A Memphis belle challenged a man to marry. He gallantly accepted, and in twenty minutes there was a wedding, and in twenty days a divorce.

Three boys were drowned in Philadelphia, on Tuesday last. They had gone in to bathe in an old brick yard pond in the edge of the city.

A Chicago youth receives from his lady love three letters daily, averaging twelve pages each. He thinks of starting a paper mill.

J. C. Purviance, of McLean county Ill., has sold 2,000 bushels of corn, to be delivered in the fall, at twenty eight cents a bushel.

The convicts in the penitentiary at Topeka, Kansas, were allowed a holiday and a good dinner on the Fourth. Two of the judges were present and made speeches.

The horn of a Patagonian ox has been forwarded to Baltimore. It is sixty-five inches long, seventeen inches in circumference at the base, and will hold seven quarts.

In a town in Ohio, not long ago, the women went in bands of two or three, with their knitting and sewing, into the drapery shops of the place, and spent the whole day with their work.

A singular charge was brought at Springfield L. I., against 2 young men and 2 young women. They were charged with playing a game of cards in church during service. The justice before whom the case was brought reserved his decision till he could look up the law on the subject.

On the 6th inst., during the storm in Nebraska a train on the Fremont and Blair railroad was lifted from the track, and was blown twenty feet from the rails. An infant was killed, the mail agent was fatally wounded, and fifteen other persons were more or less hurt.

On Friday last Wm. Switzer, aged ten years, hung himself near the mouth of Indian creek, Floyd county Va. A little girl aged six years, was with him at the time, and it is thought he was trying to frighten her and accidentally lost his footing. His neck was broken by the fall.

A terrific storm occurred on the 18th, in Greenfield and Springfield townships, Ohio, destroying the crop to a great extent uprooting fruit and forest trees, and unroofing and blowing down several houses and barns. The residence of Harlan Simmons, Esq., one of the finest places in the State, was literally torn to pieces. Several persons were injured.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil tells of a marriage which took place in that city, a few days since, between B. T. Royal, aged sixty-five, and Miss Annie Field, aged eighteen. The parties met on the cars this side of Salt Lake, and forming an attachment for each other, got married at Council Bluffs. Both were bound for the same point in Virginia.

While the Rev. T. A. Sampson, colored, of Pine Bluff, Ark., was addressing his flock, Sunday week, he was struck dead by a flash of lightning. His funeral occurred on Tuesday, and while his remains were being carried to the grave another flash of lightning struck his coffin, tearing it to splinters and leaving it a ghastly sight. He was then buried before any more lightning struck him.

One of the temporary inmates of the county jail, in Chicago, after smoking his cigar, the other night, with the comfort of a good conscience affords, quietly threw the burning stub into the straw under his bed and retired. It was not long before the gentlemanly tenants thought they felt something hot, and jumping up found their snug quarters in flames. With outside assistance their valuable lives were saved.

One thousand corpses, partially burned with petroleum, to prevent infection were buried in the Champ de Mars, Paris. The Liberte describes petroleum as insufficient, and suggests utter destruction by quicklime, not only as a sanitary measure, but to reduce to dishonored dust the remains of criminals, and leave future revolutionists no possibility of giving an ovation to their bones.

A most terrible storm recently occurred in Iowa. Further particulars show that it was the most severe that ever happened. At Long Tree twelve houses were demolished, and others unroofed. The depot water-tank and windmill are almost a total wreck. Mr. Philips was picked up by the wind and dashed to the ground with such violence as to kill him instantly. His family were all more or less injured, but no others were reported seriously hurt. Half stones were picked up ranging in size from that of an egg to twelve inches.

A newly-fledged Philadelphia doctor recently settled in Havana, Ill., and the first case he had was a boy, who while shelling popcorn, got a kernel in his windpipe. The doctor examined the case carefully looked at the patient's tongue and then told the father of the boy to build up a hot fire. When that was done the doctor told them to take the boy and hold him over the fire until the kernel got hot enough to "pop out." The old man went up stairs and got his shot gun, but while he was loading it the doctor escaped!

ROSADALIS

THE INGREDIENTS THAT COMPOSE ROSADALIS are published on every package, therefore it is not a secret preparation, consequently PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE IT. It is a certain cure for Scrofula, Syphilis in all its forms, Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint and all diseases of the Blood.
