LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance

Bark Notice.—The highest market price will be paid for bark delivered at the Bloomfield Tannery.

Concert.—An entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental music will be given by Prof. J. H. Kurzenkabe's music-class, (75 voices) in this borough, on Tuesday evening, May 9th, 1871.

The programme consists of quartettes, choruses, charades, etc. Tickets 25 cents, children 15 cents.

The Carlisle Barracks.—Orders have been issued to the officers in charge of the Barracks at Carlisle to remove the property and the funds to St. Louis, and the station at Carlisle will be no longer used as a sub depot for recruiting. The order directs Surgeon Wright and an ordinance Sergeant to remain and take charge of the premises.

A Good Joke.—A lady near this borough recently had a prescription prepared by a physician, and after taking several doses with much apparent benefit, was surprised to find the bottle full and that the doses taken were from a similar bottle filled with soapy water which had been left in to cleanse it. Her husband considered it too good a joke to keep.

A Fight for the Flag.—A few days since a couple of young gents of Centre twp., had a warm discussion over the propriety of raising a flag over their premises, one being in favor of so doing, while the other objected. Words soon brought on blows, and the result was what we always hope will be the case, the supporter of the star spangled banner came off victorious, and the flag still floats over the premises. Long may it wave.

Revenue Fraud.—The York Republican says: During the past week the Revenue officers of this county have made a raid on parties engaged in the manufacture of cigars, without having given bond and otherwise complied with the laws. This illicit trade was confined to the county. Among the chief offenders was a man named Sterner who was detected almost in the act by Deputy Collector Stahle and Assistant Assessor Bittinger, one day last week and about 200 pounds of leaf tobacco and several thousand unstamped cigars were seized upon his premises. Sterner who resides in Jackson township, has been furnishing cheap cigars to the inhabitants of the surrounding country for the past year. Recognizing the gravity of his offence, he has fled to parts unknown.

A Good Bill.—A bill is now before the Senate, providing that there shall be no change in school books in any part of the State for the space of three years. We hope this bill will pass as we are well aware of the trouble and expense persons are put to by the frequent changes. The system for some time past has been all wrong. Publishers of books will make very liberal offers to directors who will promise to introduce a new series of books, and further agree to furnish them to the scholars one season at extremely low rates. But all that is taken off of the price for the first season, is fully added to the price of the books the next year. We would like to see the time during which all changes are forbidden made five years instead of three. It would not only be a saving to parents in the number of books they are now compelled to buy, but would enable school books to be furnished at less cost, as larger editions could be printed with less risk.

From an Ohio Farmer.—Mr. Israel Smith, formerly a resident of this county, but now a resident of McComb, Hancock county, Ohio, sends the following record of what he raised on twenty acres. If some of our large farmers can show as good a report he would like to see it:

Table with 2 columns: Crop and Price. Includes Wheat, Buckwheat, Oats, Potatoes, Corn, Hay, Sorghum, and Acres.

The following is a list of the Collectors of State and County Taxes for 1871:

- Toboyne township—John C. W. Collins. Jackson township—Wm. Kochenderfer. Madison township—Jas. T. Dobbs. Sandy Hill—Jacob Blain. Tyrone township—Philip Genalar. Spring township—Geo. Reiber. Saville twp.—Martin Dum. Tuscarora twp.—D. S. Wommer. Juniata twp.—Samuel Tressler. Carroll twp.—John Soule. Rye twp.—Amos S. Green. Penn twp.—Sylvanus Green. Miller twp.—Joseph Bailey. Oliver twp.—Hananah Gantt. Howe twp.—Jacob Frank. Greenwood twp.—Jacob Kipp. Liverpool twp.—Wm. A. Grubb. Buffalo twp.—Samuel Bair, sen. Watts twp.—John Leedy. Landisburgh borough—James Murray. Liverpool bor.—John Nagle, sen. Millerstown bor.—David Snyder. Newport bor.—Jonathan Allen. Duncannon bor.—Nathan Vanfossen. Bloomfield bor.—William Rice. New Buffalo bor.—John Garnett.

Terrible Accident.—A most distressing accident occurred at Peach Bottom, this county on Thursday last, in a small smith shop at the Slate quarries of Jeremiah Brown. It appears that David Williams the smith, was repairing a drill for one of the workmen in the quarries when another workman brought into the shop a keg containing about ten pounds of blasting powder, which he sat down beside a keg of water, upon which the other workman was sitting. Mr. Williams intended to plunge the heated drill into the keg of water for the purpose of tempering it, but mistook the powder keg for it, and into it he plunged the iron. A terrible explosion ensued, tearing out the end of the shop, destroying the sight of both Mr. Williams eyes, and burning him so terribly all over the head and body that at last accounts his life was despaired of. The other two men in the shop whose names are Edward Lloyd and John Owens were also badly burned, though not fatally.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

Fire at Liverpool.—Yesterday morning the stables belonging to Mrs. Lutz, Samuel Derr, and Frederick Rowe, in Liverpool, were discovered to be on fire. The inflammable nature of the contents made it impossible to extinguish the flames until the buildings were entirely consumed. In Mr. Rowe's stable was a large lot of lumber, worked for flooring, three or four hundred bushels of corn, and two buggies, making his loss over three thousand dollars in excess of his insurance. Shortly after this fire was discovered, flames were seen to come from a barn belonging to Mrs. Bair, which was situated quite a distance from the other stables, and which was undoubtedly the work of incendiaries, as three men were seen coming from the barn just before the fire was discovered. Mr. Rowe had a small insurance in the Millersburg company, and Mrs. Bair had an insurance in the Perry Mutual, but to what amount we did not learn.

