FARM AND HOUSEHOLD ITEMS

We invite communications from all persons who are interested in matters properly belonging to this department.

The following little story, with its moral, though written for the Macon (Georgia) Telegraph, is quite too good to be enjoyed by the farmers of the South alone:

I knew a man, and he lived in Jones— Which Jones is a county of red hills and stones, And he lived pretty much by getting of loans, And his mules were nothing but skin and bones. And his hogs were flat as his corn-bread pones, And he had 'bout a thousand acres of land.

This man—and his name was also Jones— He swore he'd leave them red hills and stones, For he couldn't make nothin' but yellowish cotton,

And little of that for his fences were rotten. And what little cotton he had, that was boughten, And he couldn't get a living from the land.

And the longer he swore the madder he got, And he rose and walked to the stable lot, And he halloed to Tom to come there and hitch,

For to emigrate somewhere where the land was rich, And to quit raising cockburrs, thistles, and sich, And wasting their time on barren land.

So him and Tom they hitched up their mules, Protesting that folks were mighty big fools That 'ud stay in Georgia their lifetime out, Jest scratching a living, when all of them sought

Get places in Texas where cotton would sprout By the time you could plant it in the land.

And he drove where a man named Brown Was living, not far from the edge of town, And he bawled Brown to buy his place, And said that seeing as money was scarce, And seeing as sheriffs were hard to face, Two dollars an acre would get the land.

They closed at a dollar and fifty cents, And Jones he bought him a wagon and tents, And loaded his corn, and his women, and truck, And moved to Texas, which it took His entire pile, with the best of luck, And got him a little land.

But Brown moved out on the old Jones farm, And he rolled up his breeches and bared his arm, And he piked all the rocks from off the ground, And he rooted it up and ploughed it down, And sowed his corn and wheat in the land.

Five years glid by, and Brown one day (Who got so fat that he wouldn't weigh) Was a sitting down, sorter lazily, To the bulleest dinner you ever did see, When one of the children jumped on his knee, And says, "Yah's Jones, which you bought his land."

And there was Jones, standing out at the fence, And he hadn't no wagon, nor mules, nor tents, For he had left Texas afoot and come To Georgia to see if he couldn't get some employment, and he was looking as humble As if he had never owned any land.

But Brown he asked him in, and he set Him down to his victuals smoking hot, And when he had filled himself and the floor, Brown looked at him sharp and rove and swore That "whether a man's land was rich or poor, There was more in the man than there was in the land."

How to Bit a Colt.

All that you can possibly accomplish with the old fashioned biting bridle, that is to teach the horse to hold down his head, and to the right and to the left at the touch of the rein can be accomplished with the bridle described below, in forty minutes. If nature has not designated the horse to have stylish head and carriage, no art of man can alter it, and the old fashioned way of straining up the neck in an unnatural position, and leaving it there for hours, nine times out of ten results in a heavy headed lugger on the bits.

Take a cord and fix a loop upon the end, just like one used to go over the jaw, only big enough to go over the neck and fit down rather tight where the collar is worn; now bring your cord forward, put through the mouth from the off side, and bring back on the near side, and put through the loop around the neck; now pull upon this cord and the head will be drawn back to the breast. You are now prepared to bit, simply pull open the cord a little, and as soon as he curbs his head well, relieve him, that teaches him it is there you want it. When you want to raise his head, lift quickly on the cord and you elevate his head finely. You should not bit over five minutes at a time, and then put it away, and in forty-five minutes' time, dividing each biting into five minutes each, you can bit your colt well.

Mackerel can be boiled without soaking by washing them, and putting them in cold water, with a teaspoonful of soda, and letting them boil for a few minutes. Then pour off the water and put in sufficient cold water to boil it, omitting the soda. In a few minutes it will be done, almost surpassing the soaking process.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS

Hundreds of Thousands Bear testimony to the Wonderful Curative Effects. WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Pure Rye, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, speed and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," etc., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

$1.00 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral waters or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammation and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Violated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Head ache, Pain in the Stomach, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Itch, Pimples, Urticaria, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Itch-Head, Corns, Erysipelas, Itch, Scabs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors, and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally cut up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Venial Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TARE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.
