Children's Church Service in the court house, next Sabbath evening, at 61 o'clock, by the Sabbath School of the Presbyterian Church. Subject: "Early Seekers." Be punctual so as not to interrupt the service of the little ones.

Photographs !- We are pleased to inform our readers that Mr. Jerome Briner has erected a Photograph Gallery on Carlisle street, in this borough, where he is now prepared to take photographs. Those who desire to have good pictures should call upon him. He claims that he can take photographs which cannot be excelled this side of Philadelphia, Cumulative Voting appears to find considerable favor in the State Senate. Besides passing the bill applying that system of voting to school directors, they have passed a bill authorizing the system in the election of town councils. Should the House approve the action of the Senate, it would make quite a change in the offices of a borough when one party has a decided majority, and in our own borough would give the Democrats a chance for two members of the council.

Accident from Coal Oil -On Friday evening of last week, a daughter of Mr. John Hoffman, residing at the east end of Harrisburg, had nearly all the hair burned off her head, by the ignition of Rose oil, while filling a lamp. The flames were just extinguished in time to save the girl from being seriously burned.

None of these accidents would occur if persons would use Carson's Stellar Oil, or if using common oil, would use Perkins & House's Non-explosive Lamp.

Warning to Shoemakers.-Heretofore there has been no remedy for the suffering caused by shoemakers lying to people about when they would have a pair of boots done and thousands of people have gone down to their graves with one great sorrow preying upon their minds, that the lying shoemaker still lived. But a man in Jackson Miss., has inaugurated a new era. The Shoemaker lied to him for a year or so about a pair of boots, and he blowed the upper story of his head off. Now if this should be catching, we think we know of some shoemakers who would be in great danger. Let them take warning from this terrible example.

A Railroad in Perry County .- Mr. Josiah Espy, has had an article published in the State Journal in which he suggests to the legislature the propriety of appropriating $500,000 towards the construction of the railroad to Broad Top via Sherman's Creek. This would be a foolish waste of money for with $100,000 less, a better and shorter road to Broadtop could be built. The Duncannon Bloomfield & B. T. R. R., reaches the same point as the other route with a saving of nine miles in distance, and over a route of such easy grade that the cost of the first ten miles will be no greater than a single mile near Shermansdale on the other proposed route. This fact is worthy the consideration of the friends of

Your Duty .- If you desire an interesting paper, subscribe for it-pay in advanceread it attentively-write for it occasionally and procure all the new subscribers you can. If you have a family and wish to interest your son or daughter in reading a paper, and furnish them the means of becoming a subscriber, then you will have the double pleasure of reading the paper and hearing it read. If your neighbor borrows your paper and don't return it, by all means get him to subscribe for one of his own. If you have a brother in the church and he says he is too poor to take a country paper tell him to drift more cold water, and less "whiskey." He will thereby add much to his own comfort and lose no friends. If you have never taken a county paper you can give the publisher an agreeable surprise by forwarding your subscription by the next post.

Look out for Imposters.-We copy the following from the Boston "Congregationnlist, of Feb. 2, 1871:

We are requested by the Lamoille Association to publish the following exposure, that other denominations as well as our own may beware of impostors: One C. E. Rider, calling himself C. E. Rivers, formerly laboring as a Congregational minister in Illinois, last August, an embezzler and deserter of his wife and family, has recently been lecturing and preaching in Vermont. Here he represented that he was an unmarried man, a converted Jew; that he had just returned from London, Paris, and the Holy Land; and that he was about to publish a book of travels. He is a Jew by birth, a play actor by profession, an impostor in truth; is small, nervous, with black hair and whiskers, small, light, blue eyes; wears spectacles, shows forged credentials and a letter of dismission from an association in London. He has now left for parts unknown. Ministers and churches are warned that he is a person unworthy of confidence."

The Danville American of February 2d says: On Saturday evening a desperate character call at the residence of Mr. Isaac Amerman ordered a supper at once, and as only a daughter of Mr. A. was at home, the villian drew a revolver to enforce his demands. The lady with remarkable presence of mind, apparently complied, and in so doing slipped the chain from a savage bull dog at the back door. The dog at once sprang upon the intruder, before he had time to shoot, and seized him with a yell and the force of a lion, hurled him to the floor, and there they had it rough and tumble, through the door and out into the street, until the seoundrel was released from the dog. Torn, wounded and bleeding, the villian no doubt rose from that terrible encounter, fully satisfied with the kind of supper he got through the heroism of a brave girl and the fangs of a savage bull dog.

Dr. Scheppe's Case. Last Wednesday morning was set apart by ministers, lawyers and other citizens of Carlisle, to await on the Governor, in company with Representative Leidig, of Cumberland, and other legislators, and present sundry papers in Dr. Scheeppe's case, including some afterdiscovered evidence and a petition for pardon, on the ground mainly of ill health, signed by several thousand citizens of Cumberland, including the best people and many who once believed him guilty. Mr. Leidig waited on the Governor and informed him of the contemplated interview, when the latter said he would of course be pleased to see them, but that he would hear no more speeches in the matter, and that anything in regard to it must be communicated in writing. The result was that the supplicants for Scheeppe's pardon did not come, but the papers will be presented as soon as received.

Newport Items .- On last Thursday about one o'clock, when the wind was blowing terrific, we almost had a fire in our town. A house occupied by Mr. Sanderson, back of Mr. Wolever's residence, on second street caught fire from some unknown cause, on the roof and by the timely assistance of some men in the vicinity saved the greater part of our town.

