A reward of five hundred dollars is offered for information that shall result in the arrest of Hermann Wolter, late banker of Gorlitz, accused of forgery.

A minister at Corry, N. Y., married a couple lately. When he made the usual proclamation concerning impediments, the blushing bride replied: "Go ahead, stranger I'm all right." He went ahead.

Immense fields of corn have been planted in Illinois this season by itinerant corn-planters, who take jobs at twenty-five cents an acre. With a man, a boy, and a machine, they plant twenty acres a day.

The drought in Central Illinois was ended Saturday night and Sunday morning, 27th and 28th ult., by a copious rain. All vegetation, says a Springfield correspondent, has been fully revived, and the grain-crops are now safe beyond question.

At Cincinnati, on the 31st ult., a heavy rain storm occurred, accompanied with lightning. J. F. Forbes, a well-known citizen, was struck by lightning and killed. Much damage was done in the city from water.

The workshops of the Iowa Central Railroad have been located at Marshaltown, whose people pay $45,000 and forty acres of land adjoining the city, near the depot, for them. The whole is equivalent to about $60,000.

While attending a silver wedding at the house of the editor of the "New Covenant," in Chicago, Edward Ballard, aged fifty-seven, a highly-respected citizen, was stricken with apoplexy, and died an hour after.

A Dutchman, who was in Washington the other day, noticing a number of Indians passing along the street, exclaimed in tones of amazement: "Mein Gott! Mein Gott! de tobacco signs have all broken mit themselves loose!"

Mr. Collins, of Hartford, Connecticut, bought a ferocious watch dog. Mr. Collins came home late that night. His wife says that his trousers can't be mended. The dog's skin is for sale cheap. Mr. Collins hopes to be able to sit down in a few weeks.

Two pack peddlers from New York, calling themselves James Carlin and Francis Mulligan, quarrelled in a boarding-house in Providence, on the night of the 29th ult., and the former tried to kill the latter by stabbing him in the neck and back.

There was a wild scene at a fire in Findlay, Ohio, a few nights ago, when it became known that there were three kegs of powder in one of the burning buildings; but a young man, Henry Erb by name, rushed in, brought out two of them, and then returning, found that the fire was already charring the keg that still remained. Seizing it, nevertheless, he brought it out.

John Masker went hunting recently, and while he was descending a precipice, the hammers of his gun struck against a stone and the contents of both barrels were discharged into his leg. He was carried home, and to stop the blood, a bandage was tied around the leg below, instead of above the wound. The man bled to death in a short time.

Silas Gordon, a perambulating tinkler in New York, stole ten dollars from a lady while mending her clock. Before being sent to the penitentiary from the Special Sessions, he was called upon for an explanation.

"Wall, Judge," he drawled, "the bill was lying on the mantelpiece, and I couldn't move the clock without a touching on't.—So I kind a took it in my hand to get it out of the way, and—and I s'pose, Judge, I forgot to put it down again."

The trial of Joseph Murray, one of three men arrested on a charge of having gagged Anthony Ellis, cashier of the Central Park Savings Bank, on the 3d of April, and stealing $450 from the money drawer of the bank, took place at New York last week. The testimony conclusively proved the guilt of the prisoner, and he was sentenced to State prison, at hard labor for twenty years. The other two men, arrested on the charge of being implicated, were discharged.

In Alabama, on the 28th ult., the Rev. Wm. Bugg, a Baptist preacher of Elmore county, cut his brother-in-law, Mr. Harper James' throat, and instantly killed him. Bugg had been on trial by his brethren that day for seducing James' young sister, and had been dismissed from the church therefor. Shortly after the sentence had been pronounced, and while yet in the church, he assaulted James with the result above stated.

A man named White, who is in custody in Massachusetts on the charge of having committed a murder at Shutesbury surrendered himself to an officer on a promise of the latter to pay him half of the reward which had been offered for his apprehension. The officer persuaded him that his punishment would be very light on account of his being drunk at the time the murder was committed; but now that he finds his prospect for hanging is first rate, he does not consider the speculation so profitable as it appeared to him at the time of his surrender.

CARSON'S STELLAR OIL

This is not the lowest priced, but being much the best is in the end by far the cheapest. Do not fail to give it a trial, and you will use no other.

THE alarming increase in the number of frightful accidents, resulting in terrible deaths and the destruction of valuable property, caused by the indiscriminate use of oils, known under the name of petroleum, prompts us to call your special attention to an article which, wherever USED, remove the CAUSE of such accidents.—We allude to

Carson's Stellar Oil FOR ILLUMINATING PURPOSES.

The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerous compounds which are sent broadcast over the country, an oil that is SAFE and BRILLIANT, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and now offers to the public, such a substitute in "CARSON'S STELLAR OIL." It should be used by every family.—

1ST, Because it is safe beyond a question. The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE, thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it.

2D, Because it is the most BRILLIANT liquid illuminator now known.

3D, Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use.

4TH, Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFETY AND BRILLIANCY will always be maintained,—for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys.

To prevent the adulteration of this with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., &c., it is put up for family use in Five Gallon cans, each can being sealed, and stamped with the trade-mark of the proprietor; and it cannot be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. None is genuine without the TRADE-MARK. STELLAR OIL is sold only by weight, each can containing five gallons of six and a half pounds each, thus securing to every purchaser full measure. It is the duty and interest of all dealers and consumers of illuminating oil to use the STELLAR OIL only, because it alone is known to be safe and reliable.

All orders should be addressed to JARDEN & CO., WHOLESALE AGENTS, 136 South Front Street, Philadelphia. Ladies, Attention! Send TEN CENTS and a STAMP for a valuable secret, which every young lady should know. CHARLES V. ALLBOY, Pittsburgh, Pa.

REAL ESTATE NOTICES.

VALUABLE Farm at Private Sale.

THE undersigned offers at private sale, a farm in Rye township, Perry county, Pa., containing 57 ACRES.

The land is the best in the neighborhood, with running water in every field, is under good fence, and has thereon erected a new Frame Dwelling House.

There is also a thrifty Young ORCHARD on the place. This land lies along two public roads—the Fishing Creek road and the Lamb's Gap road; the last named divides the land in two parts—30 1/2 on the one side and 26 1/2 on the other; on the 26 1/2 acre piece is a New Frame Dwelling House, and on the other a erected for a house, with a never failing Spring of water. This land will be sold as a whole, or in two Tracts, to suit purchasers.

Persons desiring to purchase a farm will do well to examine this one before investing elsewhere, as it lies within four miles of Marysville, and the Pennsylvania Railroad—one of the best markets in the county.

Further information can be had by addressing Dr. JOHN USAW, Jenner & Road, Somerset county, Pa.
