A French barber's sign reads thus : "To-morrow the public will be shaved gratuitously." Of course to-morrow never comes.

1 Some one, describing a bad dinner to which he had been invited, said that "the meat was cold, the wine was hot, and everything was sour but the vinegar.

137 No clue has been obtained to the identity of the young woman who was ruthlessly wounded by a party of brutal rustica in Baltimore county, Md., a few weeks ago.

137 A Connecticut farmer sprinkles his currant bushes with whiskey; the worms get drunk, drop off, and either break their necks or cripple themselves so that life is a burden

137" A student who was asked at a college examination "If a man should come to you to get you to survey a lot of land what would you do ?" replied, after some consideration, "I should advise him to get somebody else."

A set of paper car-wheels on one of the Pullman cars running to Jersey City have run over 160,000 miles of track, and worn out entirely one set of steel tires, which have been replaced. The ordinary wheels will only run 60,000 miles.

137" A gentleman living in Tionesta was recently put through the honeymoon by a swarm of bees that took his nose for a patent hive, and swarmed up the flues. He finally hived the insects, but his proboscis would not fit in a quart cup for a week after the swarming.

Cor On Sunday, both rails on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad were moved seven and a half inches towards the centre of the track, for a distance of three hundred and forty miles, in seven hours! Something wonderful, indeed. Thus the wide guage roads are passing away.

Five horses were recently killed by lightning near Jackson, Tenn. They had all gathered under a sugar tree during a storm. When found they were all lying together, but it could not be found that the lightning had struck the tree.

137" A Kentucky congregation was somewhat upheaved on a recent Sunday by the sudden apparition of a negro closely followed by a constable. The officer fired three shots at the fugitive, and the congregation hurriedly departed through the windows without the formality of a benediction.

(37 Quite an amusing episode occurred in Bangor on Tuesday, while the Odd Fellows procession was moving up State street. A huge goat ran out and would have joined the line, had it not been for the strenuous efforts of some of the bystanders. The goat did not escape from Odd Fellows Hall.

137" A Maryland paper says that since the establishment of a baptist church in that neighborhood the negroes refuse to eat fish taken from the stream in which the converts are baptized, for fear the evil spirits, which they suppose to be removed from the baptized persons, have entered into the fish and thereby possessed them.

13 On Tuesday afternoon two laborers on the Southern Central railroad, in the viclnity of Weedsport, became involved in a quarrel, when one of them, Michael Burke, struck the other, Michael Cologan, over the head with a spade, killing him instantly. The murderer fled and at counts ha not been arrested, though officers were in quick pursuit.

137" Mr. Geo. Campbell, a Canadian farmer, of Thorndale, was murdered on the 15th ult., by two robbers, who afterwards ransacked the house for money, but obtained only ten cents.

Several persons have been arrested for the crime, but more recent developments point to his wife as being concerned in the affair. She has been arrested and is now in jail waiting an examination.

LT A Haverhill, Massachusetts, man, who lately lost his pocket book with $90 in it, has to console himself with this anonymous note from the finder : "I am a poor man and my health is poor, and it seems to me that you lost that money to benefit me. I send you back $4 and the change. You are rich and profess to be a christian. I claim to belong to the same family. If the Lord blesses me, I will repay you if I can ; if not, you must look to the Lord for it."

13" Almost every journal in the country has republished the item about a man at Findley, Ohio, who bravely rushed into a burning grocery and brought out three kegs of gunpowder, the explosion of which would have destroyed much property. It looked like a heroic deed, and was so con sidered ; but, alas ! there is another side to the story. It is now assorted that he rushed. into the flames through mistake. Some one told him that three kegs of brandy were being destroyed.

139" In Lancaster, Ohio, the people engaged in the last celebration of our nation's independence were fortunate in the engagement of a colored chaplain who graduated from Oberlin College, and was progressive in his ideas, as may be judged from the concluding prayer which he vented on the occasion of a mixed assemblage of patriotic celebrants : "I pray the Lord I may live to see the day when the colored man may forget his prejudice so far as to be willing to receive all other races as his equals."
