LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS
Are $1.25 a Year in Advance.

Court is now in session. A full report of the proceedings will be published next week.

TAKE NOTICE.—The subscription price of THE TIMES is now One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents per year.

Those whose subscription have not yet expired, will of course continue to receive their paper for the balance of the time for which they have paid, without any extra charge.

Justice to ourselves, compels either this increase in price, or a reduction of the reading matter, by inserting many more advertisements.

School Director.—At the last election Mr. Thomas Sutch and Dr. John G. Shatto received a tie vote for school director in this borough. As they both declined to comply with the law which says that in the event of "a tie" the parties shall draw cuts for the office, the board have elected Lewis Potter Esq., to fill the vacancy.

When you hear a man depreciating the town or locality in which he lives, ask him what he has done to build up the place or make the people more prosperous. Ten to one, he has never expended a single cent for any public enterprise, or even to improve his own property or bring a farthing of trade to the place.

Life Insurance.—Mr. I. R. Wensel, of Duncannon, is now representing the New York Life Insurance Co., an organization said to be in a most prosperous condition. It is a very old company, having been organized 27 years. Their assets at the present time are twenty-seven millions of dollars.

How Many!—An old woman sent her daughter to sell a basket of apples. At the first place she sold one half and half an apple over; at the second place she sold half the remainder and half an apple over, and at the third place she sold the half of what she still had, and one half an apple over, and she had none left and none out in making the sales. Now who can tell how many apples she had when she started?

Barn Burned.—The large barn belonging to John Patterson, at Peru, Juniata county, was destroyed by the torch of the incendiary, on the night of Thursday a week, together with about twenty tons of hay, twenty acres of wheat and eighteen acres of oats. Mr. Patterson had just finished hauling in oats that evening. The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock. The barn was insured in the Perry County Mutual for $1200.—Democrat & Register.

Another.—On Friday evening 28th ult., the barn of Mr. John Woodward, above Johnstown, in the same county, was struck by lightning. It was filled with grain and hay, all of which was destroyed.

Horse Stolen.—On Sunday of last week a valuable horse belonging to McElvaine & Son, at the Cove, was stolen from the pasture. Early on Monday morning, despatches were sent from Duncannon to various points, where it was thought the thief might go, offering a reward of $200 for the recovery of the horse and arrest of the thief. About noon on the same day, word was received from Carlisle that the man had been arrested at that place, by Deputy Sheriff Goodyear, and the horse recovered, and that the thief was in jail awaiting the arrival of the officers to bring him to Perry county. On Saturday, Sheriff Rinehart went after the prisoner and on Sunday morning placed him in jail in this borough. The thief was a man named Wm. Lynch.

Death in a Lime Kiln.—An unfortunate accident, resulting in the death of a father and son, occurred on Thursday morning a week, at Buffalo creek, about four miles from Lewisburg, Union county. It appears that Joseph and John Gossler were engaged at work on the draw lime-kiln owned by them, when the son, John, entered the plane to remedy some defect. He soon experienced a sense of suffocation, and his father went to his assistance. The latter also met the same fate, and before they were rescued both were dead, having been suffocated. Mr. John Gossler was a brother-in-law to S. S. Barrett, of this city, from whom we learn the above facts. The funeral of the deceased took place on Saturday, and was very largely attended, both gentlemen being widely known and highly esteemed.—Harrisburg State Journal.

Robbery.—A robbery was committed in Perryville on the evening of Sunday the 30th ult., between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock. The facts are as follows:

Mr. Henry Ebberts and wife after putting their four children to bed, went to church and in their absence some scoundrel unlocked the door in the upper part of the house went down into the basement and between the ceiling and floor secured a box containing $140 or $150 in money and promissory notes to the amount of $800 together with deeds Tax orders &c. in the whole amounting to near $2000. The latter will be of small account to the thief, and Mr. Ebberts thinks as the notes are on honest men his loss will not be so great in the end. Mr. E. is a hard working honest man and what he has of this 'world's goods' he earned by the sweat of his brow. The thief is undoubtedly not a stranger in the place. Mr. E. has some grounds for suspicion as to who committed the act and an arrest may be looked for soon.

"The Blue Juniata."—The Philadelphia "Evening Star" thus speaks of the Juniata. Most of those who have heard or read of the Juniata river have been led to regard it as a stream whose azure waters were sufficiently beautiful to inspire the poet. But this is a mistake, especially on the main branch. The waters of this river, in consequence of the dams erected to supply the Pennsylvania Canal, have become sluggish, and absolutely of offensive smell, and the color is a dirty green.

This change in the water has taken place within the last two years, and it has become not merely a subject of general remark, but of serious apprehension on the part of those who reside along its banks. Thus far, no perceptible change has taken place in the healthfulness of the section of country through which it passes, but fears are entertained that there will be a return of the chills and fevers, which some twenty years ago prevailed so extensively along its margin.

