, will sell horses, cattle, hogs, meat by the pound, household furniture, &c.

On February 3rd, at his residence in Carroll twp., 2 miles north west of Shermansdale, Robert McDonald will sell a large lot of personal property, consisting of horses, young cattle, wagons, harness, lumber, and tools.

On Thursday, February 17th, there will be sold at the farm of Washington Kirk, in Wheatfield twp., horses, cattle, sheep, shotes, and a great variety of farm implements and other personal property.

Rev. Edward F. Berkeley, D. D., Rector of St. George's Church, St. Louis, Mo., says of "Our Father's House": "The author of 'Night Scenes in the Bible,' has shown himself to be a master in thought and language. His present work is beautiful, and the high character of his former writings is grandly sustained. In its style, this book will be satisfactory to the highest state of mental culture, while its force and point and beauty will elevate and improve the heart and mind.

See advertisement in another column.

Wool.—The fact must never be lost sight of, that Wamamker & Brown make up only all-wool goods. The low prices at which they sell, have led some to think that there must be cotton in their materials. But this is not so. "All-wool" goods at "cotton" prices is the rule at Oak Hall.

Your faded locks can be restored to all their youthful beauty by using Nature's Hair Restorative which is free from all dangerous drugs. See advertisement.

The Five Dollar Sewing Machine purchased by me, January, 1866, from the Family Sewing Machine Company, 86 Nassau-Street, N. Y., has been in almost constant use ever since. It has not been out of order once. Has cost nothing for repairs, and I find it simple and reliable in operation, and always ready to sew. Three friends of mine who use them with the new improvements are very much pleased. The one I have I would not part with.

BOOK NOTICES.

The January number of "Seribner's Monthly," has been received and contains such a variety of interesting and instructive reading, besides very many beautiful illustrations that we do not wonder that by universal consent, the magazine is called "the king of the monthlies." It is published by Seribner & Co., of New York, at $5 per year.

"Ballou's" for February, is already at hand. It gives to its readers, as it always does, such a variety of historical sketches, good stories, poetry, and fine illustrations that we wonder how any person having once seen a copy of "Ballou's Monthly," can be willing to forego the pleasure of receiving its visits regularly; particularly when it is mailed to subscribers at the low price $1.50 per year. Thomas & Talbot, Boston, are the publishers.
