A darkey, left in charge of a telegraph office in New Orleans, while the operator went to dinner, heard some one "call" over the wires, and began shouting at the instrument: "De operator isn't here." The noise ceased.

Bor A Cincinnati man kicked a black dog off his doorstep, the other night, as he supposed, and was horrified when a policeman picked it up and found it an Ethiopian baby wrapped up in a black cloth. The kick killed it.

The authorities have demanded of the Warden of Nevada State Prison the surrender of the Trano car robbers, who are now serving a term of thirty years If surrendered the robbers will be tried in the United States Circuit Court this week for murder.

Ber It is said that President Grant's colored barber exercises his vocation in two distinct spheres. He shampoos and trims whiskers in the Executive Department, and shaves the Treasury Department by drawing a salary of $1,200 a year as clerk.

A man living in Columbia, Pa. and owning the house he lives in, lately refused to bury his father, who died suddenly, but turned the body over to the Coroner to be buried as a pauper, signing his name to a paper which read as follows:—" I hereby refuse to take charge of the corpse of my father or pay for its burial."

A party serenading a newly mar-ried couple at the house of Mordecai Kelley, at Monroc, Wis., Monday evening, were fired into by Kelley, and a young man named Patlin, a brother of the bride was instantly killed and two others seriously wounded. Kelley surrendered him-self the next morning, and claims not to have known the gun was loaded.

Samuel Miller, a lumber merchant of Eddy, Sullivan county, N. Y., was married the other evening to Miss Parmenter, and after the wedding feast went with the guests to escort his her uncle to the depot, to send them off on the wedding trip, as he had no time to attend to it, and he was anxious she should have a wedding trip somehow or other.

BO A lady experiencing a choking sensation every time she put on a switch of bought hair, consulted a spiritual "medium," who set her mind at rest by telling her that the locks in question had been cut off the head of a woman that had been hanged, and that a choke would always attend to the wearing of that particular switch.

Senator Revels declined to comply with the numerous letters and telegrams to go to Mississippi and election-eer for his return to the Senate. He says he feels it to be his duty to remain away until after the contest is decided, so that it cannot be said hereafter that he tried to influence the Legislature in his own interest. The politicians are surprised and puzzled at this patriotic and unselfish spirit.

The North East (Eric county) Star tells this: Miss Clem Galusha, an estimable young lady residing near Sterrettania, recently lost her power of speech, and during the space of three weeks was unable to utter a solitary audible word. A few days since, while washing dishes, she all at once commenced to talk, to her great surprise and astonishment. No one knows the cause of her having been thus affected.

Bay It has taken the Pension Bureau thirty-three years to decide the claim of Abraham Lawrence, a soldier of the Revolution, for $750 as arrears of pension. The claim was urged in succession by the old soldier himself, the administrator of his estate, his daughter, and his grand-daughter, and has been thrown out finally on the ground that the last claimant is too remotely related to the original pensioner to recover.
