A boy in Indianapolis asked his father for twenty shillings to enable him to take his girl to a dance, but the father refused, whereupon the boy took a pitchfork, piuned the old man to the side of the barn, and held him there until he

A stranger at Belfast, Me., spent much time the other day looking for his lost pocket-book, and in the twilight hour found it in his coat tail poeket. He had followed too literally St. Paul's advice in "forgetting things which are behind."

Filkins, the supposed Albany express robber, has been identified by Halpin, the express messenger, as the man who shot him. Robert A. Scott also testifies to selling him a pistol. On some points the testimony is conflicting. The examination was postponed on Monday last until Thursday morning. Halpin being too ill to attend. Inflamation having set in, his condition is critical.

A Providence widow protests in a newspaper communication against the erection of soldiers' monuments until after the paltry pension of $36, annually paid to soldiers' widows, is increased .-She thinks the erection of a few good houses, leased at a small rental, would be a nobler monument than any marble shaft.

Two California officers, taking a pair of Mexicans accused of robbery of bullion, to jail, were stopped by a gangof twenty men, who took away the prisoners and hung them 'a little at a time." to make them confess where the bollion was buried. Failing in this, they re-turned then to the officers, who safely committed them to jail.

Le A fashionable but ignorant hely, wanted a costly camel's bair shawl, but her husband bought her a cheap imitation article. On examining it, she found the name of the manufacturer on the corner, and wanted to know what that "That," said the husband, " is the name of the camel whose hair the shawl no A lad named Freis, aged eleven years, whose parents reside at Monmouth Juantion, got up in his sleep the other night, and jumping from a shed adjoining his bed-roun, to the ground, walked in the snow with nothing but his nightclothes on to the the house of a neighbor -some half a note away. The little sommanhalist was taken in and cared for, and the next day was none the worse for his midnight walk.

In Carson county, Nevada, the other day, 200 Chicamon engaged in a street light on the strength of the loss of fifty cents sustained by one of their number in a gambling saloan. The noise they made alarmed the entire white population, who rushed to the conflict, expeeting to find a large number of the Colestials dead on the field, but there was not a wound among them. Yet the noise they made was astonishing.

BOY The Sheriff of Mar-hall county, Mississippi, having on hand the disagreeable duty of hanging a man, and the man weighing over two hundred and fifty pounds, he was unable to find a rope in the entire county of sufficient phability and strength combined to do the job .-Sheriff Wright of Memphis, loaned him a rope which had done execution on several occasions, which courtesy was un-doubtedly appreciated by the culprit.

ger On the 21st inst., while the eastward bound train on the Central Pacific railway was stopping at Alta, a station near the summit of Bierra Nevada Mountains, and the passengers were at support and also the two mail agents, who had left the mail-car locked, the car was opened by false keys, and the registered letters, and a peckage of $10,000 in greenbacks, were taken, without attracting the attention of the guard, who was in the Bay Last week forty-one State prison convicts employed in the coal mines at Battle Creek, near Jasper, Tenn., marched out of the stockade as usual to commence work, provided with picks and guarded by six well-armed men. After entering the mine they suddenly turned npan the puards, knocking them over with their picks, and rushed out. One was shot dead, and forty fled in a body to the Alanama lines, thirty miles below, where they were reported going into Alabems. The whole country around the mines aroused, and a large number of citizens went in pursuit.
