We have bought more largely, and therefore more cheaply, than ever before.

We have selected EVERY PIECE of Goods with the utmost care, and had EVERY YARD examined, and well SPONGED before making-up.

We have rejected all COTTON Goods, and have manufactured nothing but ALL WOOL.

We have studied all the New Styles-English, French, and American-and have adopted only the best, together with many New Designs originated by Ourselves.

We have made many improvements in Making-up, and have more confidence than ever in the superiority of our Workmanship.

We have labored to suit all tastes, and have Plain Styles as well as more Fashionable Cuts, and every variety of Shade and Material.

We have determined to do a Larger Trade than ever, and so have combined every inducement that can possibly be offered.

"Indiana Joe," a Piute medicine man, well known among the whites, was stoned to death by his tribe, having failed to restore to health two sick Indians. The practice of medicine among Indians evidently has its unpleasant features.

137 No liquors were furnished at the recent railway banquet in Maine. The officers of the North American railway exact temperance habits from the men they employ, and it was not consistent for them to set the example of furnishing wine to their guests.

137" A clergyman, at Council Bluff, Iowa has swept away the old established rules of marrying for a fee, and announces that he shall hereafter marry by weight, charging four cents per pound for the happy man, and two cents for the bride. The idea is a novel one.

to" Since the second of October, 1871, at which date the international money order system with the United Kingdom went into operation, up to the 31st ult., inclusive, the amount of money sent by money orders from the United States for payment in England was $45,284.50. The amount received from England was $11,694.56.

13 "The Cape Ann "Advertiser" says that the mackerel fishery this season has not proved prosperous, the catch not being more than two-thirds of that of last year. The eatch of cod-fish has been in excess of last year, and most of the vessels engaged in it will make a fair year's work.

137" Three young men in Cornwall laid logs in the highway, one evening. People who came from church ran over the logs, and jolted out all the good they had got at meeting. Deputy Sheriff Miner and Constable Bunnell arrested the log-rollers, and they paid twenty-five dollars for the job.
