LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

To Subscribers.—By noticing the figures on the direction label any subscriber can tell when his subscription expires.

As. J. Diven, Landisburg; Samuel Rebert, Shermansdale; B. M. Eby, Newport; W. L. Kipp, Millertown; George Crist, Green Park; Samuel Shumaker, Loyalsock; J. T. Robinson, Center; A. S. Whitekettle, Marksville; Wm. Jackson, New Buffalo; W. R. Swartz, Duncannon; Abner J. Wilson, Juniata P. O.

Local Briefs.

About one half of the amount required to insure the commencement of work on the South Pennsylvania Railroad is now subscribed.

Spring township has a slander suit in prospect.

Grapes have been an excellent crop this season, and home-made wine will probably be cheap. B. Rice, Jr., of Spring township will probably make 200 gallons from the product of his vineyard.

Chestnuts are so plenty that in many places they are sold at five cents per quart.

A Mr. Roadman, of Altoona, was relieved of $220 in Hollidaysburg, the other day, by some of the light-fingered gentry of that village.

A substance supposed by some to be copper ore has been found near Ikesburg.—When heated with iron, that metal appears to be copper-plated. The question now is, what is it?

A "Knights of Pythias" lodge has been started at New Buffalo.

The schools of Centre township are expected to commence on the 13th of November.

Extremes meet.—Lowest prices and best clothing at W. & B's.

Newport Items.—Our Newport correspondent sends the following: A number of boys passing on a freight train a few days since did some damage, by throwing stone coal at the residents on R. R. street.

"Infant" made his appearance on Saturday morning to the satisfaction of his many friends.

John X. Eichles, lost his pocket book containing $25, and a note for $5. Three suspected parties were searched, but nothing has been found.

On Friday night some villain tried to set fire to Abe Keim's grocery.

Kough Snyder & Co., lost a valuable horse by his accidentally breaking his neck while hoisting grain.

J. L. Stinger has killed his "acorn hog." The weight was 118 lbs.

The burgess has called a meeting in the school house this (Monday) evening for the purpose of raising relief for Chicago.

A fine safe intended for the Liverpool Bank is now at the R. R. depot. It was made in Cincinnati, and is a splendid piece of work.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Juniata Co. fair.

A Serious riot occurred in Philadelphia on the day of election. The exact cause of the riot is stated in so many different ways that it seems impossible to tell which is correct, but the most probable story is, that it originated by a policeman obstructing a colored voter in his approach to the polls. Paving stones and pistols were freely used, and fifteen or twenty persons were badly hurt, and several were killed. The riot occurred in the vicinity Eighth and Lombard streets.

Every Pair Warranted.—Those who buy the winter boots sold by F. Mortimer & Co. will be sure of getting a good article, as every pair is warranted not to rip. They had them made to order from the best stock, and in the most substantial manner.

A Great Corner—6th & Market Sts., Phila., W. & B's. Oak Hall.

A Valuable Book.—An agent is now canvassing portions of this county with "Hitchecks Analysis of the Bible." We have no hesitation in saying that it is the most valuable assistant to the bible student of any work ever published. A large number of letters of recommendation from ministers of every denomination will be published next week.

Church Notices.

In the Lutheran church, preaching next Sunday, at 10 o'clock a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

In the Presbyterian church no service next week, communion Sunday a week. Preparatory services commence on the Thursday previous.

Humers Rheumatic Relief is a liniment which is remarkable for its healing properties and is good for man or beast. Having once tried it, no family or horseman will be without a bottle on hand. For sale by F.

Jim Hefflinger's Farewell Epistle.

Dear Sir.—I am unhappy and despondent, uneasy and despondent. One week ago I was jubilant and full of hope, for the skies were bright and the prospects were cheering! Now, all around, there is weeping, and wailing, and gnashing of teeth. Cumberland, like Rachel of old, is weeping for her children. Perry is in despair, because her sons have refused to lick the dust of limestone soil, and Juniata stands aloft at the deepening gloom of Judicial misfortune.

Assembly, School, R. Rows: Schuylkill, R.; York, D.; Jones, D.; Wilson, D.

There is an old legend that runs thus: Far away in the immeasurable extent of azure space there hangs an awful bell invisible to mortal eyes, that is tolled by angel hands alone—that is never tolled except when the unpardonable sin is committed on earth, and there its terrible tones ring through the azure depths falling upon the ear of the guilty criminal—and on his ear alone—freezing his soul with horror as he proclaims to him that he is an outcast from God's presence forever, that while the throne of the Eternal endures, while the endless ages that encompass the life of God roll on there is no hope—nothing but the blackness of despair and the torture of the never dying worm. It was the peals of that bell that broke on my ears; then I was mistaken in my position concerning the Judgeship, I must have sinned against light and knowledge along with my many friends in this bowing down to this modern Baal "Cumberland county supremacy." The deep waters of affliction have rolled over me, I have buffeted their surges but must at last cease my struggles and sink to rest beneath their noisy clamor. The dried apples and water are doing their work, I am fast approaching dissolution—still I have a faint glimmer of hope; the apocryphic angel may have and must have been mistaken about the tolling of the bell. I have made my will and am anxious to meet my fate. My will contains the following legacies—To Cumberland county all my money amounting to $1,37—To S. Winks Wattles Esq., my bootjack and toothpick—To Obadiah Q. Clifflattner my books with an earnest request that he will quit getting drunk.—To Judas Iscariot Arnold the pen with which I have written my epistles.—To Mrs. McCracken my false teeth.—To Mrs. McGrannahan a bundle of old stockings which will do for making chilblains, and to her children all the balance of my personal effects. And now the blood is chilling in my veins, my eyes are bursting from their sockets, my muscles are growing rigid, my pulse beats slowly and my heart will soon cease its pulsation. Adieu my friends I am going, and I trust that when I have passed that boisterous when no traveler returns, that those for whom I have labored and by whom I have been understood, may sometimes drop a tear at the recollection of Yours Finally JIM HEFFLINGER. Who thanks his friends for their kindness and now bids adieu to earth. BAILLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER.—Sparkling and bright, witty and wise, instructive and interesting, is "Baillo's Magazine" for November. It has a sprightly tale of adventure in China, quite a number of illustrated articles and several excellent stories, the whole making the contents of this popular magazine more select and interesting than any other serial in this country. It is brimful of information, and just what is wanted in the family circle. Baillo's Magazine is only 15 cents per copy, or $1.50 per year. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 62 Congress Street, Boston; and we would remind our readers that now is the time to think of getting up clubs for this popular magazine.

CUNDURANGO!

THE WONDERFUL REMEDY FOR CANCER, SYPHILIS, SCROFULA, ULCERS, SALT RHEUM, AND ALL OTHER CHRONIC BLOOD DISEASES.

Dr. P. T. Keene having just returned from Ecuador and brought with him a quantity of the genuine Cundurango Bark, secured through the official recommendation and assistance of His Excellency the President of Ecuador, and the Government of that Republic, we are prepared to fill orders for it to a limited extent, and at a price about one-quarter of that which the cost of the first very small supply compelled us to charge.

A spurious article is now advertised and sold as Cundurango. We have, at a considerable expense, and with the co-operation of the authorities of Loja, the province where the plant grows, so directed the channel of our supply as to ensure that none but the genuine article shall be sold by us; and we particularly call the attention of the public, for their protection, to this fact.

BLISS, KEENE & CO., 60 Cedar St., New York. D. W. Bliss, M. D., Washington, D. C.; Z. E. Bliss, M. D., New York; P. T. Keene, M. D., N. Y.
