FARM AND HOUSEHOLD ITEMS

Color of Horses.

A WRITER of the Country Gentleman says: The dark chestnut and the dark brown, so far as my experience goes, they and the bloody bay, are more exempt from disease than any other color, if we except the dun, or, as it is erroneously called the cream, which is much objected to. Dappled or dark greys are subject to fungus excrescences, commonly called warts. Black horses are, according to my experience, more subject to affections of the eyes than any other color; also, in the feet they are, as a rule, faulty and though, pretty, are not of a vigorous, rugged constitution. What horseman does not, of his own experience, know what the different shades of the sorrel are subject to? They are, as a rule, the most skittish. Who, among experienced good horsemen, does not know of all the balky horses, he has known at least more than half were light sorrels, or sorrel of some shade? The most vicious of all horses are to be found among the sorrels. For intelligence, for general usefulness, for beauty and for all purposes for which the horse may be required, the above three colors (dark chestnut, dark brown and bay) will fill the bill. Let no person for a moment understand me to affirm that there are no good, ye, very good horses of all and every shade of color—but I do wish to be understood to mean this: in breeding, breed always from the best, for it costs no more in any sense. The white horse is usually of good constitution and docile, the spotted horse is very hardy, but by most persons objected to on account of color only. As to size, black horses are, perhaps, the largest all over the world, excepting our American Black Hawk; chestnut, brown and bay are among the largest; some greys are large, but not as a rule.

To Banish Fleas and Lice.

Pennyroyal, a common weed in pastures and meadows, is very offensive to fleas, flies, lice and mosquitoes. To use it advantageously, take lard, and rub or grind it with a muller on a smooth flat stone, slate or piece of marble, with the dried or green plant-leaves, stems, and blossoms, until well mixed. Let it stand twenty-four hours, melt at a low heat, and strain. With this, anoint the ears and neck of an animal, or the perches and nests of poultry which may be infested. A small quantity may be rubbed under the wings of a hen with a brood of young chickens. A few drops of the oil, rubbed on the face, neck and hands, will keep off mosquitoes, however thick they may be. A good night's rest may be secured in the worst infested woods or swamps where these insects or black flies do most abound, by the use of this mixture. Keep it out of the eyes, as its presence there is not agreeable.—Hearth and Home.

Kindness to Horses.

The horse can be reclaimed from many vicious habits by the laws of kindness. When George M. Patchen was in the zenith of his glory, and matched with the queen of trotters, Flora Temple, they changed to change grooms. This was disgusting to the old hero of stallions.—He fought the new-comer until they were forced to restore the old groom. When his old, cherished groom, who had slept in the stable for years, returned, the horse resumed his former quietude, and trotted that season some of his most celebrated races.

Ducks in a New Role.

Ducks are said to do good service in exterminating the potato bug. A gentleman of Piqua, Ohio, put a pair of Muscovy into his potato patch, which was literally swarming with bugs. The ducks ate the bugs with such avidity that the latter were soon exterminated, and the patch has not since been troubled with them. The ducks did not appear to feel any ill effects from eating the bugs, and were not very slow in "taking in" all they could discover.

The acid of the cranberry is so decidedly beneficial in all bilious affections, by its stimulating effects upon the liver, the attention to its culture should be encouraged. One acre of land, suitably prepared, will yield two hundred and forty dollars worth of cranberries.—The cranberry is a beautiful evergreen and grows thrifty. It can be kept all winter, and may be so trained to grow from flower pots as to be beautifully ornamental to the parlor and dining-room through all seasons of the year.

The peach was originally a poisonous almond. Its fleshy parts were used for poison arrows, and the fruit was for this purpose introduced into Persia. The transplantation and cultivation, however, not only removed its poisonous qualities, but produced the delicious fruit we now enjoy.

CONSUMPTION. ITS CURS AND ITS PREVENTIVE.

By J. R. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. It is nearly impossible to count the number of friends who, sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted

DR. JOSEPH W. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT, and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen. Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful action, and is self-sustaining, self-convincing.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by Hygienic and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfeigned, all philosophy rejecting no arguments is self-convincing, self-convincing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons, which the cloud of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally deranged liver. With these conditions the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbid action of the liver. Here then comes the crux of the matter, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of CONSUMPTION. The Mandrake Pills—the Podophyllum Tincture. They possess all the blood-purifying, alterative properties of the most powerful medicine. "LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous discharges in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It resumes from its torpidity. The morbid action of the liver is now being set to rest that he is getting, at last.

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD. The Sea-weed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and purifies the blood. The circulation is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is entered upon in earnest. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

It comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an individual, falls to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature can no longer be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of a healthy secretion, it is expectorated, and in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, after the weary and painful struggle, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST. The second thing is, the patient must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent the lungs from being diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure will not be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased; they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and so fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patient must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the greatest aid to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time, my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of, and obtained the preparation which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

"As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains, and night-sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could eat and sleep too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery; I added the Doctor," then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their Office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them: First create appetite, then increase the strength, and finally the cure is effected. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough ceases, the night-sweats are abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and sea-weed Tonic, $5 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 50 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Pure Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refine Liqueurs doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Head ache, Pain in the Shoulders, Congestions, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Fustulas, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurvy, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in each case will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Clear the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.
