An inexperienced farmer tried to make good corned beef by giving his oxen whisky.

A Mr. Wood was found dead recently in his house on Clinton street, Hudson city. The family were absent, and the cause of his death is not known.

Ladies' paper skirts, an Eastern paper says, are becoming common. They cost but fifteen cents. The paper is of great tenacity, and does not tear easily.

On the 21st inst., a boy aged 13, named Morrison Welsh, in Cincinnati, kicked a mule which was being led by a farmer, and was kicked in return by the animal, and killed.

A wolf entered a Duluth church recently, and was much affected by the services and an ounce of lead. He was converted before he went out—into a corpse.

Mr. Henry Benecke, of Chicago, left a note for the Coroner, explaining that his suicide was an act of consideration for his wife, who was "in great want of another husband."

The Cambria iron company support four night schools for the benefit of boys in their employ. Of these, two are located in Johnstown, one in Cambria borough, and another in Millville borough.

Frederic Coombs, the great grape grower in California, shot his wife on Tuesday, at his residence at Napa, and then killed himself. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause. Women are scarce in California, and Mrs. Coombs was handsome.

A lady residing in a German city, complains that the cost of living is so much increased in consequence of the war, that she has to pay 65 cents for a pair of kid gloves "with two buttons," and that a new silk bonnet costs nearly a dollar in gold.

The coal miners of St. Clair and Madison counties, Illinois, opposite St. Louis have suspended work in consequence of the reduction of wages. The operators will bring coal from other mines and sell at present prices before they will accede to the demands of the miners.

Claude Freeman, formerly railroad agent at Lexington, Ky., who absconded some months ago with a large amount of money belonging to the company by which he was employed, was arrested at Guthrie, Iowa, on Saturday, and taken to Lexington, where he will be held for trial.

While firing a salute in Mahanoy City, in honor of Washington's birthday, James Smith, David Liddle, and Edward Richel were injured by the premature discharge of a cannon. Smith's skull was fractured and an eye cut out, and it is thought he will die. The others will recover.

A Western paper says: "We reported that Mr. D. A. Dodd's wife had seven pair of twins and two odd children during ten years of married life. We were wrong. Mr. Dodd, just in our office, informs us there are eight pair of twins and three odd ones, nineteen in all—ten girls and nine boys—in fourteen years, and they are all living."

A man recently went to a revival meeting near Lyonville, Iowa, and was making fun of the penitents when he fell to the floor and was carried out in an insensible condition. A day or two afterward he attempted to renew his sport in the same place, when he was stricken with paralysis, and at last accounts he had no use of tongue or limbs.

On the 16th inst., a hurricane destroyed or damaged a majority of the buildings left by the recent fire at Helena, Arkansas. Mrs. Stewart, a widow, was fatally injured, and her little son instantly killed. The Baptist church was demolished, and a large number of other buildings either demolished or badly injured. The loss is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000.

Harrison county can boast the meanest man in Indiana. A farmer in the north part of that county has his aged father living with him, and employed at low wages. Last week the farmer's child died, and naturally enough the old man attended the funeral of his grandchild. The dutiful son, in settling with his father a few days after the funeral, doctored him for the time he had lost in attending the child's burial.

A man returning to his home at Monroe, Wis., saw through the window his wife and child lying on the floor murdered, and three men in possession of the premises, who were blacked and otherwise disguised. He stealthily entered the house, got his gun, and shot two of them, and beat the other to death with a club. One of them proved to be a neighbor; the others he did not know.

A dog was recently shut up in a church in Taunton, Mass., and after five days' close confinement was discovered and released. In that time the half-starved animal had made sad havoc with a number of hymn books, Bibles and cushions, in his vain search for food. The poor starving canine could find no meat and took to leather, the nearest to it. The estimated damage is about $100.
