Beaver county is excited over a fifteen foot snake.

Bradford county is building a new jail. It is expected to cost one hundred thousand dollars.

A man named Robinson was recently found dead in his door yard at Eric .-The cause of his death was unknown.

A little girl in Union county being asked, "Who was put in the lion's den?" replied "I don't know, I did not go to that circus," 图" A man in Eric county was recently riding horse-back when the animal stepped on a rolling stone, throwing his rider and breaking his leg.

Statistics show that among those supposed to be dead in the city of Paris, one out of each three hundred comes to life. This shows how much more care should be taken in this country to prevent the burial of persons while alive.

13" The aeronauts have had rough experiences lately. One of them descended into the canal basin at Massillon, Ohio, on Saturday week and was drowned. Another, at Nashville, Tenn., on Monday last week, stuck on the top of the smoke stack of a cotton factory, and had to descend through the interior. He came out safe, but decidedly black.

A farmer named Stoneman, residing in Glanford, Canada, lost a valuable horse on Sunday, under rather peculiar circumstances. It appears that the animal had broken into a field of standing grain, where it was discovered a few hours afterwards. Stoneman, while turning it out of the field, struck it a sudden blow with a whip, when it fell dead at his feet.

On the evening of the 23d there was a thunder storm in Harrison county, Indiana. A ball of fire entered the window of a church near Potato run, just after the preacher had announced his text. The ball glided to the middle of the building and exploded. The effect was electrical, but, though the minister and congregation were stunned, no lives were lost.

It is stated that the practice of brewing beer from rice is rapidly coming into use in Germany. This beer is said to be of a very clear, pale color, of an extremely pleasant, mild taste foaming strongly and yet retaining well its carbonic acid. The Chinese prepare a drink from rice called "Samshu," which is not only intoxicating, but peculiarly mischievous in its Cattle Insurance Company. permanent effects.

In Franklin, N. H., a few evenings since, a man and his wife quarreled, after which the latter suddenly left the house, but was soon followed by the husband who feared she might do something rash. He discovered her just in season to see her throw herself into the Winnipesaukee river. Forgetting the past he threw off his coat, gave an alarm, and plunged in after his wife, whom he succeeded in getting hold of, and both were rescued in an exhausted

A poor woman, named Bayson, died in Pittsburg on Wednesday, of last week and her body remained uncoffined for two days, owing to a conflict of authority between the officials of the city at whose expense she should have been burried. They at last furnished a coffin, and promised a wagon to remove the corpse. As the wagon did not appear, some of the poor woman's poor neighbors, by their joint exertions, secured a hearse and raised contributions to defray the funeral expenses

The Rochester Democrat is slightly sarcastic on a railroad line in that vicinity. It says that a gentleman took the train a few days since, on what is termed "the huckleberry road, running between Avon and Mount Morris. After the train started from Avon he discovered that he had left a valuable dog behind, but on arriving at Mount Morris the lost dog was found sitting at the station awaiting the arrival of his master.

A few days since, while a gentleman and lady in a buggy, were crossing Alumn creek, about four miles from Columbus, O., the bridge suddenly gave away. By prompt exercise of presence of mind, the gentleman and lady succeeded in saving themselves by jumping out and catching hold of a plank not carried down in the general wreck. The horse and buggy, however, were engulfed in the downfall, and the horse was instantly killed, and the buggy made into kindling wood.

Some days ago, a lady residing on Walnut hills, near Cincinnati, heard a strange music, like the suppressed singing of birds in her cellar. Her efforts to find out the source were baffled. It moved about, now in one place, and then in another. Her husband looked and listened, but could give no cine to the mystery. Just as they were becoming fit subjects for conversion into a belief in spirits or ghosts, or both, the husband caught sight of a mouse just about where he thought he heard the strange noise. The little animal was secured alive, placed in a cage, and soon proved his musical powers by beginning his rounded that has of what to the pageon