A Chance for Printers.—The Bedford county Press a thrifty Republican paper is offered for sale at a great bargain. The material is all new and the paper is in a prosperous condition. For further particulars address D. S. Elliot Bloody Run Pa.

For The Bloomfield Times. APRIL 29th, 1871.

Mr. Editor.—In a former communication I called attention to the fact that some persons were endeavoring to establish a "loan association" on a mutual plan. I will now redeem the promise I then made, to state what the proposed plan of operation is.—The intention is to get as many as favor the incorporation of such an association, to sign articles of agreement, pledging themselves to pay into the treasury of the society the sum of five dollars each per month, for the space of six months, and at the end of that time, if a sufficient number join the enterprise, there will be a good working cash capital. Each share-holder is then to enter into a bond, making himself responsible for the debts of the association to the amount of $500, which will be a reserve fund and a guarantee to those who deposit their money with the company. If five hundred men sign the articles of agreement, and enter into the bonds as proposed, it would give a working cash capital of $15,000 and a reserve capital of $300,000, which would make it as responsible an institution as there is in the State. This is the plan talked of, but the friends of the enterprise are ready to receive suggestions, entirely new or a modification of the proposed arrangement. CASH.

Local Briefs. We have a man in this borough who has a rat-bait so powerful that he has to take a club to keep the rats away while he sets the trap. An entertainment to be given by the young people of this borough, in aid of the Presbyterian Sunday School, promises to be a rich treat, judging by the preparations being made. Quite a revival is in progress in "The Church of God," at Landisburgh. The church is under the charge of Rev. Seilhamer. An act has passed the house authorizing the supervisors of Rye twp., to assess and collect an additional road. The village of Lykens in Dauphin county is about assuming the dignity of a borough title, a charter for that purpose having been granted. A daughter of B. T. Hoover, who resides near Ickesburg, died on the 21st ult., from drinking a small quantity of lye. She was an interesting child not yet two years old. The May term of court is now in session. Full particulars of the proceedings will be given next week.

A young man named Willis Scott was arrested in this borough on Saturday night last, for being drunk and disorderly.—Esquire Clouser fined him sixty-seven cents and costs. We hope others of the young men who are accustomed to getting drunk and creating disturbance will receive the attentions of the constable, and be formally introduced to the "Squire." It is time a stop was put to these drunken scrapes.

The chicken cholera is very destructive to chickens in this vicinity. One farmer in Centre township has lost over one hundred within the past two weeks, and others count their losses by the dozen.

Quite a large delegation from the "Masonic fraternity" went from this borough on Wednesday last to attend the funeral of Mr. Ulysses S. Keely at Millers-town.

The citizens at the upper end of town appear to be determined on a general fixing up. Nearly every house is receiving a coat of paint or a new roof, adding very much to the appearance of that portion of the borough.

A scamp having concealed himself in a clothes-press in a tavern in Hollidaysburg and upon being discovered by a girl rushed upon her, brandishing a large knife, when she screamed, and in the excitement that ensued he escaped.

Several severe frosts have visited this locality within the past ten days, no doubt doing considerable damage to the fruit.—We noticed on Tuesday morning last that the peach tree blossoms in our garden were all black, and the leaves of the trees looked as if they had been touched by fire.

Some person who was stealing corn from the premises of Mr. Chas. Wright, in Greenwood township, last week, was supplied with a gratuitous charge of shot, which was forcibly ejected into his body. We hope others who procure articles in the absence of the proper owner will get a similar dose.

Church Notices.

Presbyterian preaching in the Court-room next Sunday at 11 in the morning, and at 7 in the evening. Evening Subject: "Naaman's Pride."—II Kings, II, 12. Preaching in the M. E. Church on Sunday morning next, at 10 o'clock a. m.—Prayer meeting on Thursday evening. In the Lutheran Church, preaching on Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

THE MONTHLY NOVELLETTE FOR MAY.—The May number of "The Monthly Novlette" is issued with a splendid list of contents, such as will please readers of all classes. There are sea stories, love stories, hunting adventures, humorous tales, and one great story, a gullible encounter of the late war, written for "The Monthly Novlette," by the celebrated "M. Quid," of the Detroit, press, Michigan, the same gentleman whose express trip on a locomotive last winter caused such a sensation all through the country. Buy this book and read it and you will be pleased with it. Thomas & Talbot, 63 Congress street, Boston, are the publishers. It is for sale at all the periodicals depots in the country.
