HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S Compound Fluid EXTRACT CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS. Compot Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice. FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SPICK, OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS, OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, sassa, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from impudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

Irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the Prostate Gland, stone in the bladder, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption of the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc. Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is Diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood, etc. Superseding copaliba in affections for which it is used, and syphilitic affection—in these diseases used in connection with Helmbold's Rose Wash.

In many affections peculiar to ladies, the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, and complaints incident to the sex. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms.)

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPURITIES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, ETC., in all their stages, at little expense little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Alleviating Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all poisonous matter. Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage. Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu for all affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

HUMOROUS ITEMS.

The fellow who wrote "Ask me no more," was probably "full."

The chap who sung "Ah! don't mingle," takes his whisky straight.

"Are cats good to eat mother?" "Of course they are, my son—good to eat mice."

The chap who wrote to his folks to "Take me home to die," got better, and concluded to remain where he was.

The man who sang "O, breathe no more that simple air," went into the smoking car where the air was more mixed.

The chap who sighed, "Ah! could I teach the nightingale," has gone to teaching school in the country as being more likely to afford him his hash.

The fellow who sung, "Sleep on, my love, sleep on," had probably been out on a bender, and was fearful lest his "love" should awake and give him 'rats.'

The man who wrote to his love, "Am I not fondly thine own?" found her in the arms of a rival one night and concluded he wasn't.

The boy who was asked, "What do you do with your clothes when you wear them out?" replied, "I wear them home again, of course, you wouldn't have a fellow go home naked, would you?"

A female lecturer once said, "Get married, young men, and be quick about it. Don't wait for the millenium, for the girls to become angels. You would look well beside an angel, wouldn't you, you brutes?"

A family of children in Indiana, whenever a hunter invades their father's farm skirmish the fields in front of him and when he fires one of the children falls, pretending to be hit by a stray shot. Nimrod flees, and the juveniles pick up the squirrels.

"And so you have taken the teetotal pledge, have ye?" said one Irishman to another. "Indada, I have, and am not ashamed of it, either." "And did not Paul tell Timothy to take a little wine for his stomach?" "So he did; but my name is not Timothy, and there's nothing the matter with my stomach, 'bedad!'"

A lecturer undertook to explain to a village audience the word phenomenon: "Maybe you don't know what a phenomenon is. Well, I'll tell you: You have seen a cow, no doubt. Well, a cow is not a phenomenon. You have seen an apple-tree. Well, an apple-tree is not a phenomenon. But when you see the cow go up the tree tail foremost, to pick the apples, it is a phenomenon."

This was picked up on the train below Nashville the other day: "Miss Mattie I want you to talk to me rite off now I dont want no fooling about it. I am in earnest about this thing now dont you be a Frade to talk to me for they shant no body no anything about What you say to me. I want you to cum right out an tell me Whether you Love] me good nuff for a husband or not. asji rite here is the place for you my dear Love."

A gentleman in Alabama writes the "Drawer" that recently, in his town, a young man was being examined by the trustees of the township for the position of school teacher. One of these officials asked the question: "Mr. E—, do you teach that the world is round, or flat?"

"Why, sir," replied the aspirant, "some people believe one thing, and some another and I'll teach round or flat, just as the parents please."

Mr. Ferguson goes home drunk for the fortieth time, and his wife holds up her hands with vexation and indignation.

"Don't sa'er word, 'Liza (hie); don't sa'er word! I'm goin' to buy a balloon (hie), b'loon."

"What on earth are you going to buy a balloon, for, Mr. Ferguson?"

"I'll tell you (hie), 'Liza. Y'see, they've gossamany (hie), got s'many run-shops 'round the store't a fell'r (hie) I can't get home without gettin' drunk.— I can get 'way with a b'loon, you know. You can come to the store an' blow it up, then you wont have t' blow me up!"

A gentleman residing some miles from the city, according to an exchange, has been in the habit of frequently sending his waiting boy with a buggy back home, with the following message:—"Tell my wife I'm caught on that d— jury again." The boy well knew, however, that the 'jury' was nothing but a myth; intended to cover up prolonged absences. One day Joe went to the city after some necessary articles. The boy fell in with his friends, got elevated and topheavy, and pitched out of the buggy. The horse and buggy arrived home all right, but the boy did not make his appearance until the next day. With stern countenance our jurymen called the boy up and demanded why he did not come up at the proper time. "Fore God, Massa, I was cotched on de d— jury."
