Miscellaneous News Items.

An Indiana Co., court room was recently enlivened by sprinkling Scotch snuff on the mustache of a sleeping lawyer.

A distructive fire occurred, in Bloomsburg on the 5th inst. Four buildings with most of their contents were con-assessed for that day, it being a National holiday.

Benjamin J. Lummis, a resident of South Chester, was killed by lightning on the 27th ult. The bolt entered the back part of the head and passed down his back, tearing his clothes and boots in pieces.

配置 A county treasury in Iowa, whose safe was broken into and robbed a few days ago, gives notice that "he will have the safe lathed and plastered again in a few days, and it will be as good as ever it was,

Near Myerstown, Pa., a few days since, a little child of Mrs. Shock, while walking in a field in front of a reaper, had both of its legs cut off and died in a few minutes. The driver did not see the child.

tw On June 26, in Bradford, New Hampshier, a man aged fifty years committed suicide while riding in his wagon. He took the hames strap from the harness, tied it around the wheel and his throat and jumped Monday, May 15th, 1871. from his wagon, breaking his neck.

At Newburyport a few days since an embankment, thirty feet high, suddenly caved in, burying eleven men beneath an immense mass of earth. Eight of them were soon rescued, but little injured. Two others were dead when reached, and a third badly injured.

**Martin Darcy was sentenced last week to 90 days' imprisonment by the Hudson (N. J.) County Court for kissing the wife of a Mr. Williams. She was walking on the street in Jersey City leaning on her husband's arm when Darcy seized her by the arm and kissed her, before either she or her husband could prevent it.

237 Methodist preachers are proverbially facetious. A day or two since, in the course of the trial of Dr. Lanahan before the Book Committee of the Methodists Church, the Rev. Mr, Moore made the statement that "a Methodist preacher had been hung, and more ought to be:" whereupon a good brother promptly asked, "which Moore?"

(2) Looney a notorious prize fighter and desperado, was shot dead by some unknown person, at Erie, Colorado, on Saturday of last week. He had entered a saloon, and was threatening two other persons with a large knife and revolver, when a bullet came whizzing through the window and struck him down.

A singular fire occurred in East Lyme the other day. Some new milk cans were placed near a building to dry in the hot sun. The burning rays were concentrated to a focus, and the clapboards of the building set on fire therefrom. This is rather remarkable, but true.

TT A young man in Maury, Tenn., went to bed leaving a burning candle and a pistol on his table. The dripping sperm ignited the table, this igniting the pistol, the barrels began to explode, and when the young man awoke he was nearly burned, smothered and shot to death. His pillow received the balls and saved his head.

A Gloncester young lady was about throwing away a withered boquet lately, when she discovered in it a note containing an offer of marriage from a bashful but really exemplary young man of her nequaintance. There will be a wedding soon. The moral is that young ladies should always look at their boquets before throwing them away.

13" A young and inexperienced oil operator, who commenced to talk oil and put down wells near Rouseville, was asked by his boss driller before commencing work, "what kind of a well he wanted to put down," meaning with large casing or small. "Well," replied the old yet, "I guess you,d better sock down a hundred barrel well: that's as high as they run now, ain't it?"

12 A gentleman asked a lady, "How did you get along, when abroad, to make yourself understood ?" "Oh, my dear sir," replied she, with quite a French air, "we had an interrupter with us." The same lady, having arranged some statues in an adjoining room, requested the same gentleman to step into the next "apartment and see her antics." He went.

ter" A farmer named Watt Carr, residing near Hamilton, Ohio, while conversing with some friends on the stoop of his house concerning the manner in which Mr. Vallandingham shot himself, attempted to illustrate it with a loaded pistol, and succeeded in the illustration precisely as Mr. Vallandingham did. He fell instantly, and died in a few hours.

IT In Washington on Sunday a week a white rowdy deliberately kicked over a baby carriage containing a negro child. The baby was thrown out and its head badly cut. The next day the rowdy was taken up before Judge Snell, but to the astonishment of everybody he was discharged, and the servant who had the child in charge was fined $3 for swearing when the carriage was kicked over.
