The Times, New Bloomfield, Pa.

Tuesday, November 28, 1871. LOCAL DEPARTMENT. OUR TERMS Are $1 25 a Year in Advance.

Will be Closed .- The stores and the bank in this place will be closed on Thursday, it being Thanksgiving day.

For Sale .--- An Oriental Heater nearly as good as new for sale at a bargain, apply to Geo. Spahr.

The Keihl Trial .- A letter from Carlisle written on Saturday morning, says : "The Keihl trial is still unfinished, and will probably last several days longer : The probabilities are against his acquittal."

A Jewel Case .- A man in Harrisburg, who drew a prize of a jewel case, found it to be a hoop-skirt. He is now hunting for the jewel to put inside of it.

Another Pardon.-Governor Geary has pardoned Walter Graham, of Milroy, Mifflin county, convicted for selling liquor on Sunday and to minors.

A New R. R.-A surveying party was recently over the route of the railroad which is proposed to be built on this side of the Susquehanna, from Duncannon to Northumberland. They make a favorable report.

Is it for You?-A change having been made in our firm, we desire all persons who are indebted to us to call and settle their accounts either by cash or note. All accounts not settled by January 1st, will be placed in the hands of a collector.

F. MORTIMER & CO.

Union Thanksgiving Service.-There will be a union thanksgiving service in the court house next Thursday morning at 101 o'clock, of all congregations of the town .-Preaching by Rev. Hedges, and a collection will be taken up for the sufferers at Chicago and the North West. In thanking God for our blessings, let us remember the unfortunate, especially those in the country beyond Chicago, who will undoubtedly suffer this winter unless help is rendered by their fellow men.

137 The best stock of Cassimeres and Coatings in the county, will be found at F. Mortimer & Co's.

Public Sales.

We call attention to the following salesbills for which have been printed at this office :

On November 30th, Moses F. Noll, at his residence, one-half mile east of Eillottsburg, will sell 6 work horses, 3 cows, hogs, pigs, wa-gons, sieds, and a great variety of farming implements. Also a large quantity of house-hold and kitchen furniture.

On December 2d, the assinces of Henry Compwill sell a house and lot in Millerstown ber-ough. See advertisement.

Newport Items .- The stockholders of the Newport Deposit Bank have held a meeting and decided to increase the capital, by taking in some new members; the increase to be not less than $50,000. Under the new organization the officers are Thos. H. Milligan, President; Isaac Wright, Cashier, while the following gentlemen constitute the board of directors : Thomas. H. Milliken, Geo. Hench, H. H. Bechtel, H. Eagle, Frank Eagle, John Wright, Dr. W. R. Cisna, John Bair, and Jacob Bixler, Capt. Crist, so far, has the lead this fall for heavy pork. He killed a hog last week that weighed 453? pounds. Some fellow who had not a proper regard for the ten commandments a few nights since entered the stable belonging to Singer & Bistline, and appropriated their oats.

Turkey and chicken thieves have also made their visits in this borough, and in Oliver township, and have operated with considerable success.

Information is wanted as to who took "Maago" out of Dr. Singer's stable on last Wednesday night, and drove her so hard. Who will tell the news?

An arrest for profanity was made last week by Constable Allen. After the fine ($6.50) was paid, THE SHERIFF was discharged. The warrant was issued by Esq. Zinn on oath of Burgess Sheets.

Great Immigration Into Kansas.-Returns from the General Land Office at Washington, show that 132,000 acres of land have been located in Humbolt and Augusta districts, during last month, principally under the homestead. Allowing each settler 160 acres, it shows that about 300 families have gone in during October. A number of persons of this place, and other parts of the county during the summer of 1870, entered about 8,000 acres, and have an advance of 100 per cent in one years time. About 8,000 acres of choice land can be had at private entry, in this district, at a cost of $141.60 for 160 acres. This sum pays all expenses, including price of land, entry, fees and patent deed. A number of persons in Bloomfield mean to make an effort to secure this tract and hold it for advanced rates. J. Rinehart, Esq., late sheriff, and Chas. L. Murray, Esq., will correspond with any person wishing to join in the location. This land lies near Eldora and Eureka, the county seat of Greenwood and Butler counties, and but a short distance from railroad. Persons will understand this tract does not require settlement.

COMMUNICATED. Church Dedication.

The new reformed church at Ickesburg was dedicated to the worship of the Triune God, on Sunday, the 19th inst. The services preparatory to the dedication were held in the Presbyterian church on the Friday evening preceding. Rev. Hamilton, of the Presbyterian church, preached the opening sermon. Rev. C. H. Leinbach, of Berks county, officiated on Saturday morning, and Rev. T. F. Hoffmeier on Saturday evening. The congregations on these several occasions were large and attentive. The services connected with the dedication proper were held in the Reformed church on Sunday morning. Rev. J. O. Miller of York, preached the dedicatory sermon and officiated in the consecratory services. Rev. C. H. Leinbach also delivered a short address in German. Before the church was dedicated the pastor stated that there was an indebtedness of at least $1,100 on the church. Subscriptions were taken and $1,200 subscribed. On Sunday evening Rev. Jas. Crawford preached, after which the Holy communion was celebrated. The services closed with an exhortation from the pastor, Rev. S. E. Herring.

