LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance

We are informed that Bloomfield has the ague.—News.

Yes, but the person was taken with it while down by the Juniata at work and came here to get cured.

Closed.—The stores in this borough will be open to-day till 10 o'clock in the morning, after which they will be closed for the day. The Bank will not be open.

Creditable.—We are glad to learn that Capt. A. H. Martin, one of the committee to distribute the $20,000 among the Millintown sufferers, refused to take anything for his services.

Strange.—The landlord of a building in Boston, actually called on the person who rented it, the other day, and asked him what repairs he wanted made; and what makes the matter stranger, the landlord was perfectly sane. Will our landlord please make a note of this?

Wolves.—On Saturday last, Mr. Jacob Bruner of Carroll twp., informs us, that he saw two wolves cross the camp ground near his house. They passed within sixty yards of where he was standing, but unfortunately he had no gun with him. The Bloomfield Fur company will please attend to this matter.

What a Hat!—The smashed and crumpled style of hats now worn by some women, always suggest the idea that it has been set on at least twenty-four hours; then partly smoothed out. To say that the person that got up "that style," had no more "taste" than an idiot, would be a slander on that unfortunate class of people.

The Fourth of July at Landsburg.—A German friend at Landsburg sends the following description of the manner the day is to be celebrated at that place:

"I want to tell you how you are to celebrate the fourth of the independence day in this place. It is to be celebrated by effray man's int. a way to extonish himself.—Effry podies is to do so ash'pleases mit yourself, if I can. What pully dimes, you will have, don't it?"

Accidents.—The following accidents are reported from Walker twp., Juniata co., all of which cases are under the treatment of Dr. J. L. McKeehan, formerly a resident of this place:

On Monday the 19th ult., a daughter of Mr. John Crozier, had a leg broken.

On Tuesday the 20th ult., a son of widow Grady, received a fracture of the thigh.

On the following day a little son of Mr. Hubler fell and fractured his thigh.

Robbed.—We see by a Leavenworth paper that a few nights since some person entered the residence of John Weary in that place, and carried out the pants belonging to his "brother-in-law" and took what money was in the pockets. Money in the vest pocket and a valuable watch were left untouched. Mr. Jacob Wagner of this borough and Mr. Wm. Heppenstall of Wrightsville both "brothers-in-law" are there, but which one met with the loss we did not learn.

The 4th of July is to be celebrated in this borough in an imposing manner. At sunrise a few squibs are to be fired in the square, and shortly after that the breakfast bells at the different hotels will be rung. After the day has been thus ushered in, the people are to assemble in such places as may suit their convenience, and every one who has any money to spend, and feels disposed to part with it, will purchase such articles of refreshment as can be procured at the shops and bar-rooms of the place. At a suitable hour in the evening it is expected that all who have not invested their money in liquid refreshments, will retire and soberly think over the solemn teachings of the day they have celebrated.

Town Councils.—At the last election, the law was passed applying the system of cumulative voting to the election for members of borough councils. Under this law it is claimed that the minority party can always be represented. The following section of the act passed, explains the whole matter:

Local Briefs.

Spring house robberies are getting almost too frequent for comfort. A few nights since some person, who ought to be enjoying the hospitality of the deputy Sheriff, entered the spring house belonging to John Lupfer, and stole meat and other articles.

Wm. Stong of Lack twp., Juniata Co., has been committed to jail in that county for an attempt to commit an outrage on a girl 13 years old.

Miss Mattie Lukens, of Walker twp., Juniata Co. died on Monday of last week after two hours illness.

Now would be the time to take the census of this borough as the number of city drummers would give us population sufficient to warrant an application for a city charter.

The Huntingdon Journal is a valued exchange, but by some means they forgot to put the ink on the copy sent us last week.

Cumberland county is being interviewed by thieves to an extent never before known by the oldest inhabitant. The police in return are very anxious to interview the thieves.

A camp meeting will be commenced at the Red Barn camp ground in Cumberland Co., on the 2nd, of August.

A party from Cumberland county have been camping out near Gibsons rock for a few days past.

Broke Jail.—On Thursday evening last, Mr. John Charters, who was in jail charged with contempt of court, the contempt consisting in failure to pay over money as directed, took French leave.

The escape took place about 9 o'clock, during the temporary absence of the deputy Sheriff and was made by some person breaking into jail and opening the door, unless it had been left unfastened by an oversight.

This "new departure" is probably more annoying to the keeper than is that clause in the platform of his party though to the tax payers of the county it is a matter of congratulation, as they have paid Charters' board long enough.

Instead of paying a reward for his return we trust they will imprison the man who is foolish enough to bring him back, unless there is some other charge against him besides the one on which he is now held.

P. S. Since the above was in type Mr. Charters has been returned to his old quarters. While on his way towards Northumberland he was met by a gentleman who knew him, and informed the sheriff who at once started in pursuit and unfortunately succeeded in again arresting him.

Mall Troubles.—Much grumbling was heard here on Saturday night because no letter mail was received, owing as we suppose to the Post Master at Newport forgetting to put the letter pouch into the mail bag. The same mistake was made once by the former P. M., but he had spirit enough as soon as he discovered the error to bring the letters himself. Beyond Green Park however people were still worse off, as from that point they had neither papers or letters as the Germantown bag was sent to Landisburg, and the Landisburg bag went on up the valley.

