An Illinois girl fell dead while being photographed. A fire work factory at Jefferson, Ill., was blown up on the 16th inst., badly injuring four persons. A clergyman and his wife in Portland, Me., have recently suffered greatly from poisoning, caused by eating canned tomatoes. A train bearing 700 women and children of colonists who have settled in Ellsworth Kansas recently passed through Topeka. A boat, in which were four Frenchmen, was swept over Salmon falls near Russel on the 14th, and all the men drowned. The Chinese have coal mines which they have worked for hundreds of years. They prepare the coal for use by grinding or pounding it to powder and mixing it with clay. A Michigan woman has written a letter to the Legislature, advocating the restoration of capital punishment in that State, and asking to be appointed State executioner. Miss Margaret A. Hancock has recovered $15,000 from Lucien E. Squires in the Adair county (Mo.) Circuit court, the suit being for breach of promise. A Norridge Locks deacon recently coughed up a head of herds grass, which had lain on his lungs for over 36 years. It still retained its original shape, but had grown as hard as a stone. On the 14th inst., T. D. Murphy, of Newburyport, after seeing his wife seated in a car at the Boston depot, fell beneath the train in stepping from the car, and was killed. The body was shockingly mangled. Since the reward was offered for the arrest of Forester, who is charged with the murder of Nathans, in New York, no less than four innocent men have been arrested, as they answered to the description given of Forester. Buss, a kiss; rebus, kiss again; pluribus, to kiss irrespective of sex; sillybus, to kiss the hand instead of the lip; blunderbus, to kiss the wrong person, omnibus, to kiss all promiscuously; erebus, to kiss in the dark. Additional developments leave no doubt of the guilt of Mrs. Stiles, under arrest in Hartford Conn., for a recent attempt to poison two families in East Windsor by sending them poisoned candy through the mail. Mary A. Ryan, aged 35 years, of Fourth avenue, Brooklyn was found dead in bed recently. The coroner's inquest revealed the fact that the woman was utterly destitute, and had died of starvation. A six-year old daughter of Daniel Gannon of Patterson fell dead in the street on Friday. A piece of rubber from a toy balloon whistle was afterward found lodged in her windpipe. It had accidentally slipped down her throat and strangled her to death. The Japanese, instead of spending their time in listening to a long sermon march decorously to the temple wherein their priests are performing service, throw in a printed prayer and a little money, and go about their business with a satisfied conscience. While the family of Mrs. Ayerton of Brooklyn were taking tea on the 14th inst., at their residence on Union street a sneak thief entered the house and stole diamond jewelry valued at $5,000, one hundred dollars in gold coin, and two thousand shares of different lead companies' stock. Early in the morning of the 15th inst., a fire broke out in the stable belonging to the Horse Railroad Company, in Williamsburg, and when it was extinguished it was found that fifty valuable horses had been smothered by the smoke, and were dead. Four other horses in an adjoining stable were burned to death. In Galena, Ill., the other day, a judge found before him a young girl arrested for creating a disturbance in the street. Judge and prisoner gazed at each other for a moment, and then the latter said, "You know that your son caused my ruin." The man bowed his head, and when he lifted it again tears were in his eyes, and he said in a broken voice; "Let her go for my lips can never condemn her." The Oswego, N. Y., Press gives this little story; "Emma, daughter of Charles Aldrich, a respectable farmer near Texas, town of Mexico, Oswego county, eloped last evening with H. L. Myers, a young merchant of Texas. She was to have been married at 7 o'clock last evening to one Fillmore, a somewhat aged but wealthy Californian. The guests assembled and the person attended by the bride to be, was not on hand. It was said she left the house toward evening under the pretence of going out where the men were gathering sup, which was the last seen of her. Myers had formerly paid his addresses to Miss Aldrich. The wedding dresses were left behind and are without a wearer."

FOUTZ'S CELEBRATED Horse and Cattle Powders. This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines. It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Water, Heaves, Coughs, Distemper, Fevers, Founder, Loss of Appetite and Vital Energy, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse. To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, &c. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent, and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetit, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster. In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel or still the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera. DAVID E. FOUTZ, Proprietor, BALTIMORE, Md. For sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States, Canada and South America.
