The advertising receipts of the London Times have sometimes reached $125,000 in a single month.

A Norwegian woman, with twenty children, recently arrived in Milwaukee. The children were all her own.

Henry Herschell, of Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, warmed his bed into a blaze with a hot brick on Saturday night. Damage, $75, and two burned feet.

The Young Women's Christian Association of Cleveland, Ohio, keep a list and descriptive catalogue of young men who are known to visit disreputable places.

It has cost a Maine physician $13,000 for bungling in setting a boy's broken leg, and now he's almost ready to wish the boy hadn't broken it.

Some villain entered the stable of a man named Croup, near Centerville, Venango county, a few nights ago, and cut off the leg of one of the horses.

A Burlington, Vermont wood-chopper lost his life last week by running against a tree with a pipe in his mouth. The stem was driven into his throat, making a laceration which resulted fatally.

A physician named Parsons lectured in a down-east town the other night and was introduced to the audience as one of the few Parsons who preach little and practice much.

Lake Champlain at present is one unbroken sheet of ice, which extends as far as the eye can reach, this being the fourteenth time the phenomenon has been seen during the last fifty years.

A recent English writer states that, of the workers in the South African diamond fields, about five in a hundred make their expenses, while the remaining ninety-five do not.

J. S. Wisnor, a young man of twenty-five, was murdered in Titusville on Friday night. Several gashes were found on his head, face and neck, made by a knife or poignard. His pockets were rifled.

At last a cure is found for cold in the head. Dr. Poillon a French physician, says it can be cured by inhaling hartshorn. The inhalation by the nose should be seven or eight times in five minutes.

It is estimated that the cost of the present European war for sixty days would build another Pacific Railroad, and the metal in the munitions of war destroyed would yield iron enough for the rails.

The following speech is attributed to a member of the Legislature of Pennsylvania: "I know wimmin, Mr. Speaker; I say it in no disrespect; I know um; I had a heap to do with um. They're a useful class, and—yet with the best of um you may have trouble."

Mrs. Mills, widow, and keeper of a genteel boarding house in Chicago, "went for" Mr. Knapp, a Methodist minister because he had asked another lady to go with him to hear Nilsson. She assaulted him in bed with snuff and rawhide, and being sued for the assault was fined $50.

A strange innovation upon ordinary funerals was recently made at Hartford, Conn. A young woman had died, and her relations, instead of following the usual custom of shrouding and laying her in a coffin, dressed her as she had been dressed in life, and laid her on a sofa amid flowers. She lay thus for ten days, and then was buried.

On Monday of last week, the ice in the North River opposite Pokeepsie, broke up while one hundred persons were on it fishing from the edge in the clear water, and commenced to move rapidly down stream. Most of them succeeded in getting to shore, but nine of them were carried ten miles before being rescued, and were, when taken off, nearly frozen. For a little time quite a panic existed among those on shore who had friends on the ice.

Mr. Owen, of Westery, R. I., two years since purchased a pair of minks, of a species called by fur dealers and trappers the American sable for $500. He has not only got his money back, but has now 87 minks on hand, one pair of which he has refused $400 for. The sable mink is rather smaller in size and of a darker hue than New England minks. This minkery is attracting considerable attention, and doubtless the example of Mr. Owen might be followed to advantage in many localities.

Last Monday a bridal party entered a palace car at the New Jersey railroad depot, in Jersey City, and after having been seated a short time the bridegroom left the train for a few minutes only, to find on his return that he had been left behind. He hurried to the Superintendent's office and offered Mr. Jackson $100 if he would enable him to overtake the train. Mr. Jackson agreed to the proposal and ordered a special engine to follow. The anxious groom overtook his bride at Rahway, after a run of thirty minutes.

AGENTS WANTED FOR Palace and Hovel; OR, Phases of London Life.

By D. J. Kirwan, the well-known Journalist. The Very Largest Commission Paid. This book is a beautiful Octavo of 665 pages, embellished with 29 Engravings, and a finely executed map of London designed and executed expressly for this work by eminent artists. It contains a full, graphic, and truthful statement of the Rights, Secrets, and Sensations of the great Metropolis of the World. Its pictures are from real life and yet so weird and romantic that it almost challenges one's credulity. It displays in bold relief the appalling misery of the poor, and the reckless luxury of the rich. The most saleable book in market. Circulars and sample pages sent free. Address BELKNAP & BLISS, 51 Hartford, Conn.

VALUABLE Farm at Public Sale.

THE undersigned offers at public sale, a farm in Rye township, Perry county, Pa., containing 57 ACRES.

The land is the best in the neighborhood, with running water in every field, is under good fence, and has thereon erected a new Frame Dwelling House.

There is also a thrifty Young ORCHARD on the place. This land lies along two public roads—the Fishing Creek road and the Lamb's Gap road; the last named divides the land in two parts—20% on the one side and 20% on the other; on the 20% acre piece is a New Frame Dwelling House, and on the other a FRAME 22 x 28, erected for a house, with a never failing Spring of water. This land will be sold as a whole, or in two Tracts, to suit purchasers.

If not sold at private sale before the LAST OF DECEMBER, this property will be sold at public sale, at the Court House, in Bloomfield, on the FIRST THURSDAY IN FEBRUARY, 1871, at one o'clock p. m., of said day, when terms will be made known.

Persons desiring to purchase a farm will do well to examine this one before investing elsewhere, as it lies within four miles of Marysville, and the Pennsylvania Railroad—one of the best markets in the county.

Further information can be had by addressing Dr. JOHN USAV, Jenner X Roads, Somerset county, Pa.
