LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are $1 25 a Year in Advance.

TAKE NOTICE.-The subscription price of THE TIMES is now One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents per year.

Those whose subscription have not yet expired, will of course continue to receive their paper for the balance of the time for which they have paid, without any extra increase in price, or a reduction of the reading matter, by inserting many more advertisements.

Justice to ourselves, compels either this

Out of Debt .- Juniata county is clear of debt-Mr. Watts, the Treasurer, having recently paid off the entire indebtedness. For the first time in twenty-five years she does not owe a dollar. He has, besides, a sufficient sum to pay all orders that may be presented.

A New Furnace.—Responsible parties have began the erection of a new furnace at Newport. The location selected is between the Canal and rail road a short distance below Bair's lumber yard. A siding 400 feet long will be run from the main track of the Penna R. R. a survey for the purpose having been made on Saturday last. We are glad to see these improvements making in our county.

Lively Competition.-No less than four husbands have claimed the effects of the suicided woman at the Union Depot Hotel, Pittsburg, one of whom was pitched out of a second-story window in the coroner's office, by that official, for violently enforcing his claims to the dead woman's property. The suicide, as the case now stands, remains as much a mystery as ever.

Accident .- The horses attached to one of the coaches of the stage line between Mc'-Connellsburg, and Chambersburg took fright on the 17th inst., on the top of the mountain and ran away. The coach was overturned about a mile from the summit, killing the driver and seriously injuring two passengers, a lady and gentleman. The vehicle was demolished.

Read This to Your Daughters,-The character of a community depends much on the young women. If the latter are cultivated intelligent, and accomplished the young men feel the requirement that they themselves should be upright, gentlemanly, and refined; but if their female friends are frivolous and silly, the young men will be found to be dissipated and worthless .-But remember that a sister is always the best guardian of a brother's integrity. As a daughter she is the true light of home. The pride of the father is oftener centered in his sons, but affection is expended on his daughters. She should therefore be the Sun and center of all.

A Word About Peaches. - The Medical Independent cautions persons against eating peaches in the evening, asserting that they are depressive to the circulation, and exhaust the system, owing to the Prussic acid they contain. Speaking of peaches, we would inform our lady readers of the method of preparing a dish, which we think, will be new to most of them. Here it is: Take good-sized freestone peaches, wipe them with a towel, halve them, and place them flat side down in hot butter or lard. Let them fry to a nice brown, then turn fill the seed-cup with sugar, which by the time the fruit is properly coated, will be melted and form with the juice of the peach a rich syrup. Serve up hot, and if you don't like them you need not repeat the experiment. Most persons think the dish a superb one.

A Strange Fatality .- Mr. Jacob Kurtz, a wealthy and respectable farmer of Upper Leacock twp., Lancaster co., was killed on the 16th inst., by the falling of a large limb of a tree, which struck his shoulder and crushed him to the earth. The Express says that a strange fatality seems to have attended this man's life. A number of years ago he made almost a wonderful escape from instant death on the railroad; in later years he was shot in the side at Sprecher's Hotel in Laneaster, by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of a nephew, and his life was saved by the ball coming in contact with a large pocket book. More recently a stroke of lightning singed his hair; and since the latter occurrence he has lived a continual dread of the electric fluid. And finally, a limb of a tree, which seemed secure enough, was blown upon him by a slight gust of wind, resulting in his death, as above stated. Mr. Kurtz was upwards of 50 years of age.

Republican County Convention.

The delegates elected on Saturday last, in the different districts throughout the county, assembled yesterday in the court

The convention assembled at 101 a. m., and organized by electing John L. Diven, Esq., of Landisburg, as President, and Dr. Cisna, of Ickesburg, as Secretary. The standing committee was then appointed, and Mr. William Tressler, of this borough, was elected chairman for the ensuing year. An adjournment was then made, until 1 p. m.

At that hour the convention again assembled, and proceeded to nominate a candi-

> FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR. John Freeland, of Howe. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR, S. H. Galbraith, of Bloomfield. FOR AUDITOR, Wm. A. Roddy, of Landisburg. FOR CORONER,

Cyrus Clemson. Importance of Advertising. - A New York wholesale grocer who has become rich in his business lately, gave one of his fundamental rules of action. When he sold a bill of goods on credit it was his custom to immediately subscribe for the local paper of his debtor. So long as his customer advertised liberally and vigorously he rested, but as soon as he began to contract his advertising space he took the fact as evidence that there was trouble ahead, and he invariably went for his debt. " For the man," said he, "who feels too poor to make his business known is too poor to do business." This withdrawal of an advertisement is an evidence of weakness that business men are not slow to observe.

Delinquent Subscribers. - An editor who was in a trance a number of days related upon his recovery that he went to Heaven, but was denied admittance, lest he should meet some delinquent subscribers, and bad feelings be engendered in that peaceful clime. Having to go somewhere, the editor next appeared in the regions of darkness, but was positively refused admittance, as the Butter # pound, place was full of delinquent subscribers.-lestial city, and was met by the watchman Pealed Peaches................. 18 @ 22 cts. at the portals with a smile, who said : "I was mistaken; you can enter, there is not a delinquent subscriber in Heaven."

Deaths From Coal Oll .- The Blair county Radical says: On Tuesday evening last a heart-rending occurrence resulting in the death of two persons and the serious injuring of two others occurred at the house of Wm. Brown about a mile and a half west of Altoona. It appears that Mrs. Brown attempted to fill a lighted kerosene lamp when it exploded, burning her and a child about two years old so badly that death insued in a short time. Mr. Brown and another child were also badly burned. We have no further particulars, but will endeavor to obtain the facts for our next
