HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S Compound Fluid EXTRACT CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS.

Compotent Parts—Fluid Extract Rhu-barb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS, OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear nutritious to the weak and emaciated, whether arising from impudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

Irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the Prostate Gland, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel, and various or milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption of the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc. Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

LADIES. In many affections peculiar to ladies, the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, and complaints incident to the sex. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms.)

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, ETC., in all their stages, at little expense little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all poisonous matter. Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage. Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu for all affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

HUMOROUS ITEMS.

A Western shoemaker recently received the following order: "Send me a pair of esq Toad Shooze. N. H."

A little girl was heard to wish the other day that she was a boy, so she could swear when she dropped her books in the mud.

"You want nothing, do you?" said Pat. "Bedad, an' if it's nothing ye want, ye'll find it in the jug where the whisky was."

"Boy, why did you take those shingles last Sunday?" "Because mother needed some kindling wood, and I did not want to split wood on Sunday."

An Irishman upon seeing a squirrel shot from a tree, said, "Faith and what a waste of powder. The fall itself would have killed the squirrel."

Old Moneybags says that a girl with an income of three thousand dollars a year or more is always an object of interest, because she has so much principal.

A young lady of Troy advised a gentleman friend not to take flat-irons to bed with him as they would warp his feet! The stupid fellow did not know enough to take the hint and propose.

A new leaf in the family history—Jack: "Now, I'll be papa, going to fix the furnace." Sallie: "Oh, yes! And I'll be the new nurse, and you must kiss me behind the cellar door."

Mrs. Partington was asked,— "What church do you go to?" "To any parodoxical church," said the old lady, looking over her spectacles, "where the divine word is dispensed with."

Some naughty boy in Penn Yan, the other day, ornamented an old, poor, gothic-framed horse, hitched to an awning post, with a stolen card-sign which read: "Oats wanted; inquire within."

Patrick, you fool, what makes you stare after that rabbit whin yer gun has no lock on it?" "Hush, hush, darlint, the rabbit don't know that!"

A Minnesota lady, named Hadwig Kouschkoursika, has cheerfully changed her name by marrying Mr. Hel Dambroger. It is to be hoped the man's parent's were not profane.

An unmarried friend declared to us the other day, with an expression of countenance most lugubrious, "I never cared a farthing about getting married until I attended an old bachelor's funeral!"

"Be you good?" asked a little chap of Miss Bud, his Sabbath school teacher, the other day. "Oh, no," was the becoming reply. "You ain't! Well, I know you wasn't pretty, but I always thought you was good."

A New York belle who was purchasing some gloves, told the clerk she wanted to have them of a "subdued mouse color." The clerk said they were all out of that shade, but suggested "infurated rat" as a substitute.

A traveler who has crossed the Atlantic tells a story of a storm, when the rain poured down in such torrents that the ocean rose ten inches. "There's no mistake said he; "because the captain kept a mark on the side of the vessel."

What is the difference between an auction and sea-sickness? One is the sale of effects, the other the effects of a sail. And why do physicians have a greater horror of the sea than any body else?—because they are more liable to "see sickness."

A Halifaxer at a fair, offered a young lady ten dollars for a curl from her head. To his surprise she promptly cut it off and transferred it. A friend subsequently blasted the purchaser's triumph by telling him that she made a good thing of it, as the whole wig only cost her $3.

A lady in London got the idea in her head that the devil was in her head and hung herself.

If women go to hanging themselves for a little thing like that, they are going to be mighty scarce, that's all.

A lady in Memphis, not exactly posted on the "disfranchised," was told that Mr. Smith was disfranchised, and she wanted to know how long he had "been so." On being informed that he had been so about four years, she said she didn't see how that could be, for Mrs Smith had a child only two years old.

A wag was requested by an old lady to read the newspaper for her. He took it up and read as follows: "Last night yesterday morning, about one o'clock in the afternoon, before breakfast, a hungry boy, about forty years old, bought a kip custard for a levy, and threw it through a brick wall nine feet thick, and jumping over it, broke his right ankle off above his left knee and fell into a dry mill-pond and was drowned. About forty years after that, on the same day, an old cat had nine turkey-gobblers; a high wind blew Yankee Doodle on a frying-pan and killed a sow and two dead pigs at Boston, where a deaf-and-dumb man was talking French to his Aunt Peter."

Whereupon the lady, taking a long breath, exclaimed, "Du tell!"