An Incident of the Great Hall Storm.—The Millonian (Northumberland Co.) relates the following: A Mr. Grange resides a short distance this side of Brass' tavern, and right in the centre of the district most devastated by the storm. On the fatal Sunday his wife and all the family except himself had gone over to the Exchange leaving him alone in the house, which stands on a side hill. Across a little gully from his house is the house of a neighbor, who had also gone away with his family, leaving only a little girl at home. When Mr. Grange saw the storm coming he called out to the little girl to come over to his house and stay until the storm had passed. She replied that she was not afraid, and a moment after the storm burst upon them in all its fury. The huge stones came through the old roof of Mr. Grange's house as though it had been paper, and soon every room was flooded with rain, while the windows were broken through and rain and hail fairly blinded, and confused the lone occupant. In his fright and confusion he started to run out of the door, but the pelting hail drove him back, and he waited for the cessation of the storm in a state bordering on insanity. All at once a huge wall of hail and water which had been dammed up on the hill above the house, by a smoke house and other outbuildings, broke from its bounds and came down upon the building to force the structure from its foundations. Fortunately, the cellar door gave way, and the huge mass found a place of deposit. The cellar was filled to the height of a flour barrel, and after the storm it was estimated there were eighty bushels of hail stones in the deposit!

Duncannon Items.—Our correspondent from Duncannon sends the following:—The horse stolen from Wm. McElwain at the Cove Forge, on Sunday night, July 30th, was found at Carlisle, on Monday, and the thief, William Lynch, of Duncannon, lodged in jail, at that place.

Cyrus H. Hoehlander, Esq., of Duncannon, left for St. Louis on the 4th inst., to attend the National Labor Congress, to be held in that city, commencing on the 7th inst. Mr. H. represents Union No. 14, recently organized at Duncannon.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—Shortly before noon on Saturday the report reached us that a man was lying at the depot with both legs cut off by the cars. On going there, one of the most horrible sights was presented that ever met my view. On the floor in the gents' waiting room, in a large pool of blood, lay a young man named William Morris, of Liverpool, Pa. [Another correspondent gives the name as Morris Wallace.—Ed.] His right leg from the knee down, was mangled in the most horrible manner; his left foot was completely crushed off at the ankle. Dr. Warner, of this borough, was in attendance, giving all possible relief to the suffering man, while telegrams were sent to his friends in Liverpool, and for Dr. Rutherford, of Harrisburg, but the young man will doubtless die from loss of blood before either reaches him. The accident occurred by his attempting to get on a passing freight train to go to Harrisburg at 11 o'clock.

Dead.—The young man spoken of above, whose name is Morris Wallace, died on Saturday afternoon, while his leg was being amputated.

Two Young Ladies of Reading, Mass., members of the Bethesda Congregational Church in that place, being grieved on account of the debt of $4,500 which had been afflicting the church for five years, rose up and went at it with a subscription paper. They divided it into shares of ten dollars each, and visited first the young women, then the young men, then their older sisters and brethren; and by dint of much prayer and perseverance they have succeeded in wiping it all out. Here is an example worthy of imitation.

Humers Rheumatic Relief is a liniment which is remarkable for its healing properties and is good for man or beast. Having once tried it, no family or horseman will be without a bottle on hand. For sale by F. Mortimer & Co., and various stores throughout the county.

Sunday School Convention.—Mr. Editor—I send you the following letter which came to me through your notice of the proposed Sunday school convention. I send it to show the interest taken in this subject, even at a distance. Enclosed was a copy of the constitution used by the Western County Convention, to which the brother belongs. It is substantially the same as that published by brother Herring, in the other papers over his name. I understand a convention has been called at Loysville, and provision made therefor, and I would simply say that my experience elsewhere is that most Sabbath schools will fail to send, unless written to individually.

J. EDGAR.
SHELBY, Ohio, June 23, 1871.
Dear brother—I noticed your letter of the 17th inst., in the "Bloomfield Times" of the 18th, entitled "Sunday School Convention." Pardon me, a stranger, having never met on earth, but trust we may in Heaven. May God richly bless your efforts, and may you all earnestly wish for that in which you are 15 years behind this State. We are now organizing every twp. See the enclosed. Your friend, and one of Perry's sons.
S. W. BILLOW.

BLAIN, August, 5th, 1871.
Call for a Sabbath School Convention.—Mr. Editor—Inasmuch as a number of schools throughout the county have reported favorable to a convention, I therefore, by request, call for a convention to meet in Loysville, on Thursday, the 24th of August, at 10 o'clock a. m. All persons desiring entertainment during the convention will please notify Rev. D. Bell, Loysville, Perry County, Pa. Entertainment will be provided for several hundred delegates. Let there be a general turnout of Sunday School workers.

