In Sing Sing prison are 1,245 male convicts and 100 female, making a pretty large family.

John Tacher, of Stissing Mountain, Dutchess county, was recently tarred and feathered on the charge of running away with another man's wife.

A Michigan youth recently interviewed a rattle snake, and afterwards partook of a compound of whisky, lard and gunpowder for his health.

An old colored woman in Albany, last week, died suddenly from fright at the choking of a child in her charge, who had swallowed a knob from a teapot lid.

128 A man named Johnson, of Guilford township, Hendricks county, Ind., has bydrophobic fits, during which he manifests all symptoms of rabies. In his lucid interval, he is perfectly well. Years ago he was bitten by a dog supposed to be rabid.

€25" A hardworking but poor German farmer, in Livingston, county, Missouri, whose farm was advertised for sale for debt, in spite of all his industry and economy, still plowed and toiled, and a few days ago dug up a box containing over $1,700 in gold.

The Erie, Pa., Republican has this queer item: A couple of gentlemen who were passing through East Park the other evening saw a woman taking a bath in the fountain. The keeper of the Park was informed of the transaction, and put a stop

A little daughter (aged 7) of Sylvester Southerland, of Milo, Illinois, distinguished herself by repelling a burglar a Sunday or two since. Her parents were at church, and she was in charge of the house and of the other children. A man tried to get in at a window, and the little miss beat him off with a broomstick.

€ A long-standing feud between two Irishmen in N.Y., one an Orangeman and the | Will prevent Malarious Fevers, other a Ribbonman, culminated recently in an attempt by the latter to poison the wearer of the Orange, with Paris green, which was surreptitiously placed in his milk-can. The injured man, Bennett, is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Stanton is called upon to solve a new problem: Miss Smith was married to Mr. Jones, recently, while she held the office of postmistress. The question is, "Who held the office after the ceremony was performed? Certainly not Miss Smith, for there no longer was a Miss Smith; and certainly not Mrs. Jones, for no such postmaster was known to the department."

At Rutland, Vt., William A. Hall committed suicide on the 1st inst., by severing the jugular vein with a pocket-knife. He was the victim of a black-mailing operation, which drove him to the commission of the rash act. One of the black-mailers, named Patch, has been arrested. The victim being well-known, the affair creates much excitement.

A lad living near Winona, Minn., on Sunday last left his younger brother asleep in the field. He was recalled by his cries, and found that a blue racer snake had crawled up his pantaloons and coiled itself around his body. The brave little fellow caught the snake near its head and held it till his parents came and relieved his brother, who was almost in convulsions with terror.

A woman named Session was found by the police, in the streets of Pittsburg, carrying under her shawl a dead baby. On being arrested she said that the mother, Rose Taylor, had no money to bury the child, and that she was taking the body for her to the Sisters of Charity. Investigatson showed that she had told the truth, and she was released. The coroner took charge of the corpse for the interment.

A boy five years old went to a house in Detroit a few days ago, said that he was from Chicago, that his parents were both dead and that he would like to have a home. He looked neat and intelligent, and the family decided to adopt him. Three days after, when he showed himself in the front yard for the first time, he was seen and claimed by his mother, who lived a few blocks away, and who had hunted the city over for the lad.

Mrs. Van Hannon revived in Montana, the other day, the memories of our Revolutionary dames. Left alone in her cabin, she was startled by the approach of three Cheyennes, and had hardly time to bolt the door when the Indians flung themselves against it. Sending her children into the cellar, the heroic young woman seized a revolver and gun, and confronted the Indians at the open window. The redskins were finally driven off, after firing the barn,

At a party in Cambridge, recently, a young man was sentenced to kiss a girl, and he went for her. She struggled of course, to prevent him, although she wanted him to kiss her the worst way, but we all know how it is. In the struggle that ensued he backed her against a window, breaking it, and lots of pieces of glass cut her shoulder, when she fainted and had to be carried home on a plank. It is the best way for girls to go right up and take it like a man, when they will always feel better than to have pains (of glass) stuck in their

Perry County Bank!

Sponsler, Junkin & Co.

THE undersigned, having formed a Banking As-sociation under the above name and style, are now ready to do a General Banking business at their new Banking House, on Centre Square, OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE,

NEW BLOOMFIELD, PA. We receive money on deposit and pay back on demand. We discount notes for a period of not over 60 days, and sell Drafts on Philadelphia and New York.

On time Deposits, five per cent. for any time over four months; and for four months four per cent.
We are well provided with all and every facility for doing a Banking Business; and knowing, and for some years, feeling the great inconvenience under which the people of this County labored for the want of a Bank of Discount and Deposit, we have have determined to supply the want; and this being the first Bank ever established in Perry county, we hope we will be sustained in our efforts, by all th business men, farmers and mechanics. This Banking Association is composed of the fol-

> AND CLAIM AGENCY.

LEWIS POTTER & CO., Real Estate Brokers, Insurance, & Claim Agente

New Bloomfield, Pa. WEINVITE the attention of buyers and sell-ers to the advantages we offer them in pur-chasing or disposing of real estate through our of-fice.

We have a very large list of desirable property, consisting of farms, town property, milis, store and taven stands, and real estate through our office.

We have a very large list of desirable property, consisting of farms, town property, milis, store and taven stands, and real estate of any description which we are prepared to offer at great bargains. We advertise our property very extensively, and use all our efforts, skill, and dilligence to effect a sale. We make no charges unless the property is sold while registered with us. We also draw up deeds, bonds, morigages, andall legal papers at moderate rates.

Some of the best, cheapest, and most reliable fire, life, and cattle insurance companies in the United States are represented at this agency—Property insured either on the cash or mutual plan, and perpetually at $4 and $5 per thousand.

Pensions, bounties, and all kinds of war claims collected. There are thousands of soldiers and heirs of soldiers who are suitled to pensions and bounty, who have never made application. Soldiers, if you were wounded, ruptured, orcontracted a disease in the service from which you are disabled, you are entitled to a pension.

When willows of soldiers do or marry, the minor children are entitled to the pension.

Parties having any business to transact in our line, are respectfully invited to give us a call, as we are confident we can render satisfaction in any branch of our business.