"POKE'S POTATOES."

The following is a copy of a letter written to a citizen of our county, as the snow began to fall on Thursday last :

ELLIOTTTBURG, Nov. 24, 1871. Mr. Poke-Sir, I will tell you what you Mr. Poke—Sir, I will tell you what you must do to-day; you must raise your poto-toes or you will be attended to by the El-liottsburg Fur Co., of which you are a member. Now you must attend to it, or we will attend to you. This thing is a dis-grace to our town. Now, Poke, 'tend to this thing or it will be rough with you.— Every body says, "Has Poke raised his po-tatoes?" No. Now, Poke, for gracious sake raise your potatoes ! Now, Poke, for mercy's sake raise your potatoes ! Now, Poke, for mercy's sake raise your potatoes ! Now, Poke, if you want those potatoes, raise them ! Raise, RAISE, RAISE those potatoes ! Yours, etc.,

Another Charge AgaInst Shaffner.

Yesterday afternoon Lieutenant of Police Hoopes and Harry Becker proceeded to the residence of Mr. George Cassel, about two miles south of Rutherford's station, and arrested Mrs. Susan Sharlack, the widow of John Sharlack, and daughter of Mr. Cassel, on a warrant issued by Mayor Verbeke on information of Martin Sharlack charging with aiding and abetting in the administration of the poison which caused the death of said John Sharlack. Mrs. Sharlack, whom it will be remembered was the housekeeper of Shaffuer, was brought to this city and committed to prison to await a hearing. A charge was also preferred against Emanuel Shaffner of complicity in the alleged poisoning of John Sharlack by Martin Sharlack, brother of the deceased. Shaffner's counsel waived a hearing in the case. Shaffner is now charged with three murders-poisoning his two wives and the husband of his house-keeper .- Harrisburg Telegraph.

FOUR EVILS.—Whoever habitually uses any alcoholic preparations as an "appetizer" will be likely to suffer from four evils, viz. an overplus of food in the stomach, impaired ability to direct it, the pangs of Dyspepsia, and a doc-tor's bill. Dn. Walken's Vientranke Viskoan Bittrans, the great Teetotal Restorative of the age, without overstimulating the palate or irri-ting the stomach, imparts a healthful appetite, promotes digestion, regulates the liver and bowers, purifies the blood, and thus, instead of entailing four evils, confers four inestimable benefits. 47d4t

No Swearing Allowed.-Persons who are given to profanity must in future be careful how they practice it in Newport, as the act of Assembly which imposes a fine for that offence was commenced to be enorced there last week. The first person who was unfortunate enough to fall into the clutches of the constable upon this charge was the sheriff of the county who paid the tine and was discharged. In a short time we expect to see the borough of Newport a model of morality, as having commenced the enforcement of this act they must continue it, or the arrest of the sheriff will seem to have been made more from spite than from a regard to the law.

We fear, however, that there are some chronic cases there, which will be very hard to cure, but we wish the anthorities suc-

We suggest, though, that the supervisors of Oliver township be made to pay half the fines charged against persons who swear after reaching Newport over the road through the narrows, as some allowance should be made when the provocation is so great.

The building is a neat and substantial wooden structure, 41 by 60 feet, and 18 feet in the ceiling. The architectural design displays much taste on the part of those who conceived the plan. The audience chamber is large enough to accommodate about three hundred persons. There is a neat recess pulpit and a gallery for the choir. The cupola contains a large bell of very fine tone and gives satisfaction to all. The pastor of the church, Rev. S. E. Herring, should feel much encouraged at this happy consummation of a most difficult enterprise. Perseverance can do a great deal. The membership at Ickesburg is a working one and that fact is exemplified in the beautiful church they have just elected. There is a great work before them. We wish them much success.

13"Persons wanting. Boots, Shoes, or Rubbers for men, women or children, can get a good article of F. Mortimer & Co.

COMMUNICATED.

There is quite an interesting revival meeting now in progress in the Evangelical Church near Blain, held under the super-Chirch hear Dails, herd under the super-intendance of Rev. S. W. Seibert, and Rev. R. Bowersox. The alter is nightly lined with penitants, sucing for salvation. The deepest solemnity and religious inquiry seems to prevade the entire neighborhood. On last Sabbath the Sacrament of the Lords Supper was administered to sixty-seven communicants and eighteen were received into Church fellowship.
