In a famous horse case in Binghamton, N. Y., the attorney asked a veterinary surgeon, " Have you ever made any examination in the abdominal region?" To which the witness replied, "No; all of my examinations have been in Broome county."

Ber Henry Ward Beecher once asked Park Benjamin, the poet and humorist, why he never came to Brooklyn to hear him preach. Benjamin waggishly repli-"Why, Beecher, the fact is, I have conscientious scruples against going to places of amusement on Sunday.

John Hatfield, who died a few days ago, was the first maker of lucifer matches in this country. He cut them out one by one with his jack-knife. The chemical composition necessary to insure combustion was prepared by him, the ingredients at that time being known in America only to him. This was in 1836.

A whirlwind in Broad street, Newark, recently opposite the parade ground, formed a column of dust thirty feet in diameter and several hundred feet in height. Its duration was fifteen minutes. Stones weighing several pounds were drawn up, and the street for a hundred feet was swept clean.

A stranger, observing an ordinary roller-rule on the table, took it up, and inquiring its use, was answered, " It is a rule for counting house." He turned it over and over, up and down, repeatedly, and at last, in a paroxysm of baffled curiosity, he inquired. "How in the name of wonder, do you count houses with this ?"

At a meeting of the miners of the the Lehigh Coal region, held at Mauch Chunk on the 24th instant, it was resolved to accept nothing but the basis of '69. The following places voted to resume on the operators terms: Eckley, Buck Mountain, Upper Lehigh, and Woodside.

A man recently died in Indiana from a wound received at the battle of Queenstown, Canada, in 1812. An ounce musket ball which had remained imbedded in the bones of his face over fiftyeight years, ulcerated its way into his mouth and was spit out. From this cause inflammation arose, which extending, terminated fatally.

A miner in Mich., met au untimely death not long ago, and one of his friends interested himself in obtaining subscriptions for the bereaved widow. He collected some six hundred dollars, and then, thinking it might be a good thing to marry the three days' widow, proposed, was accepted and they were made one that same evening.

Bor A foolish fellow called at the house of a neighbor who was cutting up and salting a hog he had killed the day before. The fellow stood with mouth open and hands in his pockets, looking on with a vacant stare until the job was nearly done, when he said: "Mam told me not to ask you for any pork, but if you offered me some to take it." He got the pork.

Bes A singular hitch occurred in a divorce case at Memphis, a few days ago.— When the case was called for trial it was found that the husband was but sixteen and the wife but fourteen years of age. As minors can neither sue nor be sued, the lawyers were in a quandary; but the Court came to their relief by appointing a guardian for one of the infants and a next friend for the other, after which the trial proceeded in due form.

The Bridgeport Farmer tells a remarkable story in regard to what, not many years ago, would have been consid-ered a miracle. It says that in the "old Division street graveyard, at Bridgeport there is a marble slab marking the grave of Robert Dinus Backus, who died on the 10th of February, 1834, aged 12 years, 6 months. On the reverse of the stone is a stain which represents a woman grasping a club with which she is in the act of striking. All attempts to obliterate this stain by scraping are ineffectual, and "we are told" that this is the fifth stone which has marked the spot, the pre- 1 5 ly ceding ones having been removed on account of their inveterate tendency to represent the same scene. The legend connected with this singular circumstance is that the child was killed by its mother.

CARSON'S
STELLAR OIL.

This is not the lowest priced, but being much the best is in the end by far the cheapest.

Do not fail to give it a trial, and you will use no other.

The alarming increase in the number of frightful aecidents, resulting in terrible deaths and the destruction of valuable property, caused by the indiscriminate use of oils, known under the name of petroleum, prompts us to call your spe-cial attention to an article which will, wherever USED, remove the CAUSE of such accidents.—

Carson's Stellar Oil

ILLUMINATING PURPOSES.

The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerons compounds which are sent broadcast over the country, an oil that is SAFE and BRILLIANT, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and now offers to the public, such a substitute in "CARSON'S STELLIAR OIL." It should be used by every family,—

18T, Because it is safe beyond a question. The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE, thus insuring the lives and property of those who luminator now known. 3D, Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use.

4TH, Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFETY AND BRILLIANCY will always be maintained,-tor upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now

To prevent the adulteration of this with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., &c., it is put up for family use in Five Gallon cans, sach can being sealed, and stamped with the trade-mark of the proprietor; it cannot be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. Some is genuine without the THADE MARK.

STELLAR OIL is sold only by weight, each can containing five gullons of six and a half pounds each, thus securing to every purchaser full measure. It is the duty and interest of all dealers and consumers of linuminating oil to use the STELLAR OIL only, because it dione is known to be safe and reliable.