A Curiosity.—Mr. Jos. Clouser of Centre twp., showed us a few days since a twig he had broken from an elder berry bush, which had a perfect representation of a snake growing from the end. So perfectly did it represent a snake that he at first thought it was one, and approached it with care, and every one to whom it was shown would at first recoil from it. It was about 8 inches long of a dark brown color and was coiled up like a snake ready to spring.

A Frightful Snake Story.—The season for snake "yarns" is at its zenith and we have one to contribute. But, unlike many others, the truth of ours is vouched for by a reliable gentleman.

One day last week at the house of a family named Ulrich, near Middle spring, our snake made its appearance. It seems that Mrs. Ulrich left her little child playing on the floor whilst she went up stairs to attend some domestic duties. After remaining there for some time she heard loud cries of laughter coming from the child and she retraced her steps to see the cause. Imagine her horror when looking in the room she saw a huge black snake wrapped around the child's body and entwined around its neck, all the while the little one laughing until the tears rolled down its cheeks. Struck with fear her piercing screams alarmed her husband working near by, who came in and evidently saved the child's life by drawing it from the folds of the snake whilst Mrs. U. loosed it with a hoe, and they were thus enabled to dispatch it. The little child was delighted with its strange companion and seemed regretful that it should be so murderously dealt with.—Valley Sentinel.

Counterfeiters Sentenced.—John Shaffer, convicted of passing counterfeit bank notes in the Lykens Valley, has been sentenced to two years imprisonment.

Elias Hoffman, who was convicted of passing counterfeit bank notes while huckstering in the neighborhood of Carlisle, was on Tuesday last sentenced to three years' imprisonment by Judge Cadwalader in Philadelphia. A motion was made to have a new trial on the ground of after discovered testimony, but the judge said the testimony of the United States made out too plain a case for any testimony to produce a different result.

Try It. Every person who is troubled with dyspepsia, debility, or the diseases consequent upon the Spring changes, should use Rohrer's Cherry Tonic Bitters. It will invigorate, restore the appetite, and generally improve the health. Try it. For sale by F. Mortimer & Co., and the stores generally throughout the United States.

The Spring flowers now begining to bloom everywhere are hardly more beautiful at than the new Spring styles at Wanamaker & Brown's.

I was getting gray didn't like it. Nature's Hair Restorative restored the color of my hair, cleaned my scalp and pleased me wonderfully.—Nothing like it in the market, nor ever was nor ever will be. See advertisement.

Mr. Bonj. Barrett at Newport was suddenly stopped and somewhat hurt by a close line catching him under the chin while running across his yard on Wednesday last.

July came in cool and rainy and many who had the good fortune to have their stoves up, put fire in them and found it very comfortable.

We received some new potatoes on Saturday from 'Squire Clouser which we think equal to any in this county. Some of them weighed half a pound each.

Jos. A. McClure Esq., has our thanks for a copy of the General Laws passed at the late session.

A few days since a land turtle was found on the farm now owned by Joseph Miller in Centre twp., which was marked "D. W. R. 1804." The farm at that date we learn was owned by D. W. Riber.

For The Bloomfield Times.

MR. EDITOR.—In your issue of June 27th, I notice an article over the signature of "Wanderer" giving a very flattering description of our village of Blain, and its surroundings.

We are certainly very proud of the spirit of enterprise manifested by our citizens as displayed by our correspondent. Our surrounding country is among the finest in the county, and our mountain scenery among the most romantic, but the knowledge of the nomenclature of our Mountains, of your correspondent, or his informant, is sadly at fault. Instead of the "Blue Tuscarora" bounding us on the north, we have the famous old Conococheague. I have inquired if the two mountains ever were known to exchange places, (thinking perhaps "Wanderer" was visiting us during an exchange,) but even the "oldest inhabitant" has no recollection of the occurrence, but it is generally believed, that they are and have been for some time past in their proper locations. I know of no spot in our village from which, looking north, the "Blue Tuscarora" can be seen, unless through a perspective glass of tremendous power. As to the "three churches and their parsonages, I would say that I know of but two parsonages in the village, although our three churches represent four denominations, unless we credit the brick house in the field east of this, to one of the delinquent churches. And I have no doubt the mercantile appraiser for 1871, will be pleased to note the amount of business doing in our stores, as money is greatly needed by the county for building purposes. Of the success of our Academy we are justly proud, and if "Wanderer" had inquired of the Principal he would have been correctly informed, as to the names of our mountains, as the Geography of the Co., is taught in his school, which certainly is very commendable. "All the shops, offices, and other establishments," together with the tannery are doing a business which ought to command better facilities for transportation than we now possess, and I would ask all interested, why don't we exert more energy, towards building the railroad, which, when completed, would give our village an impetus greater than any other project, and which would properly develop our latent resources.

The load of bark was truly a mammoth of its kind, but I thought as the load moved along the street, that as it was hauled only for brag, and as there was no money value involved, (except for the stripping, which could be arranged in the shape of a bonus to the strippers,) it might as easily have made five or eight cords more, and the mules have hauled it as easily. Mr. Crownover is certainly among one best and quietest teamsters, but when, for some cause the load stopped in the stream near the tannery, I feared he would lose his laurel but by the application of a little muscle to the rear and sides of the wagon, he came of O. K. thus saving the reputation of the teamster and the team. But the weight? "over thirteen tons," I would prefer to see it taken from the beam of a Fairbanks.

Long may we behave. CITIZEN.