The Happy Family.—On last Friday, the 28th inst., according to arrangement, the children, grand children and great grand children of our esteemed friend Jacob Reisinger, Sr., met in a grove near Ikesburg, and formed the Reisinger family Reunion. The morning was exceedingly fair, and early in the day groups of men, women and children, could be seen wending their way to Grand Pap's party. Ten o'clock was the time fixed for commencing the morning exercises. Ninety members of this family were present at this pleasant occasion, only two of the relationship being absent. Revs. Orande, Herring and Sechrist were present and made very appropriate remarks, the happy family singing at times beautiful pieces selected from popular music books. When the clergyman had finished their remarks the time for dinner had arrived. The relation's sat at the table according to age, in that way families were not separated. It was certainly a beautiful sight to see old and young sitting at the common table which was handsomely filled with the best the land can afford. The afternoon was devoted to social enjoyment. Grandfathers, aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces and cousins, were promenading through the delightful grove in every direction. All seeming highly pleased with the occasion. Certainly this day will long be remembered by all who witnessed this happy time.

The President Judgeship.—ANOTHER LETTER FROM JIMMY HEFFELFINGER.

DEAR SIR.—I am greatly pleased. In my former communication I showed that by "prescriptive right" Carlisle of Cumberland was entitled to the Judgeship, and whatever doubt I then entertained as to the correctness of my legal views, my mind is now at rest, the principles of law there stated having evidently met the full concurrence of the legal fraternity of that place as shown by the appearance of two more candidates for the Judgeship, making in all four from the Borough of Carlisle. This is as it should be, and it is consoling to know that the members of the bar of that place are sensible of their ancient rights. I have heard of a western family so numerous that the children could not have the measles all at one time there not being a sufficient supply to go round, and this unfortunate contingency seems threatening the Judicial family of old "Mother Cumberland"—the Judgeships went go round. Nevertheless the counties of Perry and Juniata have great occasion for thankfulness seeing that nothing short of a legal patience can extinguish these numerous lights of jurisprudence—so willing to shine for the glory of the district, giving the assurance of continued Judicial prosperity. Let not the people of these two counties show their want of appreciation of the high honor extended them, by neglecting the opportunity of voting for these self sacrificing gentlemen who are ready to raise the Judicial standard in your midst at the insignificant salary of Five Thousand Dollars per annum. The Jews after being entrusted with the Oracles of God threw away their opportunity but I have no fear that the people of Perry and Juniata will fail to avail themselves of these legal treasures so cheaply tendered—so modestly urged, and so reasonably too, on the part of men who have the right. And if some son of Juniata or Perry who has been raised among their hills, so far forgets his proper station as to allow his name to appear for the candidacy we hope that the people will indignantly frown down any such unwarrantable and unjustifiable audacity.

Let them be law abiding and give unto Caesar the things that are his, and unto Carlisle the things that are hers.
Yours decidedly,
JIMMY HEFFELFINGER,
Who expects to be admitted to the Bar, provided the Judgeship is not vacant.

A Sneak Thief.—A few days since a thief entered the shop of Esq. Folk, in Rye township, and stole some change from the drawer, and a calf-skin. Some notes and due bills amounting to $114, were also taken from a secretary, but were afterwards found in the coal stove where the fellow had placed them. The squire says he may keep the cash and skin on account of his kindness in leaving the papers.

Last week three colored individuals escaped from the Eastern penitentiary, at Philadelphia, by getting into the sewer which takes the filth from the prison, and crawling along it to a trap which opens on Parish street, two-thirds of a mile from where they entered. One of the men, John Thomas, was arrested again at Harrisburg, on Thursday morning. The other two men were arrested the next day, and all are again in their old quarters.

One Hundred Persons Poisoned.—On Tuesday last a large number of the guests at the Alhambra House, at Atlantic City, were poisoned by something that was served up for dinner.

It is supposed that oil of almonds was put into a custard by mistake. No deaths have occurred, but some of the patients are in a dangerous condition.

Local Briefs.

Quite a large party from Carlisle are now "camping out" at Warm Springs.

York has placed her policeman in showy uniforms.

A Camp Meeting commences to day at Humelstown, at which they expect to have up two hundred tents.

Ikesburg is trying to raise a military company, and our informant says, with good prospect of success.

Two sons of Thadeus Switzer, of Walker township, Juniata county, were recently badly burned while playing with powder.

Uriah Blackburn, of Bedford county, has lost four children within the past month from scarlet fever.

Cumberland county has a large number of jurors summoned on a special order for the August court, in consequence of the Keihl murder trial.

The Juniata Sentinel says that last week while digging among the ruins of the fire of December 31st, smouldering embers were found which have been burning for seven months.

A horse belonging to Emanuel Smith became unduly excited at the camp ground on Sunday, and upset the buggy containing Mrs. Smith and two children, fortunately doing them but little injury.

The result of the primary election of the Democratic party, in Cumberland County, on Saturday last, gave the nomination for President Judge, as far as that portion of the district is concerned, to Judge Graham.

The primary elections of the Republican party of Juniata county takes place on Saturday September 2d. The Republican primary election of Cumberland county is to be held next Saturday.

Another Democratic paper is to be started at Lewisport by some disaffected politicians. It is said to be got up by Gen. Burns, who is too cunning to sink his own money in such an enterprise, and so has made it a joint stock concern.

Every family should have a bottle of "FITLER'S CALMATIVE" in the house.—For sick, fretful, and teething children, there is nothing equal to it. For sale by F. Mortimer & Co.