On Friday night the 10th inst., Jones & Son Forwarding & Commission House was entered by persons who took flour, Pork, corn meal, buckwheat meal and chops to the amount of about $25. Entrance was made by breaking in a part of the tran-som when they reached down on the inside and unbolted the door. No arrests but strong suspicions rest on certain parties,

ALTOONA, Feb. 17th, 1871. Mr. Editor—A sad accident occurred here on the railroad. A man by the name of Brady, from Harrisburg, who was break-Brady, from Harrisburg, who was break-ing on a train. While making up a train ing on a train. While making up a train he was caught between the cars and was killed. There is considerable down grade, and he not being perhaps familiar with the yard or place of making up a train, was the cause—this being his first trip to this place. He leaves a wife, we understand. There is a most interesting revival of re-ligion in progress in the Lutheran church. Many have been added to the church, and Many have been added to the church, and many more are presenting themselves as seekers—from thirty to forty in an evening are coming out. Some minister from abroad is assisting the pastor, Rev. Baker. The church is crowded every night.

To-day we had snow and wind. The weather is not so very cold, however, and seems as if the snow might turn to rain vet.

Buildings are springing up rapidly, considering the season of the year. Most of the houses are of wood, and many of them small, though some fine ones are built.

The Presbyterian Chapel is rapidly approaching completion. It is a next building, about 90 x 83. It will be handsome in the interior as well as the exterior.

Church Notices.

As a result of the lecture, we expect an increase of Membership. On the ovening of the 15th Mr. H. spoke at Liverpool, to a large and attentive audience, and after the close of the meeting, initiated several persons into the order. At Marysville on the evening of the 16, he preached a Temperance sermon in connection with the revival efforts under the Pastoral charge of W. E. Detwiller. After the close of the regular religious services, Mr. H. Instituted a lodge of Good Templars, with 30 charter members, among whom are some of the influential citizens of the place, may the results of the labors of Mr. H. in the Temperance cause continue as they have beperance cause continue as they have be-

Local Briefs.

The passenger rooms at the Newport depot have been re-painted, and look as neat as a new pin. While under the charge of the gentlemanly agent, Mr. J. J. Barkley, the comfort of the passengers and those having business at that station are sure to be well eared for.

David Black, of Huntingdon, met with an accident last week while working in the planing mill at that place. He lost his thumb and fore-finger.

"In God we trust," is on the five cent pieces. It is well that we can have some one to trust, as the Government has made no provision to redeem them, and they are fast becoming a nuisance.

James Brady, a brakeman en Pennsylva-nia Railroad Company, was killed at Al-toona last week, by being caught between

A citizen of Montrose had to pay $24 the other day for purchasing a bottle of whisky for a young man of intemperate habits. A lesson of that kind is needed to some persons in this vicinity.

The stock and fixtures of the Carlisie Shoe Co, were recently sold at auction.— The business, we learn, will be continued by the purchaser.

A series of religious meetings have lately been held in the village of Milford, Juniata township, under the auspices of the Evangelical Church. The meetings were conducted by Rev. S. W. Seibert. A great deal of interest was manifested in these meetings, and seventeen persons were admitted to full membership in the Evan-

Temperance lectures will be delivered by Rev. W. C. Hendricson, at Blain on this (Tuesday) evening; at New Germantown on Wednesday evening; at Loysville on Thursday evening; at Elliottsburg on Fri-day evening; at Newport on Sunday even-ing; at Millerstown on Monday evening.

Jacob Schneider, of Hopewell township, York county, died very suddenly last week, Monday, of heart disease. He had just been thrashing, and came in, and sat down a few moments and dropped dead.

The Colored people of Harrisburg indulged in a ball last Wednesday evening. It was quite a successful affair.

On Friday last, Jacob Hoffman, of Centre twp., had his ankle knocked out of joint while hauling logs.

Digging for coal will be resumed on Loy's farm to-day, and will be continued day and night, on account of the water coming into the shaft. About $650 has been subscribed. A meeting of those who have subscribed to the stock will be held at Little Germany on Saturday afternoon next. It is hoped that all favorable to the enterprise will be present.

An Act

Granting Pensions to Officers, Soldiers, Sallors and their Widows of the War of 1812. The following are substantially its provis-

The First Section authorizes the placing on the pension roll all surviving officers, enlisted and drafted men, militia and volunteers, of the Naval or Military service of the United States, who served a period of Sixry Days in the war of 1812, and were honorably discharged. Also that other officers, personally named in any resolution of Congress, although their term of service may have been less them sixty days, shall be placed upon the pension rolls. Soldiers and others who, at any time during the late rebellion, adhered to the cause of the enemies of the government, forfeit their pensions. All applicants for pension are required to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States. The surviving vidows of all such officers and enlisted and drafted men are entitled to pensions, provided that such widows The First Section authorizes the placing of tled to pensions, provided that such widow shall have been married prior to the treety of peace which terminated the war of 1812, and SHALL NOT HAVE RE-MARKIED. (The treaty of peace was concluded on the 17th of thrung, 1815.)

The Second section provides that the Act

The Second section provides that the Act shall not apply to any person who is receiving a pension at the rate of $$ per month, nor to any person receiving a less pension than $$ per month, except for the difference between the pension received and $$ per month. This section also provides that pensions under this act shall be $$ per month, to be paid from and after the pessage of the act, and during the term of the pensioner's natural life.

The Third section provides that, before the name of any person shall be placed upon the pension rolls under the act, the proof shall be made under such rules as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and that any person who shall falsely take an oath required to be taken shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and his name stricken from the rolls. Also, that the loss of the soldier's discharge shall not depries any person of the benefit of the provisions of the act.
