In one week after the purifying of the Chicago river by the diversion of its waters into the Illinois, the deaths in Chicago decreased 119.

23" A Lynchburg colored woman fell thirty feet out of a third story, striking the ground head foremost. They are filling up the hole. She wasn't hurt any.

23 At a golden wedding, in Decatur, Illinois, a few days ago, twenty-seven children were present, each of whom was presented with eighty acres of land, the land thus distributed being in one body.

A Claremount, N. H., man fell off the stage and was reported dead. He proved to be only dead drunk, and while his friends were "waking" him he waked himself, scattering the mourners.

Several persons in Clarion county were last week poisoned by eating cheese. One died from the effects of the poison the next day, and several others at the last accounts were in a dangerous condition.

23" James Helherton was murdered on the 14th inst., at Titusville by John M'Donald. The men were both intoxicated, and becoming engaged in a quarrel, they clinched, when M'Donald drew a knife and plunged it in the abdomen of Helherton five times, killing him instatly.

It takes three or four men to watch Wilson, the Connecticut murderer, who is continually on the lookout for a chance to cheat the gallows. They compel him to eat against his will, and leave him no possible material or opportunity for suicide.-The affair is getting to be ridiculous in the

The Grand Jury of Sonoma, Cal., recommend in a recent report that, "for the safety and comfort of bald-headed men. the loose plastering be removed from the ceiling, or that the sheriff be instructed to furnish parties having business in the court with pillows or suitable shields to cover their heads with."

₽27" One morning last week, at Philadelphia, a young colored girl gave birth to a child whilst seated on the door step of a house at Ninth and Buttonwood streets. She says she was employed as a domestic on Spring Garden street, above Twelfth, and her employer finding that she was about to be confined, turned her into the street. She was removed to the Almshouse

Things don't run very smoothly in Wyoming. Recently six married ladies and as many gentleman were empanneled upon a murder case there, and it became necessary to lock them up all night. Three of the husbands stormed and raved at the judge, and a half dozen children made the court house ring with their cries. The uproar continued until the jury was placed under lock and key.

Chautauque Lake, New York, has lately been infested with a great plague of flies. For some days they have gathered around the shores at Mayville in such quantities as to darken the landscape. They are very short-lived, and one morning two and a half baskets of dead flies were swept from the front verandah of the chief hotel of that village. On the opposite side of the street, where a fresh coating of green paint had been applied, the little pests lay to the depth of six inches.

A gentleman who had taken the horse cars at the R. R. Depot in W. Philadelphia, encumbered with manifold bags and parcels, reached the bell-rope with an effort when he wished to get off, gave a vigorous pull, the result was a sharp ring from both bells. "What are you ringing both ends for ?" was the discourteous and surly inquiry of the conductor. "Because I wish the car to stop at both ends," was the quiet reply that left a convulsed car load and discomfited conductor.

In Marine City, Mich., the other day a young man was walking out with some young ladies, when he found a small frog, and holding it in the palm of his hand brought it near his mouth, which he opened wide. The juvenile croaker seeing what appeared to be a place of refuge, gave a jump into the cave. The young man looked very red in the face, and the ladies looked down the month, but the frog has never been seen from that day to this.

A terrible disaster occurred in an old coal shaft near Eddyville, Iowa, on Friday. William Briggs, intending to re-open the shaft, sent his son and daughter down to dip out water. Both were suffocated by fire-damp. Briggs came to the mine with his brother, and a hired man, and not hearing the children, all three descended, one after another, and shared the same fate. At last accounts only two of the bodies had been recovered.

Two miles from Leavenworth, in Crawford county, Ind., there is an immense pile of large parallelogram sandstones, covering about half an acre of ground, and it is firmly believed that these were quarried, dressed, and transported there by some ancient race who once inhabited that region. In addition to their having square sides and being of great uniformity in width, there is none of the same kind of stone found elswhere in all the county, except two smaller piles near the large one. The largest stones are thirteen feet long and about four feet wide.
